Pickpocket is caught in act of robbing passenger on train; victim chokes the thief until his tongue protrudes and forces him to restore stolen watch. Expert Saulman declares before grafprosecution that examination of books of the City Auditor reveals illegal certification of many demands involving over $100,000; Supervisor Gallagher and others are accused of unlawful expenditures....Seven talesmen are examined in trial of Ruef and four jurors are accepted, although some may yet be peremptorily challenged....Goldfield miners now begin to long for joos lock, and hold many conferences with employers; anarchistic agitators are set upon when they attempt to stir up trouble in meeting.

GENERAL EASTERN. The President refuses to make any further statement in the controversy with Harriman, but from the White House comes the news that the publication of the Webster letter is the beginning of a plot on the part of great corporations to discredit the administration's policies before the country, and that E. H. Harriman is the arch-conspirator; the railroad operator also preserves a grim silence....All danger of a railway strike seems to have vanished; Commissioner Neill today handed to the men final statement of the railway managers, who, after conference, have prepared their reply, which Morrissey says tends toward peace....President of Southern Railway denies that capitalization of railroads affects rates....Many Japanese try to gain entry to United States through Mexico, but are held up by immigration officers.

CONNIVE HIS RUIN.

President So Cries Against Trusts.

He Says Harriman Is Arch-Plotter to Undermine Present Policy.

He Asserts Magnate Coveted Senatorship from State of New York.

Parker's Statement About the Campaign Fund Is Flatly Denied.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt believes there is a conspiracy on foot to defeat the policies he has been advocating and to control the Republican national convention next year and that the men who are behind the movement are men who were identified with an organized effort in 1903 to defeat the President for the nomination in 1904.

Edward H. Harriman is cited as one of the ringleaders. Others believed by the President to be "in on the game" are representatives of the Rockefeller interests, men closely identified with those corporations which have been pursued by the present administration.

FIRST MOVES ARE MADE.

The first moves of these conspirators, according to White House information, are being made now in Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and California.

President Roosevelt talked freely about these matters with newspaper men today and made some confidential revelations relative to the campaign of 1904, the manner in which the Republican fight was financed in that year, and the efforts that were made to make the late Senator Hanna the leader of an anti-Roosevelt fight in the Republican national convention of 1904. Incidentally the President again paid his respects to Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic nominee in the last campaign, and discussed Mr. Harriman in the most scathing language. Harriman's real activity in that campaign he attributes to an ambition to become United States Senator from New York. Harriman has said that he wanted Senator Depew made Ambassador to France, so that former Gov. Black could go to the Senate, but in reality Harriman desired the Senatorship himself, it is declared at the White House.

HARRIMAN PICKED LEMON.

Harriman, according to President Roosevelt, picked a lemon in the garden of politics, and he has not succeeded in getting the acid taste and pucker out of his mouth yet.

President Roosevelt does not deny that corporations contributed to his campaign fund in 1904. He has never denied that, he says. However, he looks upon the legislation he has secured from Congress and upon the corporations he has prosecuted or is having prosecuted as evidence that he permitted no contributions to the campaign fund to persuade him to action or to non-action in relation to the corporations, or to influence him in the bestowal of favors.

At the President's insistence certain contributions were refused by the National Committee in 1904. One was a proffer of $70,000 from the Independent tobacco interests, and another was a tender of $26,000 by James Hazen Hyde, who afterward indicated that he expected the appointment as Minister to Belgium as his reward.

REFUTES JUDGE PARKER.
SHARPLY DENIES HIS STORY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—President Roosevelt discussed with a number of his callers today various features of the controversy with Harriman, growing out of the publication of the letters between them. He desired not to be quoted, however.

To his friends the President made it plain that his version of Harriman's visit preceding the election of 1904 was that Harriman wanted assurance from the National Republican Committee to help Chairman Odell in the New York campaign toward whose expenses he (Harriman) had raised $100,000.

The President promised to communicate with Messrs. Cortelyou and Bliss to see what could be done. He did in this case, he declared, just what he had done in other instances where he had been appealed to to help in State campaigns.

HE CONTRADICTS PARKER.

To some of his visitors the President referred to the statement made public last night by Judge Alton B. Parker, in Albany, in which he said that it has never been denied that $150,000 was turned over by the Equitable Mutual and New York Life insurance companies to Cortelyou's committee and that Congress has refused to make an investigation into the corporate contributions of 1904, or pass a law prohibiting such contributions in the future. On this subject the President referred to a statement which he made on November 4, 1904, in which he said in part:

"That contributions have been made to the Republican committee, as contributions have been made to the Democratic committee is not the question at issue. Judge Parker's assertion is in effect that such contributions have been made for improper motives, either in consequence of threats or on account of improper promises, direct

FEARS MOSLEM MOVEMENT.

British Agent in Egypt Says Combination to Defy Christian World Is Being Formed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 3.—In his report on the progress of the various administrative departments of the Egyptian government, issued by the Foreign Office, today, Lord Cromer, British Agent in Egypt, deals at length with the anti-British movement, known as "Egyptian Nationalism." This, Lord Cromer describes as a plant of "exotic rather than indigenous growth," and "deeply tinged with Pan-Islamism," thereby making a combination of all the Moslems throughout the world to defy and resist the Christian powers.

Viewed in this aspect Lord Cromer says the movement requires to be watched carefully by all European nations as it may possibly lead to sporadic outbursts in different parts of the world. He adds:

"We were within a very measurable distance of such an outburst last spring when the European inhabitants of Egypt flooded into the towns. Their alarms were not altogether unreasonable."

Lord Cromer believes that cohesion between Egyptians and foreigners can be secured only by the creation of a local international executive council composed of thirty-six members, sixteen nominated by the government and the remaining twenty elected by interested prominent residents.

Lord Cromer declares the present system of legislation by diplomacy must be abandoned, and his report contains numerous recommendations for the better government of Egypt. It concludes with a warning to British officials against speculating in land and other temptation.

WELLMAN SAYS POLE IS EASY.

SCOFFS AT PEARY'S FEARS FOR HIS SAFETY.

Daring Newspaper Correspondent Who Will Face Terrors of Arctic in Quest for Ultimate North—Likens His Balloon's Surface Strength to Sheet Metal Roof.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Walter Wellman, who arrived today from Paris, said he was well satisfied with his arrangements for the proposed Wellman Record-Herald airship expedition to the North Pole. He informed friends who met him at the pier that he would start in July.

"I am informed," said Wellman, "that Commander Peary thinks my plan is not practicable. He thinks it will not be possible to reach the pole in a balloon by reason of the weather conditions. In answer, I want to say he has no idea at all about ballooning.

"My balloon is constructed to meet all the Arctic conditions and I have full confidence in my ability to reach the pole in it. When I set out from Spitsbergen in July I shall think of nothing but success for my undertaking. My balloon has a resisting power of 500 pounds to the square inch, and that surely will be sufficient to turn all of the icicles to which Peary refers. The surface is just as penetrable as the ordinary sheet-metal roof.

"I am not in the least superstitious. If I were, I would not be launching my balloon on this expedition to the unknown where Andre took his departure, never to return. He was not properly equipped as to mechanism in his ship, and I am convinced that he fell into the Arctic sea.

"I shall carry with me 7000 pounds of gasoline to supply gas for the bag and 3000 pounds of rations. I shall take with me about twelve Eskimo dogs for possible use. If I do succeed in finding the pole, I fully expect it to be nothing more than the center of the open sea."

FIALA TO TRY.
WILL GO FOR NORTH POLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Anthony Fiala, who went to the frozen North with the Baldwin-Zeigler expedition, is planning a quest of the North Pole, and he has announced to his friends that he has the backing of two capitalists.

According to the present arrangement, the navigator of the expedition will be Capt. George Comer, who is thoroughly conversant with the conditions in the polar seas. The expedition, it is expected, will cost $200,000. It probably will be undertaken in a chartered vessel.

OTJEN DISCUSSES CANAL.

Congressman Declares Meals Might Be Better, but Does Not Think Graft Exists.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MILWAUKEE, April 3.—"I am willing to admit that the meals might be better in the canal zone, but I do not think there is graft or any great degree of mismanagement on the Isthmus," said Congressman Otjen today when questioned regarding the charges made by Congressman H. T. Rainey of Illinois against the Canal Commission.

"All the members of our party noted that the food was not quite so good as the food we get in the States, but that was to be expected.

"Mr. Rainey probably is right in saying that there is some trouble regarding the transportation of meats because refrigerator cars are not used, but all this will be done away with in time. Eventually the facilities will be so complete that meats will be kept fresh from the time they are landed at the canal to the time they are placed on the tables."

TAKE PHOTOS OF BREATHS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, April 3.—The science of the photography of the breath was explained yesterday at the annual meeting of the Roentgen-ray conference. Cinematographic pictures of the breath of many persons were thrown upon a screen.

The inventor of the method is Dr. Koehler of Wiesbaden. It is expected that the discovery will play an important part in the diagnosis of tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

FIFTEEN ITALIANS ROAST IN FLAMES.

Eighteen More Are Badly Burned in Fire Which Starts in Cheap Lodging-house in San Francisco—City Soap Works Are Also Ablaze.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fifteen Italians were roasted to death and eighteen were badly burned in a cheap lodging-house at No. 114 Connecticut street early this morning. There were over 100 in the flimsy structure and there was a wild panic when the alarm was given. Most of the unfortunates who lost their lives were roasted to death while they slept. The fire is believed to have started in the kitchen and had gained great headway before it was discovered.

Before many minutes half of the inmates were almost completely enveloped in flames. Many of the Italians leaped from windows and the cries of those imprisoned were terrible to hear. The fire department responded promptly but by the time that the first hook and ladder company responded the blaze was so hot that the firemen were hardly able to place the ladders against the walls. Many who were caught on the top story managed to escape by these means.

It was shortly after midnight when the fire was discovered. It gained headway so rapidly that those who first heard the alarm were so terrified that they did not think of the others, but rushed anywhere away from the building. Outside they stood around praying and wringing their hands in hopeless terror while those imprisoned were shrieking in agony.

In an attempt to rescue an unconscious man from the flames William Cole, a fireman, was overcome by smoke and fell from a ladder. He was terribly injured internally, and at a later hour last night was in a critical condition.

Two of the worst hurt among those who leaped from the burning building were taken to the Central Emergency Hospital where they are not expected to live.

The wife of the proprietor, Mrs. B. Fierpo, was among those who were lost in the burning hotel. At the first alarm the husband rushed out to see the extent of the trouble. When he saw the flames creeping up the side of the building he tried to make his way to where his wife was.

The corridor was full of smoke and he saw a blaze in the direction of his wife's room. Desperately he tried to reach the place, but he was finally driven back choked and blinded by smoke. There were several other women in the building and all of them are thought to have perished. The exact number of the dead could not be ascertained but the proprietor declares that it is over twelve.

Rosa Besola, who was employed in the place as a cook, and an unknown woman, who started back to the burning building for her bank book, are among the missing. The Besola woman was sleeping near where the fire started and was not seen after the alarm was given. The woman went back to recover her bank book did not reappear. It is thought that she perished.

Doctors were telephoned for and five from the Emergency Hospital responded immediately. By the light of the fire they established a first-aid station in a lot a block from the burning building.

Over eighteen of the unfortunate Italians, most of them injured by leaping from the building, were treated there. As rapidly as ambulances could be procured, they were rushed to nearby hospitals. Up to 2:15 o'clock this morning six of the injured Italians had been taken to the Central Emergency Hospital.

The City Soap factory is also reported ablaze and a total loss.

They were all pretty badly injured and one or two of them may not survive. The whole staff of attendants at the hospital went to work on the patients and they were so busy working to relieve their pain that it was impossible to secure the names of the victims.

One of the men is suffering from a fractured skull and it is feared that he will die. The others mostly sustained broken limbs.

ABANDON BLUSTER.

Totemites Prepare to Back Down.

Railway Wage Negotiations Reach Stage Assuring Peace Terms.

Commissioner Neill Hands Men Final Demand and They Reply.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO (Ill.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The threatening strike cloud which has darkened the railway situation was practically dispelled today and peace is believed to be in sight. The union leaders will make answer tomorrow to a proposition of the general managers submitted to them by Commissioner Neill of the Federal Department of Labor. Whether the proposition is in the nature of a concession on the part of the managers or merely a proposal of arbitration cannot be learned from either side.

Commissioner Neill met the men at the Sherman House during the afternoon, following a conference with the general managers. After a long talk, in which he urged the employés to consider the effects of a strike upon the country, he submitted the proposal of the railways.

WARNS MEN SERIOUSLY.

He warned them seriously of the grave responsibilities of men who would precipitate a strike disastrous to public interest at this time.

He left immediately afterward and the men had a long conference, after which the announcement was made that an answer would be given the railway officials tomorrow morning.

It is possible that the answer may be in the form of a counter proposition, which would delay a settlement of the troubles slightly, but it is believed that peace will be reached in the end.

The trainmen find themselves in a difficult position and would like to get out of it as gracefully as possible.

They have been outmanuevered by the railroad officials who have first agreed to a substantial increase of pay and finally appealed to have the controversy arbitrated.

Now the trainmen must either recede or accept the responsibility for a most disastrous strike.

SANITY RESUMES SWAY.

That they are loath to call the strike is evident and to accept the original offer of the roads after the threats made would be a bitter pill for the leaders to swallow.

It is almost certain that the end of negotiations must come tomorrow and everything now points to a peaceful settlement.

Commissioner Neill when he left the conference with the men admitted that he carried into the meeting a proposal from the managers. He intimated that a definite conclusion would soon be reached.

Chief Morrissey, while refusing a statement, held out the strongest promise of a peaceful settlement that he has shown for several days. When asked if the outlook was for peace or war he said that indications pointed toward peace.

SCIENCE BACKS NEW SPELLING.

LITERARY MEN ON CONTRARY ABHOR REFORM.

Such Is Report of Board to Simplify Orthography—Andrew Carnegie Receives Thanks for Diminishing Labor of Future Generations and Increasing Store of Original Ideas.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Chairman Brander Matthews of the Simplified Spelling Board, at its first meeting today, submitted a report stating that at least 100,000 persons were using the form of spelling urged by the organization.

Most of the criticism against the board's activity, Prof. Matthews declared, had come from men of letters, but this had been more than offset by the support of the men of science.

Prof. Matthews said the President's warm attitude toward simplified spelling had also been a powerful factor in advancing the work.

Resolutions were adopted thanking Andrew Carnegie for the aid he had rendered the board, and expressing the conviction that through the help thus rendered there "would be insured for countless generations a great diminution in the labor of teaching and learning, with a proportionate increase in the things taught and learned; a vast increase in the facility of spreading ideas and therefore a vast increase in each individual stock of original ideas."

Prof. Thomas Lonsdale of Yale was elected president of the board. Chas. D. Scott made an active effort to enlist the support of teachers and professors, and said the efforts at international coöperation should be made to bring about coöperation in Great Britain. Andrew Carnegie and Lyman J. Gage were appointed auditors, and it was voted to have the board incorporated under the laws of New York State.

SURRENDERS COAL LANDS.

Union Pacific Returns Millions to Nation at Interstate Commission's Behest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coal lands worth millions of dollars are to be restored to the public domain as the result of recent activity by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Union Pacific Railroad and its subsidiary, the Union Pacific Coal Company, have agreed to return to the government the immensely rich coal lands they have seized in Wyoming and Colorado if the government will drop prosecutions.

As the statute of limitation now runs against criminal actions, the government will undoubtedly accept the offer. The surrender by the Harriman corporations of millions of dollars worth of coal lands will be followed by government proceedings against the same corporations, involving the title to other lands they are not willing to surrender without a fight.

There will also be proceedings against the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, the Utah Fuel Company, and possibly an effort to obtain an adjudication as against the State of Utah.

MANIAC AFTER MAYOR-ELECT.

Runs Through Crowd in Office Brandishing Heavy Stick and Shouting for Postmaster—When Asked Who He Is He Declares He Is "Lincoln the Second."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor-elect Busse was threatened with death today by a maniac. While his office was crowded with political allies, advisors and friends, a crazy man rushed into the place, carrying a heavy cane, which he brandished over his head. The crowd fell back when the crank rushed toward Busse.

"Where is he? Where is this man Busse?" he shouted, as he broke through the crowd. When within five feet of the postmaster, the maniac swung his heavy cane.

Before the weapon fell, a dozen hands seized and carried him by main force outside of the office.

"Who are you?" he was asked, but his only answer was:

"I am Lincoln the second."

While his arms were pinioned, his clothing was searched. No weapon of any kind was found, and it was decided that he was a harmless crank. The police were not called, and the man left without revealing his identity or why he wished to talk to Busse.

INDEPENDENTS FIGHT COMBINE.

SOUTHWESTERN LUMBERMEN FORM COMPETING MERGER.

New Concern, Organized to War on Kirby Company, and Backed by Prominent St. Louis Capitalists, Will Build Largest Planing Mill in the World.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GALVESTON (Tex.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Gulf Lumber Company, with a $30,000,000 capital, has been organized to compete with the Kirby lumber combine in the Southwest. The company is a consolidation of several independent lumber concerns with increased capital, represented by St. Louis capitalists headed by ex-Gov. Francis.

The new concern owns and controls 1,125,000 acres of timbered land in Eastern Texas and Western Louisiana. The Santa Fé Railroad is interested in the new company, which has prepared plans for the largest planing mill in the world. It will be erected on the Jasper and Eastern line of the Santa Fé near the Louisiana border and will cost over $1,000,000.

Material has been ordered for the construction of over twenty miles of standard-gauge tramroads, which will be built from the timbered lands and mill to a connection with the Santa Fé, the Kansas City Southern and Southern Pacific systems. The first big contract will be to furnish the Santa Fé system with ties and other lumber for five years, which contract has been controlled by the Kirby Company for several years.

ROYALTY VISITS CANADA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A nephew of King Edward is in Canada and reached Vancouver on the steamer Empress of Japan late last night. The young man is Leopold Charles Edward, Prince of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, possessing the English title of Duke of Albany, through his father.

The Prince, although nominally reigning Prince of Saxe-Coburg, does not possess the reins of power which are held by the regent, until Prince Leopold attains the age of 25 years, two years hence. Four months ago he started on a trip around the world.

CHRIST DISCIPLES MEET.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—With a proposition before it looking toward the merger of the "Disciples of Christ" and the Baptists, the ninth annual congress of the Disciples of Christ met here today.

CATHOLIC EXTENSIONISTS MEET.

CHICAGO, April 3.—The annual meeting of the Catholic Church Extension Society was held here today with delegates of the Catholic Church throughout the country present.

EXPOSES HORTON.

Bay City Auditor in Bad Muddle.

Expert Declares San Francisco Official Has Misspent Large Sums.

Claims for Hundred Thousand Dollars Illegally Certified to by Him.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The expert accountant of the grand jury, Julius C. Saulman, who has been examining the books and records of the office of City Auditor Horton, has, he declares, ascertained that this municipal official has been guilty of certifying demands upon the City Treasurer aggregating more than $100,000, which are entirely illegal, and that the bonds of the City Auditor, amounting to $50,000, may be forfeited as a result of his action. An indictment may be returned against him.

City supplies have been purchased indiscriminately by the Finance Committee of the Supervisors, on orders given arbitrarily without advertising, as the charter provides, for bids, declares Saulman.

Appropriations have been exceeded in many instances illegally.

The Auditor has furnished himself with a horse and buggy at a cost of $45 a month unlawfully, and the offices he occupies, with the adjoining building, have been leased from his attorney, in violation of the law, for $400 a month.

ILLEGAL SALARIES.

It is also ascertained, says Saulman further, that the Auditor has paid out salaries to a large number of city employés who were not legally appointed, or entitled to hold offices. Among these being Myrtle Cerf, Thomas Atkinson, Samuel B. Priest, John J. Finn, James A. Devoto, Thomas Jefferson Gallagher, "Sol" Bloom and W. H. Mead, the clerks in the Auditor's office, Elmore C. Leffingwell, John E. Beehan, James Graham and George Dijeau.

The total amount of salaries unlawfully paid these persons is $19,271.70, and it is the opinion of Expert Saulman that the Auditor can be made to refund this amount to the city.

What action the grand jury will take in respect to the City Auditor has not yet been determined.

HORTON NEXT IN LINE.

As soon as some of the larger graft cases now under investigation have been finished, the inquisitorial body will consider the case against Horton.

On August 2 of last year the City Auditor certified a demond on the City Treasurer for $2500 for the Dinen Construction Company for the wooden shack which is occupied by the Board of Public Work, without any legal authority, as the charter provides, asserts Saulman.

One of the most glaring of the illegal expenditures is the purchase of automobiles by Supervisor Gallagher, while he was acting Mayor, at a total cost of $5830. These machines were all bought on the order of Gallagher, and the demands were passed by the City Auditor without proper legislation.

FOUR JURORS FOR GRAFTER.

SOME MAY YET BE PEREMPTORILY CHALLENGED.

Seven Talesmen Examined Yesterday, Three Accepted—One Panelman Complimented, Is Acceptable to Defense Without Examination, but Deafness Disqualifies Him.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Three of the first twelve talesmen who will sit in the jury box, subject to peremptory challenge, were passed by the prosecution and the defense as a result of the second day's proceedings in the trial of Abraham Ruef for extortion. They are J. H. Dumbrell, a retail merchant; William D. Knight cashier for a furniture firm, and Julius Meyer, a tobacconist, retired.

J. R. Bradstreet having been passed by both sides yesterday, four talesmen have now been temporarily selected. When this number has been increased to twelve, they will be subject to peremptory challenge, the defense having the right to exclude ten jurors peremptorily and the prosecution five.

In all seven panelmen were examined today, four being challenged for cause and excused—Angelo R. Duperu, a real estate man; William Cohen, a retired merhant; Donald McDonald, a wholesale liquor dealer, and former Supervisor John T. Sheehan.

The eighth talesman, Christian Reis, capitalist, was given permission to address counsel just before the adjournment of court for the day. He stated that he was disqualified to serve as a juror because of deafness, and that he was otherwise hysfally unfit, at this time, to try a case. In substantiation he produced a physician's certificate. Both the defense and the prosecution paid a high compliment to Reis by expressing an earnest desire to have him on the jury "if he thought he could hear the testimony," and the defense offered to accept him without examination as to qualification. Reis replied that it would be useless for him to attempt to serve. He was excused.

QUESTIONS BY ACH.

During the examination of Junor Knight he was asked these questions by Attorney Ach for the defense:

"Would the fact that this defendant has been indicted by a grand jury composed of prominent citizens of San Francisco prejudice you against him?

"If a hundred, or five hundred, other crimes should be charged against this defendant, Ruef, and this court should admit in this trial evidence supporting them, and you believed the defendant guilty of those 500 other crimes, could that belief influence you as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant on the charge on which he is now being tried, if the prosecution had failed to prove his guilt on this charge beyond a reasonable doubt?

"Are you decidedly prejudiced against political bosses? In other words, do you think a political boss is such a vicious and corrupt being that he ought to be sent to jail anyway?"

By Attorney Shortridge of the defense, this question was put to Talesman Meyer:

"Do you clearly and thoroughly understand that when a lawyer accepts a retainer from a client for a stated period of time, the acceptance of that retainer precludes his acceptance of any service against that client during that period?"

Ruef's chief defense will be that he, as a lawyer, was retained for a period of years by the French restaurateurs to care for their legal interests, and he will offer in evidence a contract to that effect in explanation of the large sums paid by them to him, and which the prosecution claims he extorted.

SHEEHAN IS BIASED.

It took only two minutes to examine, challenge and excuse former Supervisor Sheehan. He said:

"I am biased and prejudiced. I have been twenty years in business in the French restaurant district, and I have heard the merits of these charges discussed, perhaps, a thousand times. I would not be a proper person to sit on the jury."

The examination of J. H. Dumbrell, a retail merchant at No. 2873 California street, was begun by Dist.-Atty. Langdon, this being his first active appearance in the trial.

Langdon's examination of Dumbrell was brief and along lines already indicated. The examination by Ach was, however, still under way when the noon recess was taken. Particular stress was laid by him unon the readiness or unwillingness of the talesman to give Ruef the full benefit of any "reasonable doubt" that might arise as to his guilt, no matter how slight that doubt might be. Dumbrell answered to the apparent satisfaction of the defense.

One question put by Ach with great emphasis was this:

"If you were satisfied in your own mind that a reasonable doubt did exist, would you vote to acquit the defendant, and would you continue to so vote if the other eleven jurors voted to convict? Would you allow them to persuade you to their conclusion, or would you stand by your vote of 'not guilty' regardless of such personal consequences to yourself as long absence from your family, or fear of newspaper criticism, or fear of future newspaper attack?"

Dumbrell answered firmly:

"I would be guided solely by my own conviction. I would not be influenced by anything else."

Another of Ach's questions was: "Do you believe a man has a right to sell his influence in the aid and assistance of another, if he has influence?"

MAY BE "LIVE ISSUE."

Johnson objected to this as not a proper question. Ach retorted that it was.

"It may be a live issue in this case," he said. The objection was sustained.

Replying to another interrogation, Dumbrell said:

"I believe I am fair and impartial. I believe I could give the defendant a fair and impartial trial on the evidence. But it would be a great inconvenience to me to serve as a juror in this case."

When the court was reconvened for the afternoon session, Former Justice Dooling of the Appellate Court occupied a seat on the bench with Judge Dunne.

The prosecution began the examination for the fourth talesman, William Cohen, a Hebrew merchant. Cohen stated that he had known Ruef for many years, was very friendly with him and had been for twenty-five years in business as a partner with an uncle of Ruef's.

"I have formed an opinion that the defendant is innocent," said the talesman, "and it would require stronger evidence to change that opinion than if the defendant were a man whom I did not know."

He confessed, finally, that he did not believe he could try the case fairly and impartially.

The prosecution promptly asked him for cause. The defense resisted, and under examination Cohen declared that he would be governed solely by the evidence and would give a fair and impartial trial.

Requestioned by Johnson, he admitted that he expressed the opinion that this was a political prosecution, and that there was nothing in the charge. The prosecution renewed the challenge. It was not again denied by the defense, and Cohen was excused.

Louis Glass will be called upon tomorrow in Judge Lawlor's court to plead to the indictment for bribery found against him by the grand jury. Glass was indicted on nine counts.

LOOKING FOR DETWEILER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Special Agent Burns, Sheriff O'Neil and Chief of Police Dinan have joined forces to find and arrest Abraham K. Detweiler, the Toledo, O., millionaire, who has been indicted on thirteen counts by the grand jury, charging bribery of Supervisors in behalf of the Home Telephone Company.

Detweiler has been declared by Superior Judge Lawlor to be a fugitive from justice. Burns today furnished O'Neil and Dinan with a description of Detweiler, which, with a picture of the indicted capitalist, has been mailed throughout the United States.

Sheriff O'Neil will make his return to Judge Lawlor tomorrow morning on the bench warrant for Detweiler, and will report that he has been unable to find him.

DETWEILER ESCAPES.

FOUND IN BATTLE CREEK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BATTLE CREEK (Mich.) April 3.—A. K. Detweiler of Toledo, indicted for bribery at San Francisco, was located in a private house here this afternoon, but escaped arrest by leaving the house by a rear door and being whirled away in an automobile, five minutes before the detectives called at the house to effect his arrest.

It is thought Detweiler's destination was Belle Isle, twelve miles north of here, where he could catch a Grand Trunk train for Canada.

CALIFORNIAN WEDS.

PARIS, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Ruth McNutt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. McNutt of San Francisco, and David R. C. Brown of Aspen, Colo., were married here today by the Rev. Chauncey Goodrich.

IRISH SEEK LAND O' HOPE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 3.—A parliamentary paper shows that emigration depleted the population of Ireland last year of 35,918 persons, being 3.3 per 1000 of the entire population. The United States continues to be the Irish Mecca, having received last year 76 per cent. of the emigration. It is pointed out by this paper that 4,110,000 persons have emigrated from Ireland to various countries and that this number equals 98 per cent. of the present population of the country.

BREWERY MEN RESUME WORK.

ST. LOUIS STRIKE IS FINALLY SETTLED.

Compromise Wage Schedule Is Agreed to by Both Sides and Contracts Are Made to Run Three Years—Maltsters Get Half of Increase Asked for.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The brewers and their striking workmen effected a settlement of their differences late this afternoon, the men resuming work. The settlemnt was effected by mutual concessions, a compromise wage schedule being agreed to. The maltsters and brewers accepted 50 per cent. of their original request. The contracts are to run three years. The salaries of wash-house and cellarmen is advanced from $15 to $16.50 a week. Wages of the men in the brew houses and the malt houses have been advanced from $16 to $17.50 a week.

The bottlers will receive $2 for eight hours' work, instead of $1.70 for nine hours. Corkers, $2.35, instead of $2 per day; firemen 30 cents an hour for eight hours' work; freight handlers, $2 a day for eight, instead of nine hours' work.

Engineers get $23 a week, oilers $15 a week for eight hours' work a day, instead of $362.50 a month and ten hours a day; laborers, $2 a day for eight hours, instead of $1.80 for nine hours.

MINERS HOLD MANY MEETS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday there have been held conferences between committees representing the Western Federation of Miners and the Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association of Goldfield. Last night the results of such meetings up to that time were reported to the regular meeting of the Miners' Union, whereupon another miners' committee was delegated to confer with the Executive Committee of the Mine Owners' Association this afternoon.

This new acting committee of the miners consists of President Brown, Vice - President Sexton, Secretary-Treasurer Willis and ex-President Dan Rodebusch, all of the Goldfield union and acting Grand President Mahoney of the Western Federation of Miners.

While nothing definite has yet been accomplished, there is prevalent among both citizens and miners a hopeful spirit born of the probability of an early settlement and reopening of the mines.

At the regular meeting of the Miners' Union, Vincent St. John, the anarchistic agitator, backed water. His remarks were much milder than ever before, and his only attempt at troublebrewing was quashed by the disgusted miners. St. John, however, exhorted the brethren to stand pat with the Industrial Workers of the World, win or lose. Acting President Mahoney counseled peace, but insisted that it be coupled with honor to the miners.

Though these meetings are supposed to be secret, it is learned that the disturbing and perennially loafing element made a fruitless effort to prevent the naming of an arbitration committee.

When the deliberations of these joint committees shall result in some specific proposition upon which to act there will be called a special meeting of miners to ratify its terms, and there is no question of their approving anything that will lead to their return to work. No question of wages or hours is involved. The mine owners have repeatedly asserted that there is no fight against the bona fide miners, but a war of extermination against the un-American I.W.W.

A determined effort was made by Goldfield missionaries to embroil Silver Peak in the present controversy. The miners of that camp turned the agitators down cold.

United States Senator George S. Nixon, who is in the camp, says that the present is the proper time to avoid sensationalism. Those who would discuss the situation can best serve the interests of the district by remaining silent until positive and complete developments justify public utterance.

LABOR BRIEFS.

Laborites Attack Cars.

MONTGOMERY (Ala.) April 3.—Late last night simultaneous attacks were made in the suburbs on cars of the traction company, whost motormen and conductors are on a strike. Fourteen shots were fired at one car that carried a number of passengers, but no one was hurt. Policemen were rushed to the scene.

Carmen Get Raise.

BUTTE (Mont.) April 2.—Conductors and motormen in the employ of the Butte Electric Company are receiving 2½ cents an hour more than they did last month. Senator W. A. Clark, owner of the street railway system of Butte, has ordered an increase, which went into effect April 1.

Teamsters on Strike.

BOSTON, April 3.—Fourteen hundred teamsters went on a strike in this city today to enforce a demand of an increase of $1 a week in their pay and a reduction in their hours of work.

Paper Makers Walk Out.

GLENS FALLS (N. Y.) April 3.—All the paper makers employed here went on strike last night to enforce their demands for dismissal of men who deserted their union and joined the mill workers.

Six Thousand May Strike.

SEATTLE, April 3.—A special to the Post-Intelligencer from Tacoma says: "As a result of the controversy beginning between the plumbers and the bosses, and later involving the Citizens' Alliance and the Building Trades Assembly, 6000 union men may be called out from work in this city next Monday morning. The Tacoma unions will, it is declared, have the moral and financial support of Seattle unionites."

ILL-TIMED AND VAIN, IT SAYS.

"Novoe Vremya" Thinks Russia Is Unprepared.

Peace Conference Is Not Yet "Propitious."

Baron Rosen Gives Root an Invitation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg, Russia, says the Novoe Vremya published an editorial today declaring flatly that The Hague peace conference is ill-timed and will be futile.

"Russia," the paper says, "is barely able to cope with her internal crisis, and the reservations made by the powers indicate the fruitlessness of the deliberations. "This project of Prof. De Marten should be deferred to a more propitious season."

Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador, called upon Secretary Root at the State Department and informed him he had received from St. Petersburg the invitation to the United States to attend the second Hague conference.

The invitation was in French, and it was necessary to make a translation before it could be handed to Secretary Root officially.

The understanding here has been that the date would be placed some time between June 1 and 15.

URGE RIGHT TO ABSTAIN.

RUSSIANS ISSUE CIRCULAR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—The Russian representatives abroad have been directed to communicate a circular note regarding the Hague peace conference, the main feature of which is the announcement that Russia, Germany and Austria reserve the right to abstain from the discussion of questions "which in their opinion cannot lead to practical results," meaning the limitation of armaments.

On the other hand, Great Britain and Japan reserve the right to abstain from the discussion of any points in the Russian programme when, according to their views, satisfactory conclusions are not obtained.

The question of the limitation of armaments, according to the note, is proposed by three powers, the United States, Great Britain and Spain; the United States also proposing the addition of the Drago doctrine to the programme, and several states reserve the right to present independent propositions to the conference on questions connected with the Russian programme, but not directly mentioned in it.

In conclusion, the note states that the Russian Minister at The Hague has been instructed to ask the government of the Netherlands to issue final invitations to the conference in order that it may be opened in the middle of June.

According to Prof. De Maartens, who was received in audience by Emperor Nicholas yesterday, Russia believes the time is not ripe for the discussion of the question of limitation of armaments, as practical results cannot be obtained, but if the United States and Great Britain are determined to bring the subject before the conference, Russia is not inclined to insist on its seclusion. In consequence of the unsuccessful war, Russia's army and fleet are far below their normal strength, and she is not willing to restrict her freedom of action in resuming her proper military position.

STEAD REACHES NEW YORK.

DISCUSSES HAGUE CONFERENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—William T. Stead, who has recently made a tour of the European capitals in the interest of The Hague conference, and who came here to attend the dedication of the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh, arrived here today.

Stead will attend the national peace conference in this city April 16 and 17.

In speaking of The Hague conference today, he said it would carry one step further the principles which the American delegates incorporated in the convention of 1899, the recommendation that "usage in duels" should be extended to wars.

"Article 8 of the convention, which contains this recommendation, has not been voted upon, although the recommendations have been made frequently," said Stead. "It recommends that when two powers have a dispute which they are unable to adjust by ordinary means of diplomacy, they should not resort to hostilities the moment they suspended diplomatic intercourse, but that they should each call in a special mediator, who shall have a period not exceeding thirty days in which to try to compose the dispute and avert war.

"If it had been acted upon, neither the South African war nor the Russo-Japanese war would have broken out when they did. A pause of thirty days and a fresh deal with new negotiations would give the world absolute security against a sudden outbreak of war, and place the delirium of war fever under the control of the common sense of the community."

[AUTHORIZED ANNOUNCEMENT.]

IN JUSTICE TO MR. HEIMANN.

[From an editorial in the Evening News of April 2.]

When the head of the wholesale drug house of F. W. Braun Company discovered, four or five weeks ago, that a series of petty pilferings were being conducted by the employés in the various departments, who were in collusion with one another, in reporting the occurrence, the Evening News inadvertently included the name of Richard Heimann, one of the trusted lieutenants of Mr. Braun, and a director of the company. As Mr. Heimann was in the East on business at the time, the mistake was all the more deplorable.

We were prompt to explain, next day, the erroneous coupling of his name with the unfaithful clerks, but have waited his return to the city to emphasize the statement. The Evening News is moved to do this, not alone from a sense of duty and justice, but in order to pay a merited tribute to a young man who, from an unimportant position with the house, has, by his faithfulness and ability, risen to occupy one of the most responsible posts in the gift of the president of the company.

With an earnest desire to dissipate whatever ill effects the annoying publication may have caused Mr. Heimann, the Evening News takes this opportunity of correcting any false impression that may have been formed. Of course, his friends need no such assurance; it is for the sake of placing him right with those who have not the privilege of a personal acquaintance that this is printed.

CONFEDERATE SCHOLARSHIP.

A Southern scholarship is to be maintained at the University of Chicago by the Chicago Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, if their present hopes are realized. The scholarship will be awarded to some son or daughter of a Confederate soldier, and the plan is to have it go to some student in one of the southernmost States.

A competitive examination arranged by the chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy in those States will determine who is to be awarded the honor.

CAN HIS SOUL GET OUT?

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MUSKEGON (Mich.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Herman Lyman, 65 years old, a wealthy retired farmer and a biblical wiseacre has announced that 100 years hence he will be reincarnated, and in preparation for the event he has built a solid cement sepulcher surrounded by a wood n structure, in which he is to be buried.

The sepulcher is in a dense forest of oak trees. Lyman has prepared an excavation in which his body is to rest one inch below the surface of the ground, with the face exposed.

CRUELTY, HE SAYE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Renfro Jackson today filed suit for divorce against Mrs. Mary Speer Jackson, the only allegation made being that of cruelty. A more sensational charge was expected, but both parties agreed to keep the proceedings secret if possible.

ARREST RUSSIAN FUGITIVES.

CZERNOWITZ (Austria) April 3.—It is reported here that Gen. Hergen, who commands the troops in the petroleum district of Roumania, has ordered the imprisonment of ninety-seven Russians who were at one time sailors on board the Russian battleship Knias Potemkine, and who after the mutiny on board that vessel in the summer of 1905, landed in Roumania and remained there. The former sailors took an active part in the recent peasant insurrections, and probably will be expelled from Roumania. It is not certain, however, whether they will be delivered to the Russian authorities or not.

A bill making it unlawful for brewers and other liquor sellers to open saloons has passed both houses of the Nebraska Legislature and was signed by the Governor today.

WORK'S SCOPE IS ENORMOUS.

Cash Girl Describes Department Store Club.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CAPITOLA, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For those who are not acquainted with the Y.W.C.A., a marvelous revelation is in store when they become familiar with the enormous scope of the work covered by that organization. The national field is represented here by Miss Simms, conference leader; Miss Teresa Wilbur, national student secretary, and Mrs. J. B. Richardson, of Oakland, who is a national board member.

The State and city divisions have never before sent so many delegates. Los Angeles furnished four of the twelve State Committee members present, Mrs. C. D. Mathuss, who is president; Mrs. S. S. Salisbury, Mrs. E. R. Smith and Mrs. Gates.

San José, Sacramento, Riverside, Long Beach and Los Angeles furnish large city delegations, the latter being led by Mrs. Frank A. Dewey, president. This does not take into account the great army of college women with their student secretaries, Miss Mathews and Miss Mary D. Graham.

In the morning programme, finance work was discussed by Mrs. Squires of Stanford. The most interesting meeting was conducted by Miss Chapel, Los Angeles extension secretary, when she made the conference acquainted with the enormous field of work covered in her city. She told of the five large business women's clubs, their hundreds of members, the beach cottage rest homes that they own, their care for the newcomer, the lonely and sick.

Miss Myrtle Hemeche, a Los Angeles department store cash girl, won the hearts of her listeners as she told of their cash and inspector girls' association club, their meetings, social life and basketball club. A report of the work done in the telephone stations was given.

Miss Simms told briefly of the encouraging progress which attended the Y.W.C.A. work throughout the United States in the great mill, factory and commercial districts. The enormous advance of this work in universities of our land shows where we must look for trained leaders, she said.

The afternoon, as usual, was given over to recreation. Some chose a dip in the ocean; others tramped the hills to gather wild flowers or to view the magnificent scenes from the cliffs. Others took a car trip to Santa Cruz, where they enjoyed a most fascinating afternoon, standing on the craggy cliffs where the water has made wonderful tunnels and bridges and watching the savage breakers dash over the rocks, making a most beautiful spray.

ORIENTAL ELECTRICITY.

CHINESE TO MAKE "JUICE."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fresno is to have the unique distinction of having an Oriental electric light company. A large mass meeting was held in the joushouse at noon today, when the preliminary arrangements were made.

The Mongolians claim that there has been discrimination between various parties in Chinatown, and believe that they can save money by having a company of their own. A site in the center of Chinatown has been secured, and the price stated in the option is $1400.

The plant is to cost $14,000. To insure the stability of the company, those being power will be required to contract to stay with the Oriental company. The directors of the company are confident of being able to make all the stores come in the combine to buck against the San Joaquin Power Company, which is now supplying Chinatown.

MRS. CURRIER OUT OF LUCK.

LOSES SUIT BOTH WAYS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Ada Dow Currier of San Francisco, who has been suing Mrs. June McMillan Ordway for salary alleged due her for collaborating in the play, "Oregon," has not only lost her suit, but must pay a counter claim advanced by Mrs. Ordway.

Mrs. Currier sued for $2180. It was shown that the production of "Oregon" for three nights cost Mrs. Ordway $1200. The defense declared that this loss was due to the extravagance of Mrs. Currier, who was brought here to put the finishing touches on the play. The findings of the court show that Mrs. Currier intimidated the author of "Oregon" and unscrupulously played on her ambition to have the play produced. "Oregon" was played at the Baker Theater in this city several months ago.

FIRE LOSS DIMINISHES.

POWER PLANT RESUMES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The loss sustained by the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company in its powerhouse fire is not so great as was estimated and is fully covered by insurance. President John A. Britton stated today that the damage will not exceed $150,000, which amount is covered by policies in twenty fire insurance companies. A large portion of the power-house plant at Twenty-third and Louisiana streets is said to belong to P. H. Barney, head of the engineering department of the company, who directed the fighting of the fire and the use of the apparatus.

President Britton says that two-thirds of the generating plant was in operation yesterday and that the company is supplying its service completely to every section of the city. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the fire at the powerhouse broke out again in a portion of the wooden roof of the structure, which remained unburned. The fire department was summoned and it required one hour to subdue the flames. Meantime the service all over the city was interrupted. One hundred and fifty cars were withdrawn from service by the United Railroads today because of the diminution of electric current furnished.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CAPITOLA, April 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For those who are not acquainted with the Y.W.C.A., a marvelous revelation is in store when they become familiar with the enormous scope of the work covered by that organization. The national field is represented here by Miss Simms, conference leader; Miss Teresa Wilbur, national student secretary, and Mrs. J. B. Richardson, of Oakland, who is a national board member.

The State and city divisions have never before sent so many delegates. Los Angeles furnished four of the twelve State Committee members present, Mrs. C. D. Mathuss, who is president; Mrs. S. S. Salisbury, Mrs. E. R. Smith and Mrs. Gates.

San José, Sacramento, Riverside, Long Beach and Los Angeles furnish large city delegations, the latter being led by Mrs. Frank A. Dewey, president. This does not take into account the great army of college women with their student secretaries, Miss Mathews and Miss Mary D. Graham.

In the morning programme, finance work was discussed by Mrs. Squires of Stanford. The most interesting meeting was conducted by Miss Chapel, Los Angeles extension secretary, when she made the conference acquainted with the enormous field of work covered in her city. She told of the five large business women's clubs, their hundreds of members, the beach cottage rest homes that they own, their care for the newcomer, the lonely and sick.

Miss Myrtle Hemschke, a Los Angeles department store cash girl, won the hearts of her listeners as she told of their cash and inspector girls' association club, their meetings, social life and basketball club. A report of the work done in the telephone stations was given.

Miss Simms told briefly of the encouraging progress which attended the T.W.C.A. work throughout the United States in the great mill, factory and commercial districts. The enormous advance of this work in universities of our land shows where we must look for trained leaders, she said.

The afternoon, as usual, was given over to recreation. Some chose a dip in the ocean; others tramped the hills to gather wild flowers or to view the magnificent scenes from the cliffs. Others took a car trip to Santa Cruz, where they enjoyed a most fascinating afternoon, standing on the craggy cliffs where the water has made wonderful tunnels and bridges and watching the savage breakers dash over the rocks, making a most beautiful spray.

FRESNO, April 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fresno is to have the unique distinction of having an Oriental electric light company. A large mass meeting was held in the joshouse at noon today, when the preliminary arrangements were made.

RENO (Nev.), April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lured on by the tales of fortunes made in the gambling houses of Carson, and not being permitted to play because of their immature age and fear of chastisement by their parents, a crowd of twenty small boys of that city formed a club, made a roulette wheel, and started a game of their own.

The police authorities of Carson have known for some time that the youngsters were conducting a game, on the quiet, but were unable to locate the den. This afternoon Constable Grant heard the chi...k of small change when passing down a deserted alley, and rushing in on the youthful gamblers, succeeded in taking ten of them to the headquarters. The others escaped. They were the sons of the best families in the capital. What disposition will be made of them has not been determined.

LAND FRAUD SCANDAL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Kincaid, of Wonder district, was spirited from this State today by Federal Secret Service agents and taken to Boise, Idaho, to face a charge of defrauding the government out of public lands.

The detectives worked on the case for two years, and after fastening alleged evidence of the crime on Kincaid, they stated that the case is one of the most important ever brought to light, involving some of the most prominent people of Idaho.

Kincaid is charged with being an accomplice of the commission of the frauds. He went to Wonder two months ago as an attorney and was doing well.

The Idaho land frauds are said to have extended over a long period and to include thousands of acres now held by private parties.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Repair Light Plant.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The work of repairing the light and power station of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, which was almost destroyed by fire last night, was begun this morning by a force of 200 men, and it is expected that some light will be furnished tonight. Three of the generators are damaged beyond repair, two are temporarily disabled, but the other five, when connected with outside reserves will be able to supply almost the normal output in a very short time.

Find Girl's Body.

SAN RAFAEL, April 3.—The body of one of the daughters of Capt. Espanoza of the schooner Mystery was found floating in the bay off Sausalito this morning. The schooner Mystery was found on the mud banks near McNear's Point, after the heavy storm of two weeks ago. The captain and his four daughters, who were the crew, were missing. A search failed to find them and no trace could be found. This morning the badly decompond body of a girl was found floating off Sausalito, and upon investigation was found to be one of the Mystery's crew.

China to Investigate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Proclamations were posted throughout Chinatown yesterday, stating that Liang Hing Kwei, a noted educational authority of China, had been commissioned to come to this country for the purpose of studying the educational condition of the Chinese children. The proclamation was signed by the Chinese Minister at Washington. The Chinese Consul stated last night that he had been notified from Washington that the imperial government at Peking would send Liang Hing Kwei as a commissioner to this country to study the status of the Chinese students in the schools of the United States.

Charges Deception.

SALINAS, April 3.—J. S. Emery of San Francisco has commenced suit in the Superior Court of Monterey county against Alexander M. Allen and others, of San Francisco, to set aside a deed to 640 acres of land near Point Lobos and also to twenty acres adjoining containing a coal mine, being near Monterey, on account of alleged fraud and deception. The property was deeded last January to Allen and others for $6000, but is said to be worth over $100,000.

Bakersfield Clean-up.

BAKERSFIELD, April 3.—Next Saturday the citizens of Bakersfield will unite in a general cleaning up of the streets and alleys of the city. The work will be done under the auspices of the Woman's Club and assisting in it will be the commercial organizations and school children.

Find Ancient Cannon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—A cannon, evidently of ancient make, has been unearthed by workmen engaged in putting up a new building on Battery street, near Clay. The barrel, which is round, except at the base, where it is octagonal in shape, is about thirty inches in length and has a one and three-fourths inch bore. It has a percussion-cap nipple, and a hammer and trigger, after the manner of a muzzle-loading rifle. It was mounted on wood, but this fell to pieces in an attempt to remove it. If there ever was any date on the cannon it has been obliterated by rust.

JAPANESE COME FROM MEXICO.

HUNDREDS ARE AT BORDER ALL SEEKING ADMISSION.

They Have Passports to Southern Republic, but Their Destination Is United States—Situation Worries Immigration Officials—Same Conditions Obtain in Canada.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Information reached the Immigration Bureau of the Department of Commerce and Labor that hundreds of Japanese have arrived in Mexico destined for the United States. Inspector Braun, who was sent to Mexico to investigate, telegraphed today that he had interviewed several hundred Japanese, principally laborers, who now are in Mexico. Many of them are in straitened circumstances. They have no intention of remaining in Mexico, but desire to come to the United States. They expect to obtain employment on the railroads of the West and Southwest. Some of them have already applied for admission to the United States and have been denied. In every instance the immigrants hold passports issued to them by the Japanese government to Mexico. They tell the American officials that the Japanese government will not issue passports to the United States. Under the circumstances the Japanese cannot be admitted legally to this country, but scores are being smuggled across the Mexican border.

The department is informed that many Japanese are reaching Hawaii. They take passage to San Francisco, bearing passports to British Columbia. From San Francisco they go to Vancouver. It is known they have no business in Vancouver, but intend to make their way across the northern border to the United States. The general situation is regarded as serious by the immigration officials, for it practically is impossible to prevent smuggling across the border of either Mexico or British Columbia.

Victim Chokes Thief Until Tongue Protrudes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Caught stealing a watch from the pocket of a fellow passenger on a San Francisco train this morning, a stranger, giving the name of Herman Cohn, was taken into custody by Southern Pacific Detective P. Kelly, at San Mateo, and was brought to the County Jail.

Cohn worked a smooth trick and one with which he is apparently familiar. While M. D. Hall of San Francisco, was quietly dozing in his seat, Cohn dipped into his vest pocket and possessed himself of a fine gold watch and heavy fob.

Hall did not miss his timepiece for quite an interval, but when he found that he had been robbed his suspicion at once fastened upon Cohn, who was still seated beside him. He wasted no time in preliminaries, but at once seized Cohn by the throat with a grip which made the pickpocket's tongue protrude.

Cohn handed it over, after which he was turned over to the police.

MRS. BRADLEY'S DEFENSE.

"MENTAL IRRESPONSIBILITY."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Mrs. Anna Bradley, who shot to death Former United States Senator Arthur Brown of Utah, in a hotel in this city, December 8 last, will plead mental irresponsibility as her defense to the indictment for murder. This fact came out when her counsel yesterday asked the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for an order authorizing the summoning of thirteen witnesses from the West to be brought here at the government's expense to testify in her behalf.

Accompanying this motion is an affidavit in which Mrs. Bradley says she is unable to pay the expenses of witnesses. It is declared that the defense expects to prove by the witnesses that any act she committed that day "was the result of her diseased condition of mind, for which she is not responsible."

The list of witnesses is made up as follows: Col. Maurice M. Kaighn; Judge H. W. Henderson; Albert E. Barnes, a lawyer; Dr. E. W. Whitney; Matthew Bradley, the defendant's son; Col. George Hanson; Willard Hanson, County and City Attorney of Salt Lake; Mrs. M. F. Maddison of Goldfield, Nev.; Mrs. J. W. S. Waney of San Francisco; Rev. David Utter of Denver; M. H. Maddison of Santa Cruz, Cal.; D. D. Ryus of Los Angeles, and Lyman S. Shewsbury of Bonny Doon, Cal.

The criminal court may set the trial for April 25.

ARGUMENTS CONCLUDED.

CASE HANGS ON DEMURRER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) April 3.—Argument in the case of the United States vs. H. C. Robinson, Walter G. Filter, Charles M. Freed and Edwin W. Senior, charged with criminal conspiracy, in the acquisition of coal land, were concluded in the United States Court today.

The defendants have demurred to the sufficiency of the facts on which the indictments were based, and the whole case hinges on the demurrer. The defense virtually waives claim to the coal land, but contends that there was nothing criminal in the method by which it was secured. Judge Marshall took the case under advisement and a decision is not expected for several weeks.

WOMAN HANGS HERSELF.

NERVOUS MALADY IS CAUSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—After several months of suffering from a nervous malady, Mrs. Ellen Berry Ryder, wife of Cornelius Ryder, one of the wealthiest men in the Gravesend section of Brooklyn, hanged herself today. Mrs. Ryder was descended from one of the old Dutch families that settled early in the "Flatbush" section.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Favrot Must Stay in Jail.

BATON ROUGE (La.) April 3.—Congressman George K. Favrot, after several months in jail, during which a grand jury indicted him for murder, which culminated with the final quashing of the indictment by the Supreme Court yesterday, must now remain in prison for several months until another grand jury can reopen and act upon the matter again. Congressman Favrot shot and killed Dr. H. A. Aldrich, alleging that the physician had cast aspersions on Mrs. Favrot.

Twelve Years in Prison.

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—Thomas Burns was today sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment in the penitentiary at Folsom, and William McDonald was sent to the San Quentin Prison for five years. Both men pleaded guilty to the crime of highway robbery. A few weeks ago they held up and attempted to rob Constable Michael Judge. The constable put up a fight with a revolver, however, and arrested the men.

To Owners Of Bad Breath

Trial Package to Prove It Sent Free.

Bilious breathers, onion eaters, indigestion victims, cabbage consumers, smokers, drinkers and those with gas on the stomach are in a class all by themselves, distinguished by a powerful bad breath.

They all breathe, and as they breathe, they whiff out odor which makes those standing near turn their heads away in disgust. The pitiable part of it is that these victims do not realize what a sickening thing a bad, offensive breath is to others.

Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of gases and odors. It absorbs 100 times its own volume of gas.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will put a stop to your bad, offensive breath, and to your belchings, whatever the cause or source, because the charcoal quickly absorbs all noxious, unnatural odors and gases.

If you suffer from indigestion and belch gas as a result, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will absorb all the gas and make you stop belching.

If on getting up in the morning you have such a bad, bilious breath, that you can almost smell it yourself, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will get rid of it for you quickly.

If you have been smoking or chewing, or have been eating onions or other odorous things, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will make your breath pure and sweet.

Charcoal is also the best laxative known. You can take a whole boxful and no harm will result. It is a wonderfully easy regulator.

And then, too, it filters your blood—every particle of poison and impurity in your blood is destroyed, and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing—your clear complexion.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal, and just a little honey is put in to make them palatable, but not too sweet.

They will work wonders in your stomach, and make you feel fine and fresh. Your blood and breath will be purified. You will feel clean inside.

We want to prove all this to you, so just send for a free sample today. Then after you get it and use it, you will like them so well that you will go to your druggist and get a 25c box of these Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 93 Stuart Bldg, Marshall, Mich.

STOP JAIL DELIVERY, JAILERS SHOOT TWO.

THREE of the most desperate prisoners in the County Jail, one a murderer, and the other two burglars, made a desperate attempt to murder the night jailers at 2 o'clock this morning. Two of them were shot and now lie desperately wounded in the jail hospital. The third is the double irons in the dungeon.

The prisoners who made the break are Ernest Stackpole, who was convicted of the murder of Joel Scheck; J. B. Fleenor, colored, who is known to have committed more than sixty burglaries, and who has served a term in an eastern penitentiary, and a negro named Born, who is under conviction for burglary and who has another conviction on his record.

That the desperadoes did not succeed in committing murder and releasing other desperate felons is due only to the fact that by the merest accident two of the jailers instead of one made the rounds of the jail to inspect the different cells.

Jailer Quinn had just been relieved by Deputy Jailer Oscar Norrell and the latter, accompanied by another jail official, started on his rounds through the jail. The three prisoners were confined in what is known as the emergency ward.

On this section of the jail new locks had been placed yesterday, but Fleenor had broken his lock and had been able to open his cell door. He then released Stackpole and Born. The three prisoners tried to escape through a window, but they could not get beyond the bars.

They broke the window casing and secured the heavy iron sash weights. Then they lay in wait for the night jailer. When the officers approached the cells which the three criminals had occupied, the three men sprang out upon them and tried to beat them down with the iron weights. Norrell was behind the other officer and thus escaped the first attack. This officer dodged a murderous blow aimed at him by Stackpole, and jumped aside.

Fleenor and Born rushed at Norrell, but before they could reach him he drew his revolver and began shooting. He fired four shots at them at close range and both criminals dropped in their tracks. At the sound of the shooting Stackpole turned and just as Norrell was about to shoot him, he dropped his iron weight and raised his hands as a token of surrender.

At that instant the other officer sprang upon Stackpole and bore him to the stone floor. Fleenor and Born were writhing in pain and begging the officers not to shoot again. They were ordered to get up and march ahead of the officers to the jail office, where their wounds were dressed. The wounds are not of such character as to cause alarm. The one regret expressed by the officers is that they did not kill the trio.

CHICAGO'S POLITICAL FIELD AFTER BATTLE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the defeat of Edward F. Dunne by Fred A. Busse for Mayor of Chicago, two situations have been brought out in which the whole country is intensely interested. The first is the downfall of municipal ownership, whose propagandists had looked upon this city as the spot where their work was to be started and receive its greatest impetus.

Another was the triumph of the Busse Republican faction in Chicago over Gov. Deneen, whose friends have been grooming him for the Presidential nomination in 1912. In addition, the slaughter included the strongest opponents of Democratic National Committeeman Sullivan.

The Illinois delegation in the next national convention undoubtedly will be controlled by Sullivan, and opposed to either Bryan or Hearst for the Presidential nomination.

Municipal ownership's defeat, it was declared everywhere today, was so crushing as to be almost final. A majority of over 32,000 for the traction ordinances which the Mayor vetoed and for which Hearst made his principal fight, carried with it an absolute retraction of the decision of the people two years ago. That Busse's plurality was not half of this is pointed out as evidence that it was not Mayor Dunne's personal weakness, but the platform on which he stood, that defeated him.

Two years ago the same personal interest entered into the election with the result that municipal ownership appeared to have more strength as an issue than it really possessed. At this election the opponents of municipal ownership had a well-defined plan in opposition; and this plan, which really provides for the licensing of the car lines by the city, gave a fair chance for testing the strength of public ownership sentiment.

Gov. Deneen was lukewarm in his support of Busse, to say the least. He did not mention the candidate's name in his speeches during the campaign. Gen. E. C. Young, for City Treasurer, Deneen's representative on the ticket, was the only Republican defeated. Busse's vote in Gov. Deneen's stronghold fell surprisingly low, indicating that the Governor was not very anxious for the postmaster's election.

If this is a test of Deneen's strength, it would seem that the Governor's influence in Cook county is waning. The vote also indicates that Busse will be a power in the Illinois delegation to the next Republican national convention. That his influence may be exerted for Fairbanks was hinted today when a telegram of congratulation from the Vice-President was made public. It is safe to say that Gov. Deneen and Busse will not be found supporting the same candidate.

Immediate steps to carry out the provisions of the traction settlement ordinances were taken today by the companies. All traction shares advanced. Chicago City Railway stock rose from 155 to 16? at a bound. Union Traction went from 17 to 19 at the opening.

NEGROES SLASH AND ROB HIM.

VICTIM IS LEFT BLEEDING IN THE STREET.

Leaping on Man from Behind the Two Highwaymen Hold Him Down on the Sidewalk While One of Them Cuts Gashes on Him With a Razor. Take His Money.

Two negro highwaymen slashed Frank Boston, a Yuma laborer, and robbed him of $80 last night. The man was found by two pedestrians trying to seek the Central Police Station.

Boston, who is a stranger in Los Angeles, was walking on First street near the corner of Bunker Hill avenue when the pair leaped on him from behind. One of them wielded a razor. He fell bleeding to the sidewalk with the pair on top of him. They rifled his pockets and left him helpless in the street.

When he recovered his scattered faculties Boston tried to get to the Central Police Station, the location of which he vaguely knew. His injuries consisted of three long cuts, one on the wrist and two on the throat.

ASKS AMERICAN DESIGNS.

Minister Corea Seeks to Know Consul's Instructions, but Gets no Information.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Señor Corea, the Nicaraguan Minister, called at the State Department today and inquired what authority Phillip Brown, secretary of the American legation to Guatamala and Honduras, had for interference with the bombardment of Amapala, Honduras, by the Nicaraguan forces.

Corea's advices from his home government show that Brown went to Amapala, persuaded the Nicaraguans to cease firing for twenty-four hours and then went to La Union, Salvador, whence he issued a protest that renewal of the bombardment would be considered by Salvador as a declaration of war.

State Department officials refuse to disclose what Brown's instructions have been.

Bonilla is still surrounded at Amapala so far as the State Department knows, but the bombardment of the town by Nicaraguan gunboats has ceased.

STRIKE OIL AT RHYOLITE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Ney.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports of a rich oil strike, with a channel ranging from 470 to 675 feet wide, have just been received from Rhyolite and caused intense excitement here. The parties interested are all Goldfield capitalists and will purchase supplies and machinery in Los Angeles. Six hundred acres have been located. The beauty of the situation is that the oil is lying directly under the track of the Clark railroad. The development of the property will solve the fuel proposition here.

COURT REJECTS APPORTIONMENT.

NEW YORK LEGISLATIVE ACT IS OVERTHROWN.

Decision Is Characterized as "Political Earthquake" and Is Likely to Prolong Session of Lawmaking Body Until May or June—"Dead" Politicians Restored to Power.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) April 3.—The entire apportionment of legislative districts made by the last New York Legislature is overthrown in a decision handed down today by the Court of Appeals. The court reverses the judgment of the courts below which have sustained the act.

The decision does not affect the personnel or invalidate the acts of the present Legislature, but the present relations and alignments in every part of the State made to suit the new conditions have been thrown into confusion by influential politicians who were supposed to have been killed politically by last year's apportionment, but they have returned to the field of influence. Politicians here say that it is impossible to calculate the consequence of the decision which they describe as a "political earthquake."

It is generally believed here tonight that the decision may prolong throughout May, and perhaps into June, the session of the Legislature because of the necessity of enacting a new apportionment, the court holding that unless this is done the next election for members of either house must be held under the apportionment laid down in 1895, which the Reapportionment Act of 1906 was intended to supersede.

WALSH PLEADS INNOCENT.

CHICAGO, April 3.—John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National Bank, now under indictment on charges of misappropriation of the funds of the bank, was arraigned today in the Federal Court. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for October 15. Judge Anderson refused to grant the motion for a bill of particulars.

MANAGER IS PROMOTED.

SALT LAKE (Utah) April 3.—Adolph May, for the last three years manager of the Western Union Telegraph office, has just been made superintendent of the Pacific division, with headquarters at San Francisco. He is succeeded as manager here by Arthur W. Long, for a number of years day wire chief in the local office. May will leave for San Francisco the last of this week.

FATAL COLLISION IN THE SANTA FE YARDS.

ONE man killed and two injured in a rear-end collision in the Santa Fé yards near East Fourth street and Santa Fé avenue at 3 o'clock this morning and two Santa Fé locomotives were reduced to scraps of iron and steel. The dead:

Injured:

H. F. BUNKER, foreman, leg mangled and body bruised by jumping.

Engine No. 711, one of the big road engines, was backing through the yards from the south and in the cab were Engineer Julius Jensen and Fireman Vaughn. Engine No. 412, a light yard engine, was backing off a "Y" from the north with a long string of passenger coaches to be used in today's outgoing overland. There is a curve at that point and a maze of tracks, which rendered it impossible for the engineers to see that they were on the same tracks until too late to avoid a collision.

Both engines were moving at a rate of about ten miles per hour, and the fact that both were backing prevented the lights from the headlights revealing to each engineer the presence of the other train. The trainmen did not realize their danger until the locomotives were less than a car length apart, and Cornell probably did not see the other train at all.

When the crash came the two tenders were demolished and that of the lighter yard engine buckled in such a manner that its cab was crushed like an egg shell.

Cornell was caught between the crushed tender and the rear end of the boiler of his locomotive, and his body mashed to a pulp. His flesh was literally fried on the end of the boiler, and when his body was later removed from the wreckage it bore little semblance of a human form.

Bunker was Cornell's fireman. He saw the other train barely in time to leap from his cab window. He struck the ground beside the wrecked engines and was caught under a piece of the wreckage and his leg crushed.

CONNIVE HIS RUIN.

"But there is not one particle of truth in the statement," etc. Neither Judge Parker nor his supporters, the President said, have been able to traverse or question the statements made in that answer. The President said that to his own knowledge about a dozen contributions offered by corporations had been declined by Chairman Cortelyou, but that others had been accepted.

REFUSES TRUST MONEY.

A contribution by the American Tobacco Company, he said, had been returned. A prominent man had made a contribution of $20,000 to the Republican campaign fund. Subsequently this man had made his desire known for an appointment in the diplomatic service in the event that the President was elected. As soon as his motives were understood the national committee returned his contribution. The President asserted to his callers that none of the corporations contributing to the fund in 1904 had come to him for favors either directly or indirectly. In this connection he referred to the legislation enacted in regard to the corporations during the last few years as disproving any imputations that immunity would be shown them for their contributions.

SUGGESTIONS OFFERED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The President has received communications from President A. B. Stickney of the Chicago Great Western, James Speyer of the banking firm of James Speyer & Co., of New York, and Frederick Whitridge, a New York lawyer, all of them bearing on the railroad situation. Mr. Stickney made a number of suggestions which he thought might be of value to the President in any legislation he may desire to recommend to Congress.

The President today replied to Mr. Stickney's letter and requested that he elaborate to some extent the points he had already brought out.

Mr. Whitridge has been invited to come here to confer with the President and is expected here within the next few days.

HARRIMAN KEEPS SILENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward H. Harriman went about his work of making more millions today, very well satisfied with himself. Friends of Harriman cheered him up by assuring him that he had put his former friend, the President of the United States, in a hole. The publication today that in the fall of 1904, when he raised his famous $200,000 fund, Harriman was ambitious to become a United States Senator, did not budge the little financier from his determination to remain silent during the day.

Harriman, when asked if he had anything to add to his former statement, replied:

"Don't you think I've said enough?"

Later, when asked to make a statement relative to his Senatorship aspirations, Harriman refused positively to say a word. Men who have received many letters from Harriman and are familiar with his phraseology, declared positively today that he never constructed the letter which he sent to Sydney Webster. He has a peculiar blunt style, and generally uses bullet sentences.

It was declared that the Webster letter was too lucid, clear, and cleverly written for Harriman to have been the first author. The supposition is that Harriman had one of his numerous secretaries or lawyers draw up the form of the letter and that he used the draft in dictating the letter sent to Webster.

It is the opinion that there are still many interesting chapters yet to be disclosed concerning the intricate politico-finaicial game which Mr. Harriman and his close associates were playing with the President in the fall of 1904, when the President was haunted by the fear that he might not be reelected, and tonight financiers were making the most of that fear.

RAID GAMBLERS' NEST.

NEW YORK, April 3.—As a result of information obtained through a raid yesterday on the second floor of a building in Cedar street, when three prisoners were taken, the police tonight descended on another place on the third floor of the same building and seized a quantity of paraphernalia. They allege that the place raided was the information bureau for all the downtown poolrooms. The doors were broken down with axes and eighteen telephones, roulette tables and the gambling paraphernalia were taken away in a patrol wagon.

PRESIDENT SCENTS APPROACH OF NEW ASSAILANT.

He Is All Ready Though When Discharged Cabinet Advisor Shoots His Bolt—Like Moltke He Will Say Look in Pidgeonhole, Naughty Nought and War Will End.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt's letter to Representative Sherman telling all about the relations between the President and Harriman, the railroad magnate, back in the fall of 1904, was written more than five months ago and was then tucked away in a pigeonhole in the President's desk to wait for an opportune time to spring it on the public. The "psychological moment" arrived yesterday when Harriman's letter to Lawyer Webster, declaring that the President had begged Harriman to get funds to save the Republican party from defeat in 1904, came to light.

In another pigeonhole of the President's desk is a second letter, which will also be produced at an opportune moment. It has nothing to do with the Harriman episode, but relates to an altogether different incident. It refers to certain doings of a distinguished ex-official of the President's administration.

This official severed his connection with the government service not so very long ago, and while the newspapers did not say so, he was forced to resign.

This man has a grievance against the President, for he imagines he was treated very badly. Word came to the White House that he was prepared to come out with a sensational statement attacking the President. The President thereupon sent to the office of the former official and secured complete records of certain transactions that were factors in the decision that the official must resign.

It is understood that the official records, if properly treated, would show that the former official was not so circumspect as he might have been in many important particulars. The facts are fixed up in a way to be most effective in a statement that is now prepared at the White House and is lying ready for use.

If the ex-official in question "breaks loose" with an attack upon the President, as it is believed he will, sooner or later, the ammunition will be at hand for an immediate reply, and the shot that will probably bring the incident to an abrupt end.

MARINES PREVENT ATTACKS ON HONDURAN PORTS.

Cities Near Harbors Threatened by Central American Mosquito Fleets Are Ninety Per Cent. Owned by Foreigners and Uncle Sam Says "War" Must Not Destroy Them.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PUERTO CORTEZ (Honduras) March 28, via New Orleans, April 3.—The intentions of the United States in landing marines upon the Honduras coast and the evident latitude granted them in protecting foreign life and property is exciting much comment here. It has been remarked as especially significant that the American landing parties, not only here but at Ceiba and Trujillo, have in each instance placed a Hotchkiss gun which they took ashore with them so as to sweep the seaward approach.

The foreigners believe that this means the United States will not permit the ports to be bombarded, inasmuch as 90 per cent. of the houses here and at Ceiba belong to foreigners, and cannon shots fired into either place would do most damage to foreign-owned property. It is believed that in these two ports, Nicaraguan gunboats will be kept off by the Hotchkiss guns, while at Trujillo, despite the fact that it is a Honduran port, the Honduran gunboat will not be allowed to bombard in any attempt to recapture the port from the Nicaraguans.

At Puerto Cortez the dozen marines comprising the landing party are quartered in what is perhaps the most widely-known of Honduran buildings, namely, the mansion formerly occupied by the Honduras National Lottery Company.

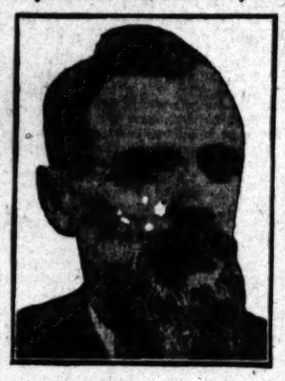
Tonic and Appetizer

Doctors all agree that there is no other tonic and appetizer known to science equal to that of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, which has stood the most severe tests for more than fifty years and is still the greatest household remedy in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wing, of Chittenden, Vt., who have just celebrated their golden wedding, say they have used DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY as their only medicine, and they owe their health and vigor to this great renewer of youth.



MR. W. B. WING.

MRS. W. B. WING.

The portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Wing show them to be strong, healthy and active people. Mr. Wing is 71 years old and Mrs. Wing 66.

In writing to us Mr. Wing states that he and Mrs. Wing had derived so much benefit from the use of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY that it affords them great pleasure to have the opportunity to tell others that DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY is a godsend to suffering humanity.

"You may fill this out to please yourselves. I have used your Malt Whiskey and find it an appetizer with good effect. I am 71 years old and know that it has done me good. Enclosed please find our photographs in paper taken for our golden wedding last July 4th.

"You can refer to us any one you see fit; it will be all right."—W. B. WING, Chittenden, Vt., August 15, 1906.

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

If you wish to keep strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill yourself with drugs, they poison the blood while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood severe tests by skilled chemists during the past fifty years and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles; never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist." on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. CRITICAL DAY IN THAW TRIAL.

Sanity or Lunacy the Verdict This Morning.

Accused Gets Physical and Mental Tests.

Commission Shakes Hands With Him Afterward.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Tomorrow brings another critical stage in the case of Harry K. Thaw, when the slayer of Stanford White, either will be officially proclaimed insane, and ordered sent to a State asylum, or his trial will be resumed before Justice Fitzgerald on the finding by the lunacy commission that the defendant is at this time capable of rightly understanding his own position, of appreciating the nature of the charges, against him and of rationally advising with his counsel.

The commission completed its work tonight, and will be ready to report to Justice Fitzgerald tomorrow morning.

Thaw underwent a private mental and physical examination for more than two hours this afternoon. In this last crucial test he was entirely alone before the commission, even the District Attorney and the members of his own counsel being barred.

When the three members of the committee, Dr. David McClure, Peter B. Olney and Dr. Leopold Putzell, had completed their final examination, they shook hands with Thaw in a most cordial manner.

He went back to his cell in the Tombs with a light heart and declared later to his counsel that he felt that the commission would surely declare him sane tomorrow.

The attorneys shared their client's optimistic view of the situation. Dist.-Atty. Jerome would not commit himself in any way.

Thaw's counsel declared they were ready to proceed with the case tomorrow, and believed that Delmas might begin his summing up address before noon. In that event, they said, Jerome would address the jury on Friday, and a verdict might be expected before the week ended.

There is little or no likelihood that the report of the commission which has inquired into Thaw's present mental state ever will be made public. If the decision of the commission favors Thaw, Justice Fitzgerald will merely order the trial to proceed without any reference whatsoever to the interruption which began two weeks ago. Should the decision be against Thaw, Justice Fitzgerald would have to quote but briefly from the formal finding of the commission in his order committing the young man to an asylum.

ACCUSED OF SMUGGLING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Thaw of Pittsburgh, cousin of Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, and I. T. McAuley, also of Pittsburgh, were arrested across the Rio Grande here this morning on suspicion of being smugglers.

The men were returning from a two weeks' hunting trip in Mexico, and had left the railroad station for a stroll. Two Frenchmen yesterday succeeded in getting some firearms across the border, and Thaw and McAuley were arrested on suspicion. Both protested their innocence, but it was not until Conductor Carpenter of the Mexican Central identified them that they were released.

Both men were highly indignant and threatened to take action against the Mexican government.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—The Associated Press is authorized to give a positive and categorical denial to the various rumors telegraphed abroad to the effect that the Cabinet had decided to dissolve the lower house of Parliament. The correspondent learned that a few of the reactionary members advocated the dissolution of the house on some pretext.

The crucial moment, however, is expected tomorrow when the vote will be taken on the Constitutional Democratic motion to refer the budget to the committee. There is a Social Democratic amendment to reject the budget totally and the correspondent has been informed that the passage of the amendment will be a signal for dissolution. The vote is expected to be close.

The Group of Toil will introduce tomorrow bills for the abolition of the death penalty and summary court-martial laws.

The Council of the Empire has rejected, by 104 votes to 25, a proposal to disqualify Prof. Maxim Kovalevsky as a member of the lower house. His disqualification was urged on the ground that he was a supernumerary professor and upon this basis he had already been disqualified by the Senate.

CRITICAL DAY IN THAW TRIAL.

Sanity or Lunacy the Verdict This Morning.

Accused Gets Physical and Mental Tests.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—Tomorrow brings another critical stage in the case of Harry K. Thaw, when the slayer of Stanford White, either will be officially proclaimed insane, and ordered sent to a State asylum, or his trial will be resumed before Justice Fitzgerald on the finding by the lunacy commission that the defendant is at this time capable of rightly understanding his own position, of appreciating the nature of the charges against him and of rationally advising with his counsel.

The commission completed its work tonight, and will be ready to report to Justice Fitzgerald tomorrow morning.

Thaw underwent a private mental and physical examination for more than two hours this afternoon. In this last crucial test he was entirely alone before the commission, even the District Attorney and the members of his own counsel being barred.

When the three members of the committee, Dr. David McClure, Peter B. Olney and Dr. Leopold Putzell, had completed their final examination, they shook hands with Thaw in a most cordial manner.

He went back to his cell in the Tombs with a light heart and declared later to his counsel that he felt that the commission would surely declare him sane tomorrow.

The attorneys shared their client's optimistic view of the situation. District Atty. Jerome would not commit himself in any way.

Thaw's counsel declared they were ready to proceed with the case tomorrow, and believed that Delmas might begin his summing up address before noon. In that event, they said, Jerome would address the jury on Friday, and a verdict might be expected before the week ended.

There is little or no likelihood that the report of the commission which has inquired into Thaw's present mental state ever will be made public. If the decision of the commission favors Thaw, Justice Fitzgerald will merely order the trial to proceed without any reference whatsoever to the interruption which began two weeks ago. Should the decision be against Thaw, Justice Fitzgerald would have to quote but briefly from the formal finding of the commission in his order committing the young man to an asylum.

LETTER TO HER MOTHER CHURCH.

MRS. MARY BAKER G. EDDY ISSUES STATEMENT.

Her Messages to Christian Scientists of Boston Are Read and McCracken Declares She Writes Normally — Counsel for Plaintiffs Think Streeter Has Changed Opinion.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON April 3.—Two communications from Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy were read at tonight's meeting of the "First Church of Christ, Scientist," the "mother church" of the denomination. The first communication read to the audience was addressed "To the Mother Church." In the letter, Mrs. Eddy says:

"My Beloved Children: Your love and fidelity cheer my advancing years. As Christian Scientists, you understand the scriptures, 'Fret not thyself, because of evildoers.' Also you spiritually and scientifically understand that God is divine love, omnipotent, omnipresent, infinite, hence it is enough for you and I to know that our Redeemer liveth, and intercedeth for us.

"At this period, my demonstration of Christian Science cannot be fully understood theoretically, therefore it is best explained by its fruits, and by the life of our Lord, as depicted in the chapter 'Atonement and Eucharist,' in 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures.'

[Signed] "MARY BAKER G. EDDY."

The first reader, W. D. McCracken, then announced that he had received a letter from Mrs. Eddy written in her own handwriting. McCracken said that the letter indicated that Mrs. Eddy is in possession of "her usual mental and physical vigor." The letter to McCracken follows:

"Beloved Students: The wise man has said, 'When I was a child I spake as a child; I understood as a child; I thought as a child; but when I became a man I put away childish things.'

"That this passage of scripture and its concluding declaration may be applied to old age is a solace.

"Perhaps you already know that I have heretofore personally attended to my secular affairs—to my income, deposits, investments, expenditures and to my employés. But the increasing demand upon my years has caused me to select a board of trustees to take the charge of my property, namely, Henry M. Baker, Archibald McLellan and Josiah E. Fernald.

"As you are the first reader of my church in Boston, of about 40,000 members, I inform you of this, the aforesaid transaction.

"Lovingly yours in Christ,

[Signed] "MARY BAKER G. EDDY."

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy issued a note tonight bearing on her appointment of trustees to handle her estate as announced in the motion filed in the Merrimac County Supreme Court yesterday in the action brought to compel an accounting of her property. The note, which was sent out from Pleasant View, bearing the signature of Mrs. Eddy, follows:

"I am pleased to say that the following members constitute the board of trustees who own my property:

"Henry M. Baker, Washington attorney, former Representative in Congress; Archibald McLellan, editor-in-chief of the Christian Science periodicals; Josiah E. Fernald, justice of the peace and president of the National State Capital Bank, Concord, N. H.

"To my aforesaid trustees I have committed the hard earnings of my pen—the fruit of honest toil, the labor that is known by its fruits, benefiting the human race, and I have so done that I may have more time for peaceful and spiritual thought and higher criticism.

[Signed] "MARY BAKER G. EDDY.

"Pleasant View, Concord, N. H., April 3, 1907."

Broadway Anti-Trust Methods Mean Grocery Savings to You

The best groceries at the lowest prices they can be sold for—that's the Broadway motto, and the trust didn't like it, so it said to its dealers, "Don't sell the Broadway groceries." And the dealers wouldn't. And the Broadway had to go out of Los Angeles to buy groceries. Yet, in spite of this handicap we've kept stocks full and complete, kept prices down, time and again underselling the trust. And home buyers like to save money, so this grocery department has grown strongly and rapidly, and business is increasing by leaps and bounds. Today, plan your buying from this list.

ADMIT HER INCAPACITY.

HAS STREETER CHANGED MIND?

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CONCORD (N. H.) April 3.—Counsel for the plaintiffs in the Eddy case said today that it appeared to them that Streeter, personal counsel for Mrs. Eddy, and those who have charge of her case have, after mature deliberation, arrived at the same conclusion as to the incapacity of Mrs. Eddy to manage her business affairs that her son reached when he saw her in January.

This suit, they declared, is not directed at Mrs. Eddy nor at Christian Science. The position of the petitioners from the beginning has been that, because of her incapacity to manage her business affairs, reformation as to the management, control and accounting thereof was necessary for her protection.

Now that the imperative need of this reform is apparently conceded, counsel said the remaining question would seem to be as to whether the interests of Mrs. Eddy will be well cared for and protected by a receiver appointed by the court, or by trustees appointed by, and acting practically as a continuation of, the old régime.

The plaza at the Manhattan end of the New Manhattan bridge, New York, running from Canal street and the Bowery to the bridge, will be called "Cleveland place," in honor of the ex-President.

SPIKE ROBSON BEATS ATTELL.

Special Writer Gives Englishman Best of It.

Associated Press Alleges the Battle Was Draw.

Abe's Bloody Nose Is Only Damage Inflicted.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Spike Robson, the English featherweight champion, clearly and distinctly outpointed Abe Attell, the American champion, in a six-round bout at the National Athletic Club here tonight. He showed his superiority in nearly every round and was the aggressor most of the time.

The California boy did not display his usual cleverness and to escape punishment clinched many times. The fighters weighed in at 124 pounds at noon. Attell was pronounced favorite at odds of 1 to 2.

The fight was at times fast and at other times slow. Attell gained a slight advantage in the first round, which was devoted mostly to sparring and clinching.

The second round was much faster than the first, both men landing telling blows and hooks, the round ending in Robson's favor. The third was slow, not a telling blow being struck.

The fourth and fifth were also in favor of the English fighter. Both boys rushed at each other like enraged tigers when the bell rang for the last round. They slashed and banged each other to the head, face and body, but neither had enough power in his blows to land a knockout punch.

Attell was bleeding from the mouth and nose. Robson had the more power in his blows and did the most damage.

CALLS IT DRAW.

NEITHER HAS ADVANTAGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Spike Robson of England and Abe Attell fought a six-round draw at the National Athletic Club tonight.

At the close of the sixth round there was no ground to give either a verdict. The fight was fast and of the large number of blows landed none was hard enough to do damage. Besides Attell's bloody nose neither man bore a mark of the encounter.

GREGG'S GOOD GO.

BEATS JACK DOUGHERTY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joe Gregg won a decision over Jack Dougherty tonight after one of the best and at the same time the cleanest, fights that ever took place in the local arena.

Dougherty entered the bout with seeming confidence, but was soon sent to the ropes and immediately recognized his opponent's metal, and assumed a decidedly careful attitude.

It was give and take to the ninth round, when Dougherty was sent to the floor two different times, and was only saved at last by the bell. He came up with an apparent determination to try for a knockout blow, but Gregg was too swift for him. He sent his right into Dougherty's stomach and kidneys with so much energy that Dougherty was unable to defend himself, let alone get in an effective blow.

BAY STATE BOXING.

FIGHT PROMOTERS FINED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another death blow was dealt out to boxing in the Bay State, today, when sixteen members of the Winnisimmet Athletic Club of Chelsea were found guilty of illegally setting up and promoting a public boxing match, in the Police Court, late yesterday afternoon, and each was fined $25. All appealed and they were held in $200 each for trial in the Superior Criminal Court.

The case today followed the closing a few weeks ago, of the Lincoln Club, the leading fight club in the State. The men, all prominent in ring circles, were Columbus N. Carter, Edward S. Briggs, James Briggs, John E. Butler, William Conaty, Loren C. Clifford, Thomas J. Foley, Kid Freeman, William Glover, James Hanlon, Louis J. Kason, Elmer E. Leonard, Gus Lenny, Stephen J. Mahoney, Belfield Walcott, and Richard Fleming.

OUTSIDERS WIN.

Wool Sandals Wins Pandemonian Handicap—Thirty-two Bookmakers Draw in.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Outsiders were again to the front at Oakland today. Wool Sandals, a 30 to 1 shot, took the Pandemonian Handicap, while Talamund, also quoted at 30 to 1, beat the field in the fifth. St. Francis, the favorite for the third, lost all chance by getting away poorly. Thirty-two books drew in. Results:

Futurity course: Titus II., 109 (Mentry,) 4 to 1, won; George P., McNear, 106 (Koegh,) 9 to 1, second; Dr. Sherman, 109 (Callahan,) 40 to 1, third; time, 1:11 3-5. Last Faustus, Distributor, Joe Goss, Nettie Hicks, Sheen, Follow Me, Bonnie Reg, Marie P and Glendenning finished as named.

One mile and three-quarters: Huston, 103 (Koegh,) 9 to 5, won; Briers, 98 (Buxton,) 9 to 10, second; Daniel O, 105 (Fischer,) 16 to 1, third; time, 3:05 4-5. Governor Davis also ran.

Five and a half furlongs: Misty's Pride, 106 (E. Dugan,) 9 to 1, won; Blondy, 98 (Lynch,) 12 to 1, second; St. Francis, 107 (Koegh,) 13 to 10, third; time, 1:08. Billy Maham, Grasscutter, Pescadero, Rose Pompom and Nedda finished as named.

Pandemonian Handicap, one mile and fifty yards, purse $1000: Wool Sandals, 94 (A. Walsh,) 30 to 1, won; Edwin Gum, 114 (Hunter,) 9 to 12, second; Collector Jessup, 113 (C. Williams,) 15 to 1, third; time, 1:43 1-5. Dr. Leggo, The Borgian, Vox Populi, Supreme Court, Rubric, Princess Titania and Tarp finished as named.

One mile and a furlong: Talamund, 110 (McLaughlin,) 30 to 1, won; Fury, 102 (Mentrey,) 12 to 1, second; Ray, 105 (C. Williams,) 15 to 1, third; time, 1:55 1-5. Alma Boy, Hippocrates, Corrigan, Alaunt, Ink, Ed. Sheridan, and Lady Fashion finished as named.

Futurity course: Pimpkin, 109 (Gross,) 6 to 1, won; Native Son, 109 (R. Davis,) 3 to 1, second; Ingham, 109 (Graham,) 11 to 5, third; time, 1:11. Grace G, Dollie Dollars, L. C. Ackerley, Blagg and Salvadale finished as named.

BID FOR SLOPPY WEATHER HONOR

TWO CYLINDERS AGAINST FOUR IN LONG RUN.

Shettler Will Start a Reo Monday to Show That Light Car Can Do All Heavy Ones Can—Hopes to Make Los Angeles-San Francisco Run in Less Than Forty Hours.

A Reo two-cylinder light touring car will be sent over the road from Los Angeles to San Francisco the beginning of the week, in an effort to do as well or better than the four-cylinder cars, which fought such a strenuous battle in the mud and rain last week.

Leon T. Shettler is preparing a car for the feat, and his object in doing it, he states thus: "I do not want to appear as trying to wrest any glory from the cars which have accomplished the journey over the inland route to San Francisco in the present condition of the roads, but what I do want to do is to uphold the two-cylinder car, I believe and have always maintained that a two-cylinder car is better adapted to rough work of this kind than a four-cylinder car is, and I want to prove it in a lasting way.

"The mark I have set for my car is a journey to San Francisco in forty hours or less, under the same conditions as obtained in the race just finished. I believe my car can do it."

Harris M. Hanshue will be in charge of the car, and drive it a large part of the way. W. W. Bramlette, who is said to know the cañon road to Bakersfield better than any other man in the South, will pilot the car to Bakersfield. He is an oil contractor who has driven his own Reo car over the road for two years, encountering nearly every condition that the mountains can produce.

At Bakersfield Fred Dusty will be taken on board, to act as pilot to Fresno. At this place J. W. Leonard, who is now driving south from San Francisco over the road, will take the wheel and act as pilot.

The car will leave Los Angeles at 5 o'clock Monday morning. A schedule has been laid out calling for the run to San Francisco in less than forty hours. Shettler expects the Reo to make better time to Bakersfield than the winning Oldsmobile in the last race, and at least to hold even with the latter car the rest of the way.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME.

Los Angeles High School and Ventura Teams to Play for Academic Union Honors.

Two girls' champion teams will wage a basketball battle next Saturday, the Santa Paula team, champions of Ventura county, and the Los Angeles High School team, champions of Los Angeles county, being the contestants. The game is to be played at Ventura and constitutes one of the semi-finals of the Academic Union events.

When these county games have all been played and the championship of Southern California established, an effort will be made to bring the northern and the southern basketball champions together in a match game. Los Angeles will send up its regular team next Saturday. The line us is: Forwards, Kendrick, Shortridge; center, Shepard; guards, Winstanley and Ford.

THOMPSON TRAINING AT CAHUENGA PASS.

CYCLONE THOMPSON is at work training for his battle with Jimmy Burns, April 12. He has taken up quarters at the new Cahuenga Pass training camp, and has adopted a new course of training, which he believes will build him up and prevent him from going stale.

Thompson proposes to cut out all the boxing and much of the usual work with the apparatus, and depend largely on road work, manual exercise and rub-downs. Yesterday Thompson passed several house in the garden digging up the ground for planting of vegetables. Then he took a wheelbarrow and hauled in several loads of wood for the cook stove. Afterward he wheeled his little son about the grounds of Heidelberg Inn, where the training camp is located.

Thompson has been fighting many hard battles during the last few months, and now intends to build himself up as strong as possible for his match with Burns. He is tired of boxing and desires to recuperate from the effects of his arduous campaign.

Much of Thompson's spare time is passed in shooting with a target rifle. He is expert with the Stevens, but his wife claims she can beat him in marksmanship, and intends to prove it Sunday, when they will shoot off a match.

Jimmy Walsh called on Thompson, yesterday afternoon, and wished the "Cyclone" good luck. The boys went up the cañon to the waterfall, and pledged each other's health in clear, cool "Adam's ale," fresh from the mountain. Walsh was seized with an inspiration, after drinking his glassful, and christened the place "Harper's Falls," after Mayor Harper of Los Angeles.

It is said the Mayor has promised to be the guest of honor at a barbecue to be given the newspaper boys, Sunday afternoon, by Fred Rickert and Steve Queirolo, the proprietors of the property. Queirolo is a captain in the Los Angeles fire department on long leave of absence, and is securing recreation from many years' service, in operating the training camp. Formerly he was connected with the boxing game in San Francisco, and is a critic and expert in the sport. Queirolo has taken charge of Kid Solomon and proposes to condition and train Benny to beat Abe Attell for the featherweight championship of the world.

The Fire Commission and Mayor Harper visited the Pacific Athletic Club pavilion yesterday afternoon, and thoroughly examined the building. It is said they expressed themselves as satisfied with the protection against fire. However, Manager McCarey intends to take additional precautions in avoiding all danger.

Many fight fans in Los Angeles expressed themselves last night as believing that the ordinance against the boxing game in Los Angeles will not be passed at this time, owing to the cleanliness of the sport as conducted to date. There have been a few slip-ups, they contend, but none which might not occur with any club.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan has arrived in Los Angeles and has gone to Arcadia, where he will train for his battle with Honey Mellody. He will perform in a boxing stunt with his brother Jack, next Sunday. Mellody is said to be on his way west and is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Jimmy Burns is working at the East Side Athletic Club and is in pretty fair condition. He is under the watchful eye of Tommy Burns, who is doing light work in preparation for the O'Brien battle.

"Megaphone" Cook, the stentorian-voiced announcer for the Pacific Athletic Club, has been engaged, he alleges, to go to the Jamestown Exposition to "spiel" for the Southern California exhibit. Cook has a magnificent voice and with proper training for the part should be able to run a dead heat with the pounding of the Atlantic's waves.

EWING TO FIGHT FOR HIS RIGHTS.

RECRIMINATES DUGDALE FOR FIRST WRONG-DOING.

Alleges That Northwestern Magnate and Associates Are Guilty of Collusion—Says Russ Hall Played False When He Asked for Time While Flirting With Enemy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In spite of the fact that the National Board, through Secretary J. H. Farrell, has decided that the Seattle franchises do not belong to the Pacific Coast League because only a few games have been scheduled for that city, President Cal Ewing states that the league will fight to the end any efforts on the part of Farrell to take away the territory. Secretary D. W. Long received a letter today from Farrell, of which the following is a copy:

"I beg to advise you that the National Board has decided by a unanimous vote that the territory of Seattle must be occupied and operated, to be held by the Pacific Coast League. The board holds that playing one or two games is not meeting the spirit of the law and the standard rule of years' standing. That territory must be occupied and operated to be held, is again unanimously reiterated by the board."

This would seem to settle the matter once for all, but Ewing is a fighter himself and does not propose to lie down quietly.

"The situation is plain," said Ewing tonight. "The baseball world understands that Dugdale and his associations were guilty of collusion in the matter. Russ Hall, then holder of the Seattle franchise, pretended that he was unable to raise the necessary funds and asked for more time.

"All this while he was negotiating with the Pacific Northwest League, and in fact had been retained as manager of the Butte team. They were trying to place us in a position where we would be compelled to abandon the field entirely. Under the circumstances we do not feel that Lucas has a right to that franchise, and we will appeal from this decision. We have grounds in Seattle and are ready to play a sufficient number of games to hold the territory."

ANOTHER FORTUNE MAKING RESOURCE UNDER DEVELOPMENT FOR CALIFORNIA

The Vast Crude Soda Beds of Death Valley Richer in Profit Than Borax Mining

Not Only Railway Building Opening Up This Section, But a New Process and a Wonderful New Machine, the Invention of a Los Angeles Chemist and Engineer, Will Make Big Money. This Machine Can Be Seen Daily Making Pure Soda Crystals.

In all the rich resources of the Death Valley section, there is none that has greater possibilities of certain profit to the pioneer in the industry than the conversion of the crude soda beds into a finished product. For a great many years—or for as long as since 1852—these wonderful deposits have been known, as well as the marvel of the desert, to mineralogists. It has been the positive conviction of every one having any knowledge of them that one day California would easily dominate the soda market of the world. The Tonopah-Tidewater Railway has been the first entering wedge, making possible the development of this phenomenal deposit. Next in importance, and perhaps of even greater moment in the crystallization of this crude material into pure soda crystals, is the machine that has just been completed. The Pacific Coast Soda Company, a Los Angeles concern—composed of prominent and well equipped business men, have undertaken the development of this great natural resource. To illustrate their process, they have constructed a smaller size machine at their general offices, 512 South Broadway, second floor, Forve-Pettibone Building, and are giving daily demonstrations of this industry, showing how this crude material, which can be shoveled up almost like sand, sacked and brought to the machine, put in at one end of the affair and at the other end you get the beautiful pure white crystals of soda—chemically pure. This concern, the Pacific Coast Soda Company, not only absolutely owns this machine and all of its rights, but they, with great foresight, have the largest, purest and most accessible deposits of crude soda under their control. The company will soon begin the erection of their chemical plant at Inglewood, where they have six acres of ground, over 1000 feet frontage on the Santa Fe Railway tracks. In this modern plant and with the aid of this machine will be able to convert into eight or nine principal products, as well as a sundry bi-product of some twenty-nine kinds, these crude deposits from their limitless beds out on the desert. To illustrate the great economy effected by this new machine, they will be able to do in a space of 100 feet long by 15 or 20 feet wide, what it would require six acres to accomplish by the old processes, and to do with this machine in less than one week what the old vat method would take six weeks to do.

This machine and its operation is a sight worth seeing. This industry is one worth any man's attention. As an investment it has the making of a fortune in it for the investor. Drop around to second floor of Forve-Pettibone Bldg., 512 South Broadway, and see the coming important industry of California.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO HOLD MEET.

OAKLAND AND LOS ANGELES IN DUAL CONTEST.

Southern Aggregation Hopes to Win Out by Slight Margin—Munn Is Contender Who May Beat Locals. Visitors Conceded Majority of Points in Field Events.

The dual meet between Los Angeles and Oakland High Schools is to be held on Bovard Field, this afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Oakland is conceded the majority of points in the field events, and the local boys will have to rely upon the fact that they have a well-balanced aggregation to overcome the work of Munn, Oakland's star field man. Munn scored a total of twenty-one points in the U.S.C. interscholastic meet, last week, and in a dual meet is liable to pile up even a higher score. Los Angeles High should take firsts in the shorter distances and hurdles, and enough seconds in the field events to win out by a close margin.

OAKLAND HIGH.

The 100-yard dash—McDonald, Leber, Harris.
The 220-yard dash—McDonald, Leber, Harris.
The 440-yard dash—Stroud, Dunn.
The 880-yard run—Cook, Hartwell.

Desired to Enter.

PASADENA, April 3.—Pasadena High School athletes were anxious to have a chance to compete with the Los Angeles and Oakland High Schools tomorrow. The matter was taken up with the authorities of the two institutions but the request was not granted. The local athletes feel that, had they been allowed to enter the meet, they would have to be counted in when the prizes were passed out. The men are all in the best of condition and made some notable records during the season.

AMATEUR BASEBALL.

New Ball League.

The Saturday Afternoon Baseball League is the latest aspirant for the business of the fans, and it will be organized tomorrow night at No. 612 Wall street. The league will be made up of teams from Harper & Reynolds, Edison Electric Company, Y.M.C.A., Schoolmasters, and the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of this city, and the Whittier State School. The sum of $25 will be deposited by each team as a guarantee of good faith. The season will start April 27 and will run thirteen weeks.

Alpine School.

The Alpine street school won from the Tenth-street school in an interesting game by the score of 12 to 8, at the Thirtieth-street school grounds.

St. Vincent Jrs.

The St. Vincent College, Jr., baseball team defeated the Dolgeville Stars at Dolgeville, Tuesday, by the score of 10 to 2. The feature of the game was the excellent playing of Ross, the left-fielder. The team would like to have a game with any nine with players under 16. Address Capt. A. Brady, Home B4207, Sunset Broadway 4122. The line-up:

Ross, left field; Moore, center; Kramer, right; Vigneau, first base; O'Connor, second; W. Ross, first; Dumpeft, short; Bradley, catcher; Brady, Ybarrondo and O'Malley, pitchers.

NEW ATHLETIC CLUB.

Youngsters Between Sixteen and Nineteen Years of Age Are Invited to Join.

A new athletic and social club has been organized under the name of the Eagle Club and will hold meetings from now on in its headquarters at No. 229 North Bunker Hill street. The club has a list of eighteen charter members who meet every Sunday morning at 10:30. It will make features of physical culture and boxing, but social meetings will be arranged at intervals.

The membership will be extended in the future and boys from the ages of 16 to 19 are invited to attend the meetings. The officers of the club are: Henry Nelson, president; Eddy Reed, vice-president; Max Rothman, secretary-treasurer.

DRIVING CLUB MEETING.

Directors Arrange for a Matinee in Two Weeks—Kent Matter Is a Closed Incident.

The regular monthly directors' meeting of the Los Angeles Driving Club was held last night, and aside from the routine business of approving the usual monthly bills, there was little done. It was decided to have a race matinée on Saturday, April 20, and the programme will probably be out for that next week.

The matter of the discharge of Track Superintendent S. A. Kent did not come before the meeting in any shape, according to Secretary Stewart, and is a closed incident. Kent withdrew his letter of apology, and of course it was not considered.

Desired to Enter.

PASADENA, April 3.—Pasadena High School athletes were anxious to have a chance to compete with the Los Angeles and Oakland High Schools tomorrow. The matter was taken up with the authorities of the two institutions but the request was not granted. The local athletes feel that had they been allowed to enter the meet, they would have to be counted in when the prizes were passed out. The men are all in the best of condition and made some notable records during the season.

AMATEUR BASEBALU.

New Ball League.

The Saturday Afternoon Baseball League is the latest aspirant for the business of the fans, and it will be organized tomorrow night at No. 612 Wall street. The league will be made up of teams from Harper & Reynolds, Edison Electric Company, Y.M.C.A., Schoolmasters, and the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of this city, and the Whittier State School. The sum of $25 will be deposited by each team as a guarantee of good faith. The season will start April 27 and will run thirteen weeks.

Alpine School.

The Alpine street school won from the Tenth-street school in an interesting game by the score of 12 to 8, at the Thirtieth-street school grounds.

St. Vincent Jrs.

The St. Vincent College, Jr., baseball team defeated the Dolgeville Stars at Dolgeville, Tuesday, by the score of 10 to 2. The feature of the game was the excellent playing of Ross, the left-fielder. The team would like to have a game with any nine with players under 16. Address Capt. A. Brady, Home 74397, Sunset Broadway 4123. The line-up:

Ross, left field; Moore, center; Kramer, right; Vigneau, first base; O'Connor, second; W. Ross, first; Dumpeft, short; Bradley, catcher; Brady, Ybarreudo and O'Malley, pitchers

NEW ATHLETIC CLUB.

Youngsters Between Sixteen and Nineteen Years of Age Are Invited to Join.

A new athletic and social club has been organized under the name of the Eagle Club and will hold meetings from now on in its headquarters at No. 229 North Bunker Hill street. The club has a list of eighteen charter members who meet every Sunday morning at 10:30. It will make features of physical culture and boxing, but social meetings will be arranged at intervals.

The membership will be extended in the future and boys from the ages of 16 to 19 are invited to attend the meetings. The officers of the club are: Henry Nelson, president; Eddy Reed, vice-president; Max Rothman, secretary-treasurer.

DRIVING CLUB MEETING.

Directors Arrange for a Matinee in Two Weeks—Kent Matter Is a Closed Incident.

The regular monthly directors' meeting of the Los Angeles Driving Club was held last night, and aside from the routine business of approving the usual monthly bills, there was little done. It was decided to have a race matinée on Saturday, April 20, and the programme will probably be out for that next week.

The matter of the discharge of Track Superintendent S. A. Kent did not come before the meeting in any shape, according to Secretary Stewart, and is a closed incident. Kent withdrew his letter of apology, and of course it was not considered.

MAY NAME HUFF.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

URBANA (Ill.) April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Seeking to lure George A. Huff from the academic surroundings of the University of Illinois and place him at the head of the Boston American League club, President John E. Taylor of the Boston team arrived here tonight and went into a star chamber conference with the local baseball expert.

Director Huff had preserved silence regarding the coming of Taylor and would say nothing to the interviewers. He refused to deny that a tentative proposition had been made him by Taylor.

Pasadena Tennis.

PASADENA, April 3.—Interest is keen among students of the High School as to men who are to represent the school in the Ojai tennis tournament, which will be held April 25, 26 and 27. There are several crack players enrolled at the High School and there will be a lively competition for the honor of representing the institution. The matter practically narrows itself down to six players who some time during the coming week will hold a try-out tournament. Two representatives will go to the tournament. The High School players have made exceptionally good records this season, and they hope to carry off some of the trophies in the big tournament.

Whittier's Team Loses.

The Whittier College baseball team played its first game yesterday afternoon, with the Whittier High School team, on the latter's grounds, being defeated by the score of 10 to 8. While the Quakers lost, Coach Thompson feels greatly encouraged by the outlook, as three of the best men in college are in the North with the basketball team. Holton pitched the first six innings for the Quakers, being replaced in the seventh by Capt. Perry, who held the High School down to one hit during the rest of the game.

FOR SALE— Houses.

FOR SALE—

I wish to call your attention to my house at No. 3001 Brighton ave. I built this place for 4 home and it contains everything to be found in a modern residence.

I will sell this place for the value of the lot, which is $3500, plus the actual cost of building the house by day labor.

There is not a reliable contractor in the city today that would duplicate this house for less than $7000.

It is an elegant, new, modern 8-room house, thoroughly up-to-date in every detail: cement steps, porch and sidewalks; handsome entrance, plate glass in reception hall, living room and dining-room; all transoms are bevel glass, with copper ribs.

The living-room contains beamed ceiling, bookcases, numerous seats and without doubt the finest mantel in the city; this mantel is 6 feet wide and is built from the floor to the ceiling with genuine Caen stone.

The dining-room contains beamed ceiling, buffet 8 feet wide, paneled walls, plate rail, decorated ceiling and hand-painted frieze. The dining-room is 18x18 feet, living-room 17x17 feet; all finished in golden oak.

There is a convenient kitchen and pass pantry white enameled, screen porch extends almost the entire width of the house with toilet. Cement cellar with laundry trays, furnace, Ruud heater and storeroom.

The second floor has 4 large sleeping-rooms with large closets, a front and rear balcony and an alcove off the front bedroom; there is a clothes chute from the second floor to the cellar.

The bathroom has cement floor, elegant shower bath adjoining, bath tub, wash basin and toilet; between the 2 rear bedrooms there is an extra wash basin and toilet.

Hardwood floors both upstairs and downstairs.

The lighting fixtures in this house were specially made and are very elaborate, harmonizing with the interior finish.

The back yard contains child's play house, arbor and automobile garage, 17x18 feet.

FOR SALE—
"FOR RENT" SIGNS.
To would-be realty investors, we would suggest that they investigate the comparative number of "for rent" signs in the southwest, where property is selling from $500 to $1000 per front foot, and also ascertain the rental rates there, then do likewise on the close-in hill. We feel assured they would find a large balance in favor of the latter location.
Notwithstanding, we are offering one of the best CORNERS on this hill at less than one-half the prices paid in the former locality, viz., 60 feet at $250 a foot. This being over 20 per cent. below the market value of any corner in its vicinity. This lot is on Grand ave.; it's within 5 minutes' walk of the shopping district, theatres, and public library; it is practically in the center of, yet overlooks, the city; IDEAL conditions for a first-class apartment house. He who contemplates investing would do well to consider these important facts.

BEAUTIFUL HOLLYWOOD.
Between 4 and 5 acres.
Commanding the grandest, most conceivable, above frost and fog.
In the midst of palatial homes and next to a hill on which is being expended $100,000.
I am asking only $5000, which is the greatest bargain on the market. It is at least 50 per cent. under value, by this I mean that property far less desirable adjoining this and in the immediate neighborhood has sold and is valued at more than twice what I am asking.
This is one of the most exceptional bargains ever offered.
Also have an entire block, 200 feet frontage, double corner, on beautiful Prospect ave., which I am compelled to sell immediately. In order to insure immediate sale I am offering this magnificent property for
This is at the rate of $30 per front foot for boulevard frontage. West Hollywood. Do you know what this means?
The price of the piece adjoining mine is over $17,000 for same amount of land, and it is not a double corner either. Also has all the same improvements. Adjoining mine on the other side the same amount of frontage sold recently for $11,000.
CAN YOU BEAT THIS?

MONEY ORDER LAXITY LOSES.

Senator Carter Declares It Should Be Stopped.

Mail-Draft Department Has Big Leak Daily.

All Is Guess Work in This Postal Branch.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Senator Carter of Montana, a member of the Postal Committee appointed to consider the question of better methods in the Postoffice Department was at the White House today.

Speaking of one of the features of the work, he said that it has been charged that the money-order department loses $1000 per day. While the commission had not found this substantiated, the Senator believed that undoubtedly there was much laxity in various bureaus of the postal service that ought to be remedied.

For instance, he said, the government loses 7 cents on every pound of second-class newspapers carried. When the commission called on the department for an explanation, the Senator said it found the officials had no means of giving any accurate information on it. All was guesswork, he said.

Expert accountants will be employed to go over the records and see if the charges can be substantiated.

There is to be a speedy appointment of a director of posts, who is to hold his position irrespective of any changes in the office of Postmaster General, which the Senator admitted had some merit, and the committee will consider the propriety of recommending the creation of such an office.

PLANS REFUND OF BOND ISSUE.

SETS DATE FOR REDEMPTION OF FOUR PER CENTS.

Department Fixes April 6 and June 30 as Time and Securities Cease to Bear Interest on and After July 2 Next—Two Per Cents. Take Their Place.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Secretary Cortelyou today gave out a statement regarding the refunding and redemption of the four per cent. bonds of the funded loan of 1907, which says:

"Public notice is hereby given to the owners of United States registered and coupon bonds of the 4 per cent. funded loan of 1907, that Secretary of the Treasury will receive on or before April 6, and before June 30, 1907, any of the bonds of the said loan to an amount not exceeding $50,000,000 for refunding.

"The residue of said bonds of the refunding hereby provided for will be reserved for redemption on and after July 2, 1907, and the bonds constituting the said residue are hereby called for redemption and will cease to bear interest on the second day of July, 1907.

"The bonds of the loan above mentioned may be surrendered on and after April 6, and will be received at a valuation equal to their worth at present to yield an income of 2½ per cent. annually and like amounts of United States registered or coupon bonds bearing in all the rate of 2 per cent. per annum, will be issued in exchange therefore at a premium of 3 per cent.

"To effect the exchange the outstanding bonds should be surrendered to the Secretary in accordance with the terms of this circular; they will be accepted for that purpose in the order of surrender and new bonds bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum will be issued in the same order in lieu thereof."

HERMANN EXPLAINS.

DESCRIBES CORRESPONDENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Binger Hermann, on trial for destroying public records, testified in his own behalf today. At the suggestion of his counsel Hermann gave a brief sketch of his career. He was born in Maryland in 1843, went to Oregon when he was 16 years of age, taught school and worked on a farm, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1866. That year he was elected to the State Legislature. In 1871 President Grant appointed him receiver of public moneys in the Roseburg land office. He was elected to Congress in 1884 and served twelve years, until the election of McKinley as President.

"President McKinley kindly selected me—or, perhaps, unkindly," remarked Mr. Hermann, "as Commissioner of the General Land Office." After leaving the land office in 1903 Hermann said he had twice been elected to Congress, his last term expiring March 4, of this year. Hermann emphasized the fact that during his public career he took great pains to travel over his State, and in those travels he made many friends. These friends wrote him many letters, and he had never refused to answer a letter. As a consequence, he said that when he went into the land office as commissioner, in 1897, he was receiving, on an average, ten to thirty letters a day, mostly from his Oregon friends.

Hermann explained that the first day he took up his duties as commissioner he was brought a letter marked "Private" by Hough, who had been assigned as his stenographer. It was explained to him that it was the usual custom of the commissioner to use a private letter book for his personal correspondence.

Hermann said that he corresponded considerably with the members of his family in Oregon and that he wrote his son many letters. He said he had departmental business to transact for his constituents and Oregon friends in practically every department and every bureau of every department of the government.

Hermann admitted, in answer to a question by his attorney, that he had had aspirations to become United States Senator and that he corresponded with many persons in Oregon to keep in constant touch with the political situation. He said his personal correspondence also was increased by the fact that he had written a pamphlet describing the western boundary of the Louisiana Purchase, and he had sent many of these pamphlets, together with "a few kindly lines," to his friends in Oregon and the West. Requests for State maps, for information regarding homestead entries and letters from persons who had contracts for surveys, Hermann said, were written to him personally, to which he replied personally. It was this character of correspondence that was copied in his private letter books.

MAJ. FENROSE ON STAND.

THINKS SOLDIERS INNOCENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Testimony of unusual interest was given today in the Brownsville investigation before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, the chief witnesses being Maj. Penrose, who commanded the former soldiers who were charged with having "shot up" the Texas city, and Lieut. H. G. Leckie, who was sent to Brownsville by Gen. McCaskey, commander of the Department of Texas to investigate facts connected with the shooting.

Lieut. Leckie traced the course taken by bullets that penetrated houses in Brownsville, and came to the conclusion that the bullets could not have been fired by soldiers in the barracks.

Maj. Penrose, who has been acquitted by court-martial on charges of neglect of duty while the same court-martial found that the men of the Twenty-fifth Infantry were guilty, asserted his confidence now in the innocence of the men, although at first he thought them guilty.

TO PROBE "TRUSTS."

CABINET HEADS CONFER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 3.—An important conference was held at the White House this afternoon on the subject of trust proceedings now under way by the Department of Justice. Those present included Messrs. Root, Bonaparte, Garfield and Cortelyou. The so-called "tobacco trust" was one of the subjects discussed.

The discussion today was a general one, without reference to any particular "trust" or corporation, and no conclusions were reached. Atty.-Gen. Bonaparte, it is said, is outlining a programme for action. He submitted his plans to the President and his Cabinet associates with the view of receiving any suggestions as to the best methods to pursue when the administration is ready to resume the "trust" prosecutions.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Government Buys Silver.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Treasury Department today purchased 200,000 ounces of silver at 65.223 cents per fine ounce, 100,000 ounces to be delivered at San Francisco and 100,000 at New Orleans.

Labor Tie-up in France.

PARIS, April 3.—Speculation relative to the labor demonstrations, May 1, with forecasts of disturbances, occupy a large space in the newspapers today. The Secretary of the Federation of Labor, when interviewed, declined to disclose the programme decided upon. He declared, however, that the attempt to stop work would be general in France on that day.

Gen. Wood Seeks Redress.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Following his controversy with Capt. Koehler, Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, commanding the Philippine division, has preferred charges of using disrespectful language against F. S. Cairns, an employé of the civil government of the Philippines, and the Philippine Commission is now investigating the dispute.

JAP SEA-COOKS ARE UNIONIZED.

WHITE TOTEMITES THREATS CAUSE ACTION.

Tell Orientals to Demand Better Pay or Get Thrown Off Boats—Have Walking Delegate and All the Regulation Fixings of Full-Fledged Loafers' Organization.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Japanese cooks employed on sailing and steaming craft out of Puget Sound ports have formed a union and demanded an increase in wages from $75 to $85 a month. They want to be put on the same footing as chief cooks who may be white.

The schooner Lottie Bennett, loaded with lumber at Ballard for San Pedro, was the first vessel to be notified of the union's demands, and the first to yield.

Just before the crew was signed on the Bennett today a walking delegate from the Japanese Cooks' Union went aboard and explained the demands of his union, declaring that unless they were met no Japanese cook would be furnished. The captain capitulated.

Trouble was threatened the Japanese cooks by white union labor aboard the sailing ships and steamers, which objected to the Japanese working at a cheaper wage than white men received, and threatened to demand that the Japanese be thrown off the boats unless they stood out for better pay. The Japanese immediately agreed to organize and demand higher pay.

PREMIER FLAYS PIOU.

Clemenceau Sends Another Letter to "Figaro" Scoring Scheme to "Tap" the Vatican.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, April 3.—Premier Clemenceau has addressed another long letter to the Figaro because of publication by that paper this morning of three articles which were sequestered at the expulsion from France of Mgr. Montagnini, former papal nunciature secretary at Paris.

The Premier attacks Jacques Piou, president of the Liberal League, saying his actions as revealed for the first time by the publication of these documents, were nothing but a series of attempts to "tap" the Vatican for his own electioneering campaign.

For this purpose M. Piou did not hesitate to take advantage of a man "whose intelligence is below the average, but who shows nothing of the low characteristic that must be his if M. Piou spoke the truth."

M. Clemenceau explains at some length the famous meeting which M. Piou comunicated to Mgr. Montagnini under a pledge of deepest secrecy, and which took place at the request of M. Piou in the house of an American woman.

M. Piou told M. Clemenceau that at this time he was not in favor of separation. M. Clemenceau answered that he did not agree with him, and that was all. M. Clemenceau said he was much mystified at this extraordinary proceeding, when he saw the document published in the Figaro, when it became evident to him that this simply had been another scheme to "tap" the Vatican.

"The criminals," concluded M. Clemenceau's letter, "who steal and kill are worthy of public esteem compared with the man who tries to dishonor the people under cover of the strictest secrecy, and then hopes to extricate himself by stammering denials."

At the annual meeting of the Centennial Mining Company yesterday the management of the company was transferred to Calumet and Hecla interests. The formal transfer follows a purchase of a majority interest by the Calumet and Hecla company.

RETURNS SHOW EASY VICTORY.

Chicago Prefers Action to Air Castles.

Street Car Ordinances Carry by Big Margin.

Hearst Rebuked by Windy City for Interfering.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—Revised unofficial returns of yesterday's election show that Busse has been elected by a plurality of 13,016 over Dunne. The Republican city ticket was elected with the exception of Edward C. Young, the candidate for City Treasurer, who was beaten by John Treager, Democrat, by 7983. The City Council will be Democratic by the same majority as the old Council—36 Democrats, 34 Republicans.

The traction ordinances recently passed by the City Council over the veto of the Mayor and which provided for the immediate rehabilitation of the street-railway systems, were carried by a vote of 165,646 to 132,720.

Fear that the condemnation proceedings might entail many years of litigation, during which the city would be compelled to put up with its present miserable transportation facilities, was a strong factor in bringing out a heavy vote in favor of the ordinances. As the matter now stands, the street-car companies are compelled to pay the city 55 per cent. of their net income, allowing the city at all times access to their books. They are to provide continuous passage from one section of the city to another for a fare of 5 cents, and to grant universal transfers.

The city is to allow them a franchise for twenty years with the option of purchasing the systems for $50,000,000, at any time by giving notice six months in advance of the date at which it proposes to take over the property. The cost of rehabilitating the lines is to be left to the purchase price of $50,000,000.

The election also added to the extent of the city by bringing in the suburb of Morgan Park, which will add about 3000 to its population, provided the citizens of Morgan Park approve the annexation. Their election is to be held two weeks hence.

HEARST BUTTS IN.

William Randolph Hearst came personally from New York to take part in the campaign and brought with him his ablest cartoonists and editorial writers. His papers were the only publications in the city supporting Mayor Dunne, all the others being for Busse and the ordinance. The fight between the editorial departments became so energetic that the actual issues of the campaign were for some time completely lost sight of. The papers favoring Busse made much of the party cry that Chicago was able to manage its own affairs without instruction from New York.

Mayor Dunne abandoned hope within two hours after the polls closed. He received the returns at his home, surrounded by his family and a few friends. He appeared to be greatly affected by the result and said:

"It looks as though the money power has overwhelmed us, but our cause is not lost. Municipal ownership and governmental ownership will win in the end. This election has merely acted as a check. It will retard us for a while, but the movement will go on and will in the end be successful."

Corporation Counsel James Hamilton Lewis, who has been a staunch supporter of Mayor Dunne, said:

"The result came by a combined Republican party which was led by able captains against what developed to be a distracted and divided Democracy."

BUSSE MAKES STATEMENT.

Busse, who has for some time been postmaster of the city, has been confined to his home during the campaign because of injuries received in a wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad lately. When the result was beyond all doubt, he gave out a statement as follows:

"I am, of course, greatly delighted at the success of the Republican ticket. It shows that the people of this city are in favor of immediate improvement of our present street car system and that they indorse fully the ordinances passed by the City Council over the veto of Mayor Dunne.

"More than anything else the vote in Chicago today means that the sentiment of the majority of the people in the second largest city in the United States is opposed to William R. Hearst and all the 'isms' that he has sought to thrust on the community. It is a clean-cut victory for sane, safe and conservative institutions."

CHOATE ATTENDS HEARING.

FAVORS PUBLIC SERVICE LAW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) April 3.—Joseph H. Choate was the most conspicuous of the correspondent representatives who continued their arguments for amendment of the so-called "Governor public utilities bill," tonight at the hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Speaking for the stockholders and bondholders of the railroads he said that the timidity of investors had been increased by the "apprehension and danger threatening them through hostile legislation."

"I submit," he continued, "that there ought to be a public service law; that it ought to protect the interest of the people and also the interest of he bondholders and stockholders; that it should make impossible any rebates; that it should make impossible any more watering of stocks and any more conditions that existed in the recent 'Harriman heroics,' as I may call it."

The bill under consideration he characterizes as drastic and revolutionary.

There are all degrees of merit ranging upwards to the level of excellence maintained by Alfred Benjamin & Co.

The new spring styles are products of real genius. Each separate suit is a masterpiece of skill tailoring. In comparison, the ordinary ready-made suit is lifeless and without style.

Step in and See the Exclusive Patterns, Only a Few of Each Kind

United States Senators, Governors, Railroad Presidents, Bankers, Attorneys, Business Men—to this class of discriminating buyers Alfred Benjamin suits especially appeal.

Naturally it is impossible for a local tailor with his limited experience, to compete with the master hands who create Alfred Benjamin styles.

McCarthy Is Denounced by His Catspaws

Boss Jawsmith's Tyranny Arouses Indignation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—All the union men employed on the Hotel Fairmont were called off this morning by order of P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council.

Six hundred men at first obeyed the order, but after excited meetings had been held on the street, more than half of the number returned to work, declaring that the order of McCarthy was tyrannical and unjust.

Those who left their work did so only on the understanding that they would take the matter up at the meetings of their respective councils tonight for determination.

McCarthy's order grew out of his controversy with the Independent Union of Electrical Workers, which was formed here some time ago in defiance of McCarthy's orders.

The unions involved in the walkout were the plumbers, tilers, glaziers, steam-fitters, carpenters, painters, plasterers, brick-layers and electrical workers.

ESPEE AGAINST UNIONISM.

PALMER EXPLAINS POLICY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The hostility of the Southern Pacific Company to labor unionism among its employés of a certain rank was declared today before the arbitration board, which is considering the demands made by the telegraph operators, by W. S. Palmer, general superintendent of the company. Palmer, in response to a question by Stanley Moore, spoke for two hours and ten minutes, giving the stenographer 17,500 words to record.

Palmer said the policy of the Southern Pacific can be better expressed by the instructions which were given by the present general manager over a year ago, to the end that no dispatcher or employé of any description could expect promotion to an official position so long as he retained his connection with a labor organization, and that so far as that is concerned, the man would not be allowed to resign in order to get that promotion at that time; that he must show his willingness to take the side of the company as against an organization, or to be absolutely independent.

The railroad will close its case tomorrow.

l Estate Speculators Are Ignored.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, April 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Oregon and Washington Railway, Harriman's line, projected from Portland to Seattle, will begin condemnation proceedings tomorrow against property owners in four tide-flat blocks between Atlantic and Airborn streets, and First and Railroad avenues.

This property lies in the midst of the new wholesale and small manufacturing district on the tide lands and directly west of the Great Northern freight distribution. It is adjacent to the big local dock property which James J. Hill bought for $750,000 from the Stetson Post Mill Company a year ago.

A few scattered lots were purchased in this tract at the time other big deals were made in Seattle, and a few parcels of property have been picked up since.

A year ago the Harriman interests were victimized by real estate speculators when they began buying terminals here. When this tide land, which concludes the scheme of Harriman terminals in Seattle, was wanted, the real estate speculators were ignored, and the courts will be asked to fix price.

GREENSBORO (N. C.) April 3.—At annual banquet of the Merchants' Manufacturers' Club tonight, W. Finley, president of the Southern way, responded to the toast: rth Carolina and its relations to railroad problem." After discussthe interest of North Carolina in roved railway transportation and ting out the need of additional way construction in the State, Finsaid:

The interests of a railway and the ple dependent on it for transportare so completely identical that I no hesitation in saying that every slative proposition inimical to the roads will be found, upon careful mination, to be equally inimical to effects on the people of the territ served by their lines."

inley said that, while the capitalion of each railroad must be conred on its merits, he was conced there was serious popular error supposing that there is any considble over-capitalization of railroads the United States. He pointed out some of the arguments as to overitalization were based on the averr cost of construction that must be de for lightly-built and lightly-ipped roads in level or nearly level ntry, with few bridges and tunnels without expensive city terminals. ilroads, he said:

When the entire facilities of the carrs are considered including rights-way through cities, towns and elsewhere, terminals, yards, roadbeds, cks, tunnels, structures and equipnt, I think it will be admitted by persons acquainted with the cost railroad construction that the propy of these carriers could not, genally speaking, be reproduced at a e equal to their capitalization.

But leaving aside the question as to ether the railroads of this country re overcapitalized, I wish to say to that the idea that rates are conlled by capitalization is entirely thout justification. Capitalization y affect the intrinsic value of a mpany's securities and thus affect investing public. It cannot control lroad's rates and hence cannot afct the shipping public."

President Finley gave examples to w that railway charges are the outwth of economic laws and commerr conditions.

"No rate," he said, "can ever, with per consideration of the business of country, or of the carriers, be made dependently of these economic laws set by legislation, arbitrarily fixing rate and not by capitalization of carrier, likewise arbitrarily fixing rate. In a broad sense, therefore, management of a railway is powless to fix rates that are the result economic and comercial forces which e absolutely beyond the control its managers, as are the tides of the an.

GREENSBORO (N. C.) April 3.—At the annual banquet of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Club tonight, W. W. After discussing the interest of North Carolina in improved railway transportation and pointing out the need of additional railway construction in the State, Finley said:

"The interests of a railway and the people dependent on it for transportation are so completely identical that I have no hesitation in saying that every legislative proposition inimical to the railroads will be found, upon careful examination, to be equally inimical to the best efforts on the people of the territory served by their lines."

Finley said that, while the capitalization of each railroad must be considered on its merits, he was convinced there was serious popular error in supposing that there is any considerable over-capitalization of railroads in the United States. He pointed out that none of the arguments as to over-capitalization were based on the average cost of construction that must be made for lightly-built and lightly-equipped roads in level or nearly level country, with few bridges and tunnels and without expensive city terminals. TOPEKA (Kan.) April 3.—The State Board of Railroad Commissioners intervened today in the case before the Interstate Commerce Commission to abolish the differential rates on wheat and flour to California and Arizona points. The final hearing will be in Portland, Or., April 17. The differential rates are 50 cents per hundred pounds to California and 35 cents per hundred pounds to Arizona.

TAFT INSPECTS PANAMA CANAL.

GOES DOWN IN BUCKET TO SEE LOCK'S WORKINGS.

Secretary of War Has Busy Day on Zone—Hears Complaints of Colon Citizens Who Protest Against Sanitary Regulations, and Carefully Examines Culebra Cut.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLON, April 3.—Secretary Taft reached Colon from the other side of the isthmus at 11 o'clock this morning. After luncheon he met a deputation of the house owners of Colon and other citizens who protested against the alleged unjust hardships imposed by the sanitary authorities and asking relief from the "unjust and intolerable conditions imposed in the carrying out of the sanitary improvements here."

Secretary Taft has made a thorough examination of the sanitary conditions existing. At the Culebra cut, the operations of the steam shovels and the other machinery were inspected by Superintendent of Excavation Little. The work at Empire was thoroughly inspected and from Empire the Secretary went to Gatun. Here he was met by W. G. Buerd, general manager of the Panama Railroad.

Secretary Taft tramped the entire site of the future lock and visited each test pit. He watched Representative T. E. Burton as he was lowered into the largest hole that goes to the bottom of the lock. When Burton came to the surface Secretary Taft surprised every one present by taking off his coat and stepping into the bucket. He was lowered to the bottom of the test pit. F. B. Maltby, first assistant engineer on the canal, accompanied the Secretary on his descent and explained to him the soil and the work in hand.

Coming to the surface the Secretary's party took a steam launch of the canal to Mindin, whence they came in a special train to Cristobal, where the dry docks and dredges were inspected.

The Secretary declared emphatically that the contention that the United States was responsible under the treaty with Panama for sanitary improvements to private property was untenable. He listened to many instances of alleged hardship and figured as to the cost of the improvements required, and was informed concerning the length and nature of the railroad leases and other matters. He requested that each complaint regarding sanitary matters be made out on its own merits and promised to give the matter his close attention.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MANILA, April 3.—The President's proclamation fixing July 30, as the date for the election of a national assembly finds a somewhat involved political situation in the islands.

Pulajanism still exists in Samar, and while the authorities have no fear that it will result in an insurrection, brigandage in the unsettled districts still prevails. In Neuva Ecija, La Guna, Pampanga, Bulacan, Tayabas and Cavite provinces, the Japanese sentiment is apparently used as a pretext to incite the people. The progress party is not considered likely to elect its whole ticket, as the independent party is making a strong showing. Advices from the provinces indicate that the two parties' methods are inconsistent, both posing as friends or as enemies of the Americans, as the situation demands.

The Governor of Lagun Province has discovered the existence of a reorganized Katipunan or Tagalog government society, similar to that formed under Spanish rule, now headed by the Domingo Gomez, a man likened to Dr. Rizal, the martyr to the cause of the Filipinos. The remodeled seal of the society shows the clasped hands of Japanese and Filipinos and the rigid oath of the members ends with the words "without quarter."

A factory where uniforms were made for the Filipinos who wished to fight for the Japanese has been discovered at Tayabas, sixty-two miles from Manila. The government has been informed of the situation.

SAY VICTORS HANG PRISONERS.

SAN SALVADOR, (Republic of Salvador) April 3.—According to reports circulated here from Honduras, when the invading Nicaraguan and Honduran revolutionary forces occupied Tegucigalpa they plundered the place and murdered several persons. The children of Gen. Carcama, Honduran commander, were hanged by the invaders.

QUAKE IN TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 3.—Consular dispatches from Erzen, Turkish Armenia, say that strong earthquakes were felt at Bitlis throughout the night of March 31, resulting in fresh casualties and the destruction of houses.

J. A. Mara, president of the Board of Trade, returned to Victoria, B. C., from the Orient and says that English residents of Shanghai are fearing a revolution in which the colony would be wiped out.

Consumers' Ice Stock

PAYS FOR ITSELF

And Makes Money for You All the Time

Every one knows the vast profits in ice. The press of the country rings daily with exposures of the extortions practiced by ice monopolies in all the large cities. In this climate of even temperatures the business of an ice company is steady all the year around and the profits are enormous. Cold storage also yields big returns on the investment.

The Consumers' Ice Company Enters the Field Independently, Not Only to Save Money But to Make It

It is organized to place in operation a modern, up-to-date ice plant and cold storage warehouse. Ground has been secured at Fifteenth and Alameda. Work will soon commence on the plant. It will supply the best quality of ice entirely independent of any trust or corporation and will pay big profits from the very start. In order to facilitate the sale of the stock, to secure the stockholders and to let the shareholders of the company participate to the fullest extent in the advantages the company is able to offer, every stockholder will be granted two (2) tons of ice, delivered as required, for every share of stock taken.

This is the Fairest Offer of Stock Ever Made and is Being Rapidly Taken Up

The character and reputation of the men connected with the company assures the most straightforward and businesslike handling of all its affairs. Officers and pricipal stockholders are: Alfred M. Salyer, president; Dr. J. W. Jones, vice-president; Ira C. Tichenor, secretary; Harrison Albright, prominent architect and builder; and O. E. Farish, of the well-known realty firm of Mines & Farish. This is an investment that appeals to women as well as men. Ladies can make their ice pay for their stock and obtain a certain, steady revenue from a stock bound to become more valuable every day.

This Is the Best, Level Industry Launched In Recent Years and Will Pay Large Dividends

SHARES NOW AT PAR AND WILL GO HIGHER $10

DENTOL

To Try It Is to Adopt It

If you please, dont merely ask for a dentifrice, ask for DENTOL, the celebrated French dentifrice, prepared according to the formulas of Dr. Rasperi.

Dentol (wash, paste and powder) is the only dentifrice possessing thorough antiseptic properties combined with an exquisite perfume.

Dentol prevents and heals the decay of the teeth, inflammation of gums, bad breath, sore throat, etc. It gives a beautiful white enamel to the teeth and leaves a delightful and lasting sensation of freshness in the mouth.

EXPERT TAILORS

IT is in what is called the TAILORING that the real quality of a garment lies.

The sewing of the seams—the edges—the pocket points—the shaping and finishing.

These are the points that add cost and give quality to properly made garments—and they are the particulars of which the average buyer knows the least. Suppose you have a chat with one of our salesmen today.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Cornell Banquet.

At Angelus Hotel tonight at 6:30 the Cornell University Club will have a banquet, with lady guests. William Niles, past president, will speak on the recent Chamber of Commerce excursion to Hawaii.

She Starts Prisonward.

Mrs. Sidney Hendricks, under sentence of two years in State's prison for burglary, was taken north yesterday to serve her term. Before going she asked to see her husband, Joseph Hendricks, who, she declared, had caused her downfall and lived on the proceeds of her shame. The man could not be found.

Postal Figures.

The postmaster's report for the month of March, just completed, gives some interesting statistics. The stamp sale for the month was $39,821.79, or an increase of nearly 20 per cent. over last year. The number of letters received at the main postoffice for dispatch was 3,036,800. More than 277,008 pieces of misdirected mail were received at the local office. During the month 16,750 changes of address were filed.

After Byrne Building's Owner.

Building Inspector Backus is again after Callaghan Byrne, owner of the Byrne Block at Third street and Broadway, and on Tuesday one of the Inspector's deputies swore out a complaint in the Justice Court against Byrne for his failure to provide proper fire escapes for his building. A similar complaint was sworn to last January but nothing seems to have been done by the police or Justice Court officials in either case. Byrne had not been arrested up to yesterday evening.

Tossed by Locomotive.

J. M. Diamond, a watchman whose address and place of employment could not be learned by the hospital authorities, was run down last night by a Santa Fé passenger train at the crossing of Alliso street. He was tossed to one side of the track by the pilot. His right leg and collar bone were fractured, and he sustained a number of bruises and lacerations. He was taken to the Santa Fé Hospital unconscious. Owing to the severity of the shock his condition was regarded at a late hour as serious.

Hurt in Runaway.

Jake Pearlman, a junk man living at No. 727 Banning street, was treated at the Receiving Hospital yesterday for a wound on the back of his head and a strained back. At noon yesterday he removed the bridle from his horse at the corner of Twenty-ninth street and Vermont avenue and the horse started to run away, knocking down his owner. Patrolman J. M. Hoover, who was near by, seized a pole and knocked the horse down long enough to stop its flight, and then sent Pearlman to the hospital.

COL. RUFUS TO QUIT ADVANCING THE CITY.

Unhappy Happenings on the Trip to Hawaii Make Him Say He Is Not Appreciated—Stormy Time on Sea and on Land.

"I AM NOT appreciated in Southern California and I will do nothing more for the advancement of Los Angeles. I have determined to resign from the Chamber of Commerce, and will not consent to serve on one of the Fiesta committees."

This is what Col. Rufus H. Herron, chairman of the recent Chamber of Commerce excursion to Hawaii, said last evening, shortly after a stormy meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Col. Rufus is peevish, but he is a smiling seraph compared with a good many other Angelenos who went on the trip to the Sandwich Islands.

The ex-excursionists have been silent since the good (?) ship Ohio poked her smudgy nose into San Pedro. Their silence was caused by a protracted effort to regain their aplomb after what they have termed the most farcical attempt in their memory at holding a pleasure junket. Now they have shaken off the effects of the trip and have been telling stories to their friends that reek with hints of filthy staterooms and horrid "grub," not to mention the fact that Col. Rufus had the bridal suite while others occupied what they have termed the "steerage."

These stories reached the ears of the directors of the Chamber, and yesterday a protracted meeting was held. It is hinted that the main topic of conversation was why Herron had the bridal suite, and why there was not enough drinking water on board, and why one man had to spend $40 for Apollinaris water during the trip because the ordinary water on the Ohio was dirty.

Oh, yes, there were lots of other things, such as complaints from the excursionists that the linen on the beds was soiled when they entered the berths, and that it was not changed en route, and that the so-called staterooms were mere dirty cubby-holes.

The storm centered around Col. Rufus H. Herron. He said he was willing to have it center around him, for he had done his duty, and nothing but his duty. He expressed the opinion that the excursionists were the "most wretched lot of 'representative business men' I have ever met."

"HORRIBLE," SAYS FORVE.

"I would not take the trip again under the same conditions for $5000," he said. "It was horrible. You cannot make it to strong for me. I would not permit my wife and my friends to return on the boat, and we took the Alameda back to San Francisco. The water was so bad that I was compelled to purchase a bottled water throughout the trip. The linen on our berths was soiled when we first entered them, and it was not changed during the voyage. The food was repulsive, and no service was given. I know of one man who tried throughout the entire trip to secure some service by pushing the buttons in the staterooms, and failed. One time in the middle of the night he pushed the button out of sheer desperation, and was startled to have the night watchman appear at his door. It was only once, however, as during the rest of the trip he was unable to even secure a response from the night watchman."

There are stories told of women lying on the floors of their staterooms and of others so enraged and sick over the condition of affairs that they threatened to jump overboard.

One prominent lady whose home is on West Seventh street, had a room through the porthole of which the sea water came. She was seasick, but succeeded in closing the porthole and screwing the fastening down. Still it leaked. She was one of the first to leave the boat in Honolulu, and went straight toa hardware store, where she purchased a monkey wrench. She announced that she would shut that so that no one could get it open.

When the boat was two days out it encountered a storm, and out of the 240 passengers aboard only fourteen were present for breakfast. This enforced confinement to their staterooms is thought to have accentuated the alleged bad condition of things. The next day things began to move.

WIGGINS SLEEPS ON DECK.

Long before this Secretary Frank Wiggins had given up his statemoom and was sleeping on deck. Other gentlemen did the same, and the eyes of the passengers confined below deck were turned upon Col. Rufus and his party, who were occupying the bridal suite. Col. Rufus did not take the hint, and held onto his desirable quarters all the way to Hawaii, but coming home the clouds of dissension began to gather so thickly that Col. Rufus gave up his room and slept on the couch in the dining-room.

About the fifth day out matters reached a crisis. Secretary Wiggins, who is accustomed to having things go smoothly, was pestered so by the passengers that in despair, he is said to have threatened to jump overboard. Wiggins was made the butt for all complaints. He told the passengers he had nothing to do with the arrangements, but they would not be quieted. They demanded that the Only Wiggins, who has always heretofore rescued them from trouble, again wave the magic wand and make things all right.

He tried, but he could not, and his over-wrought nerves gave way. He retired to his sleeping apartments somewhere over the boiler or coal bin, and actually wept. It is hard to imagine tears wending their way into the famous Wiggins whiskers, but the passengers say 'tis true.

COME BACK ANOTHER WAY.

When the boat finally reached Honolulu many of the travelers made a rush for the steamship offices, where they demanded passage to Los Angeles or San Francisco by some other boat. They offered to pay anything, but would not return on the Ohio until the pure food inspector had gone through it. All but six of them were disappointed. These were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Forve, Mrs. Joseph Maier, Mrs. Samuel Maier, Mrs. H. W. Woolacott and Percy Booth. They returned on the Alameda, and say that they had an excellent voyage.

The others were distracted, and it is said they ate terrific quantities of poi and other Hawaiian dainties that may cause sudden and horrible death to an unaccustomed stomach. It was no use. The day to again board the Ohio came around, and the ladies took smelling bottles and the gentlemen took many long thin glasses in which something clinked coolly, and returned to the boat.

COL. HERRON SAYS.

When seen last night, Col. Herron said it was all an idle dream and purely imaginary, and that the trip had been a success. He said he enjoyed himself, and that the only dissention came from those who were seasick.

"Some people, you know," he said, "are never satisfied. They want to have an entire flat or a country residence when they go aboard a ship. There were scarcely two representative Los Angeles business men aboard. The most of the passengers were people of small account who did not represent this city. In truth I was ashamed of the aggregation. I had hoped that prominent men would accompany the excursion, but they did not do so. The Ohio is a good boat, and can accommodate fully 290 first-class passengers. There were only 240 aboard. "I am hurt that this discussion arose, but it cannot harm me. I have done enough for Los Angeles, and am through with this philanthropic work. I am not appreciated, and will do no more for Southern California. I have determined to hand in my resignation to the Chamber next week when I hand in my report of this trip. Then I am through with the entire bunch. I will not have one thing to do with the Fiesta arrangements."

TO HEAR COMPLAINTS.

The six members of the Chamber of Commerce asked by Secretary Wiggins to act as a committee to hear complaints regarding the Ohio trip are G. G. Johnson, Percy H. Clark, Lee A. McConnell, Rufus H. Herron, R. D. List and L. Kimball.

COL. RUFUS H. HERRON, who is angry and says that he will resign from the Chamber of Commerce, and will do no more for Southern California because he is not appreciated.

SIGNS MUST GO OR LICENSES.

COLORED VOTERS OBJECT TO DISCRIMINATION.

Mayor Harper Calls Secret Session of His Cabinet and the Fiat Goes Forth That All Obnoxious Notices Must Come Down or Business Will Cease.

Signs of discrimination must go, says Mayor Harper.

Colored voters in the Seventh Ward had their innings yesterday. They called on the Mayor and told him they objected to having signs on certain saloons and restaurants of that ward announcing that "Colored trade is not desired," that "Colored people will not be served," and so on.

The negroes in the Seventh Ward claim they all voted for Harper for Mayor. Just what induced them to turn Democrats so suddenly they do not stop to explain, but anyway they think that such a flop deserves some consideration at the hands of the executive of this city.

Last night Mayor Harper called his cabinet together in secret session; today the colored voters can look at a saloon without feeling sad.

There was no blowing of horns about that cabinet meeting, but the fiat went forth just the same, "Those signs must come down."

The Mayor spoke right out to his friends, Chief of Police Kern and two Police Commissioners. He stated that he hated to see anybody made unhappy by sueh a thing as signs. One member of the cabinet wanted to know how to get rid of them.

"Tell the saloon-keepers who have these signs up that they must come down or they will lose their licenses," said the Mayor.

The notices are to be abolished today.

"If you see any more of these signs you just let me know," said the Mayor to the admiring delegation of colored Democrats last night.

OIL PROPERTY IN JEOPARDY.

DISREGARD OF ORDINANCE MAY CAUSE OWNERS' ARREST.

Laundry and Blacksmith Shop Involved in Matter—Inspector Blackmar Swears Out Complaints—Temple Street Improvement Association Interested.

The oil men in the Temple-street district will probably be able to take a long breath this morning, and for several mornings, or else the men who own a new laundry and a blacksmith shop on Temple street, near Boylston avenue, will be taking shorter breaths, and all on account of the apparently simple action taken yesterday by Oil Inspector Blackmar. He swore out complaints for the arrest of five owners of oil property on Temple street from Beaudry avenue west to Douglas street.

Over a year ago the Temple Street Improvement Association got after the owners of oil wells in the district from Beaudry avenue west, and it was agreed that the oil men would be given one year in which to remove their derricks and cover up the oil wells in the district bounded by Beaudry on the east, Douglas street on the west, Bellevue avenue on the north and Colton street on the south. The year has elapsed and many of the old derricks and wells are still in evidence. It is said that an ordinance prohibiting wells and derricks was passed and that it included steam boilers and gasoline engines.

In the meantime the Home Laundry Company was established on Temple street and the Fire Commission is said to have given it a permit to operate a steam boiler and a gasoline engine. Half a block further west a blacksmith shop, on the corner of Temple street and Boylston avenue, was given a gasoline engine permit. Inspector Blackmar stated yesterday that the Fire Commission had no right to grant permits that were prohibited by law.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

Prominent Odd Fellow and Real Estate Man Is in Critical Condition.

I. D. Barnard, a well-known man in Los Angeles and San Francisco business circles, was stricken with apoplexy at 5 o'clock last evening, on South Broadway, near First street. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital by the police ambulance and was later removed to his home, No. 219 South Hill street. His condition is critical and his physicians think he cannot recover.

Mr. Barnard is a prominent Odd Fellow, having been a member of that order for more than fifty years. He was practically the father of the Odd Fellows of San Francisco, and it is said that he organized the first lodge there. Though he has lived in Los Angeles for the past fourteen years, he has maintained his fraternal associations in the north, and is now a member of the Yerba Buena Lodge I.O.O.F., of San Francisco.

He was for years one of the owners and managers of the Russ House in San Francisco, and had other interests there. Reverses came and he moved to Los Angeles. Here he has conducted a real estate and brokerage business at No. 138½ South Broadway.

The attack he suffered yesterday was caused by grief over the death of W. F. Slater, an old friend, who was also an Odd Fellow. The attack came soon after he had accompanied Mr. Slater's remains to the railroad station last evening.

FOR CHEAPER INSURANCE.

Mutual Company Under Way in Los Angeles.

Makes Possible Big Saving to Realty Owners.

Sixteen California Towns Are Represented.

The preliminary steps toward affording relief to the property owners of Southern California from the exorbitant insurance charges which are now in vogue were taken yesterday afternoon when secretaries of sixteen commercial organizations which are allied with the Retail Merchants' Exchange met for the purpose of forming a co-operative fire insurance company. It was decided that the company should be known as the Merchants' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Southern California, and that it should have a reserve fund or bond issue at the start of $50,000.

FIFTY THOUSAND RESERVE.

As soon as the blanks have been secured by the committee, subscription lists will be started both for the bond issue of $50,000 and for prospective policy holders. About three months will be required to get matters in shape for permanent organization, after which the company will be ready for active business.

The formation of this company is made possible by a law which was passed at the last Legislature. The members of the Retail Merchants' Exchange have regarded the insurance rates in the West as entirely too high and unnecessarily in excess of those which prevail in the East, and they propose, by organizing the coöperative company, to provide a remedy.

The company will insure all kinds of property except mills and lumber yards and at a considerably lower rate than is now charged by insurance companies. The law limits the amount of the risk in one block to $2500, but as the merchants of Northern California are about to form a similar company and each will act as the other's agent it will be possible to secure $5000 on any risk. To comply with the law it will be necessary to have at the start at least 200 policy holders with a minimum of $200,000 insurance. The promoters anticipate no difficulty whatever in securing that amount of business. In fact, they confidently expect to have fully 1000 policy holders with an aggregate of nearly a million dollars insurance.

RELIEF FROM HOLD-UP.

Property owners, who have been complaining because of the burden of what they call unjust and exorbitant insurance charges welcome the new company as affording a safe and effective means of relief. In the East, where the regular insurance rates are much lower than in the West coöperative insurance companies similar to the Merchants' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Southern California have been able to save their policy owners 20 to 40 per cent. and it seems practically certain that the saving of the owners of realty in Southern California will be even greater.

The reserve fund, or bond issue, will be $50,000 at the beginning, but later, when the business of the company assumes the proportions which the promoters expect, the reserve will be increased. The reserve fund will no doubt be fully subscribed within the next few weeks.

ATTACKS WOMAN, MOB PURSUES.

Henry Hogan Makes Vicious Assault in North Main Street Resort and Is Arrested.

With a mob at his heels Henry Hogan fled from a North Main-street resort whose watchman had broken in a door and prevented him from killing Rose Schiller last night. Hogan was booked on suspicion pending investigation as to the extent of the woman's injuries. She was given surgical treatment in the Receiving Hospital.

Hogan had entered the woman's room in the Ione and had made a vicious assault upon her. The cries of the victim brought the watchman of the place to the door, which was locked. When entrance was forced Hogan broke through the men in the hallway, waving a bloody knife. He ran up New High street.

At Ord street a special officer saw the mob and the fleeing man. He captured Hogan, who made little resistance, and took him to the Central Station. The Schiller woman sustained ugly bruises and a few minor lacerations.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Civic Body Appoints a Committee on Military Affairs and Fortifications. Minor News.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directorate, yesterday, a committee on military affairs and fortifications was appointed. The members are John H. Norton, Gen. H. G. Otis, Gen. Robert Wankowski, Randolph Miner, Oscar Lawler and W. O. Welsh.

The Chamber has decided to participate in the Fiesta's floral parade. The Annual of the organization will be gotten out immediately. New members chosen yesterday are the Eagle Livery Company, the Electric Water Heater Company, Hugo Schmidt and E. P. Weber.

The proposed steamer line between San Pedro and Honolulu and Hilo was discussed, and will be taken up in extended fashion at once.

Miss Jessie Hartwell, who has been for five years in the secretary's office of the Chamber of Commerce, has resigned, to accept an important position in the District Attorney's office.

JAPANESE STRIKE.

Forty Street Railway Laborers Quit Work When Two of Their Number Are Discharged.

Forty Japanese working for the Los Angeles Inter-Urban Railway Company struck yesterday because two of their number were discharged. The crew was surfacing the Temple-street line in advance of the paving, and when the foreman, under direction of Superintendent James McCabe, dismissed a few of them at noon for being inefficient, they all quit work.

The superintendent stated last evening that they will probably return to work today and all would be reinstated, except those who were discharged. The company will not be dictated to in such matters.

"They Japs," said McCabe, "have many good points, but are a little peculiar, and tact is required in handling them. Often they will stop work, and when some matter is explained to them they will at once pick up their tools and go ahead."

The work on Temple street has been delayed on account of the rains, but is now being pushed ahead. The task is finished as far west as Workman street.

TRAINED "OWL" NEARLY LOST.

HELD UP IN DESERT ALMOST TEN LONG HOURS.

Another Landslide in the Tehachepi Mountains Blocks Valley Line of Espee for a Time—Work Progressing on Installing Block Signal System Near Colton.

When the "Owl" failed to arrive on time in Los Angeles yesterday morning there was some speculation among railroad men as to what had become of this popular train, but no word was received. The "Owl" was apparently lost.

There was no intimation of an accident and those who waited at the Arcade depot to welcome friends were wondering what had happened. But trains of all kinds—with wings or without—have got into a habit of being late this winter and so nobody worried.

Last evening about 6 o'clock the "Owl" arrived. Being a night bird its one big eye was blinking after its run across the desert in the glare of sunshine, but it arrived in safety without a scratch. One of those usual Tehachepi landslides had held it up.

Washouts and landslides have been a matter of course on both the Valley and Coast lines of the Southern Pacific this winter and the Coast line is still closed. It was announced yesterday that this line would not be open before some time next week. Only one train a day is being run to Santa Barbara, the 8:30 a.m. train.

Last night the "Owl" went out late, but it was reported that the track was now clear and that there was no trouble in getting through to the North. The 11:30 also went out and on time. All the roads are having more or less trouble in making up their trains for lack of an adequate supply of Pullman sleepers.

INSTALL BLOCK SYSTEM.

Following out its policy of installing the block signal system over its lines as fast as possible the Southern Pacific is again at work on the Colton division putting in the apparatus which was ordered over three months ago, much of which has just arrived from the East.

At present the block system extends to Palm Springs near Indio, and with the installation of the present apparatus on hand it will connect with the system at that town and Bloomington, this side of Colton. With this division in working order it will only need new apparatus to close the gap with Los Angeles and this will be done later.

Not only are gangs of men at work on the Colton division, where the bases for the automatic signal system have been laid for about six weeks, but an arrangement made two weeks ago for an "engine herder" has been carried out in the Colton yards, where the recent fatal accident took place, and this extra man, whose duty will be to keep switches closed and "herd" or throw switches for yard engines, went to work yesterday.

STATEMENT.

With Regard to the Home Telephone Franchise Deal in San Francisco.

Local capitalists interested in the Home Telephone Company of San Francisco send The Times the following statement:

Statement concerning Home Telephone franchise in San Francisco: Cash paid for franchise to the city of San Francisco $100,000. The requirement was that the price be paid in gold and this being impossible right after the fire, $25,000 was paid to the Supervisors and $75,000 was given by certified check to the city relief fund.

Under the provision of the franchise the city acquires the use free of charge of 600 telephones, estimated value to the city, $8 per month each, or $4800 per month, $57,600 per year, or 5 per cent. interest on nearly $1,200,000.

The telephone company under the Broughton act is required to pay 2 per cent. of the gross receipts after five years to the city granting the franchise.

The gross receipts after five years are estimated to be the proceeds of 50,000 telephones paying an average of $6 per telephone per month. This would amount to $300,000 per month, or $3,600,000 per year, 2 per cent. of which would total not less than $72,000 per annum to the city. This capitalized at 5 per cent. means annual interest on approximately $1,450,000.

And in addition to the foregoing the city acquires the free use of two ducts in the underground system throughout the city for its fire alarm, telegraph and general municipal wires, which will increase the cost of the underground plant to the telephone company by a sum equal to not less than $100,000. It has been stated by one familiar with franchises granted by municipalities that the actual consideration paid for the telephone franchise in San Francisco is the highest ever paid by any corporation for any purpose in any city in the world. And no one will gainsay the fact that it took untold courage for men to go into San Francisco a few days after the disaster and invest good money with so uncertain a future.

The first cruiser squadron under the command of Rear-Admiral Neville sailed from Plymouth, England, for the West Indies yesterday on its way to Hampton Roads, where the British warships will participate in the international review in honor of the Jamestown Exposition.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The last remaining fang of the billboard ordinance was extracted yesterday by the Council.

The City Attorney presented an ordinance yesterday prohibiting boxing exhibitions where a referee is employed or where gloves lighter than eight ounces are used. It failed to find favor with the Council.

The Health Board revoked G. S. Gillman's milk permit yesterday; he was charged by the health inspectors with maintaining an unsanitary dairy farm.

George Dotter, testifying in the Dotter will contest in the Superior Court, yesterday, admitted that he borrowed money on stock which he held in trust. Mrs. Lottie Barre, while on the stand in the afternoon, succeeded in arousing her sister, Idella, to a display of anger.

A complaint was filed yesterday in the Superior Court by Mrs. Amelia Ammon, the second living wife of Herman Ammon, asking annulment of marriage.

Former directors of the People's Gas and Coke Company—Lowe concern—were found guilty in the Police Court yesterday of having failed to comply with the law which requires the filing of the annual report of receipts and expenditures. Sentence will be passed tomorrow.

AT THE CITY HALL.

BILL BOARD LAW NOW HARMLESS.

LAST FANG IS EXTRACTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL.

Modification Repeals Clause Requiring Property Owners to Be Notified When Application Is Made. Wallace Champions Cause of the Suburbanites—Mayor Is Coy.

Mr. Suburbanite received his customary package yesterday from the Council. This time it came in the form of a modification of the billboard ordinance removing the last vestige of protection for the citizens in the residence districts.

Councilman Yonkin, representative of the ward having the greatest suburban population, and the one most accursed by the billboard nuisance, led the onslaught on the present ordinance. He said that the law as published is not the same as the law passed three weeks ago by the Council.

The original billboard ordinance provided that before a sign may be placed outside the fire limits application must be made to the Police Commission for a license, and his application must contain the signatures of owners of a majority of the property frontage in the block. Then the commission may grant or deny the application.

Such was the ordinance proposed by the Civic League. When the Council was through with it the clause about the property frontage was eliminated. In its place appeared one requiring that notice must be given property owners in a block when a license application is made.

This clause was the subject of yesterday's attack. Yonkin said he is certain that it did not appear in the ordinance passed by the Council.

City Attorney Hefitt took indignant exception. Mr. Hewitt wrote the modifications of the ordinance on the day it was passed. He resented the imputation that he wrote into it something not proposed by the Council.

Wallace made a strong but ineffectual appeal in behalf of the residence districts: "I cannot assert of my own knowledge that this clause was in the ordinance we passed," he said, "but I can assure you that it is a very wise provision and that it should be there.

"The citizens of the residence district have a right to some protection at the hands of this Council. This clause does not require applicants to secure the majority of the frontage; they are not compelled to secure a single signature, but it does provide that they shall be notified so that their protests may reach the Police Commission before it is everlastingly too late.

"If we cut out that provision a billboard may be placed on any street without giving the property owners an opportunity to protest. I regard it as a most important safeguard to the interests of the people, one that we cannot afford to cast away."

Clampitt and Blanchard offered the excuse that the ordinance is unduly severe on the bill-posting companies. To this Wallace replied.

"If we had passed the ordinance as originally presented they might have cause for complaint, but this ordinance is very mild, much milder, I hope, than others that may come later. I do not desire to assume an attitude that may be interpreted as friendly to the bill-posting industry. I hope to see the time when there will not be an unsightly billboard in the whole city. I favor a policy of gradual exclusion and I think the companies should understand that this is our attitude.

"This amendment appears to lend aid and comfort to the bill-posting companies."

The only response accorded Mr. Wallace's effort was a call for the question. He had not been a part of the caucus at which the modification was agreed upon.

When the roll was called Wallace registered the only negative vote. Wren was not present. Dromgold and Pease voted complacently with the Republican majority.

When asked about this amendment last night, Mayor Harper assumed an attitude of extreme reticence. When urged by a Councilman to sign the ordinance he asked what has become of his recommendation for the creation of the office of billboard inspector.

In his conferences with the members of the Council the Mayor is exhibiting traits of a skilled diplomat. There will be executive conferences between the Mayor and at least six Councilmen before he acts on the latest modification of the billboard ordinance.

City Attorney Hewitt said last night that the ordinance still contains a clause requiring a license from the Police Commission before certain kinds of advertising can be placed on billboards in the residence districts. But the property owner is not considered. The commission may grant the license the first day it is applied for, and the property owner will know nothing of it until the license is in effect. Then the Police Board itself cannot revoke it except for some specific violation of the law.

ANTI-PUG LAW.

CITY ATTORNEY ACTS.

City Attorney Hewitt has opened a campaign against prize fighting as it is conducted in Los Angeles. Yesterday he presented to the Council an ordinance prohibiting "boxing exhibitions" where a referee is employed or where gloves lighter than eight ounces are used.

Councilman Healy was warned that it was coming. He stood during the entire reading in order that his motion might be made first. It was brief and characteristic.

"Mr. President, I move that the communication be filed."

Lyon was more diplomatic. His tutelage is taking effect. His modification was that the ordinance should be referred to the committee of the whole. And to this committee it went without further comment.

Not one voice was raised in favor of the ordinance. Its fate is not difficult to predict.

A statute of this State purports to prohibit prize fighting, making it a felony punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. But it also contains a provision purporting to sanction sparring exhibitions, so-called, where conducted under certain restrictions mentioned in the statute, and it is notorious that prize fighting is carried on in Los Angeles and other places in California under the guise of sparring exhibitions. This provision was evidently intended by the framers of the statute to tie the hands of the municipalities of the State, so as to prevent any interference with prize fighting.

The city of Los Angeles has, by virtue of constitution and its freeholders' charter, plenary police powers, including, as I believe, the power to regulate or prohibit public sparring exhibitions, and, in my judgment, it is not competent for the Legislature to suspend or abrogate this power by any pretended legalization of such exhibitions.

In view of the fact that Los Angeles is becoming a favorite resort for prize fighters from every quarter of the country, and that their avocation is a menace to the well-being of the city, I would recommend that the Council adopt an ordinance making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, for any one to conduct, participate in, or attend any public sparring exhibition. It is to be anticipated that the question will be raised whether such an ordinance is valid, but I do not think that the Supreme Court of the State will ever declare that the Legislature has power to force upon this city, or any other city having a "freeholders' charter, the necessity of tolerating prize fighting or sparring exhibitions, which are so repugnant to the moral sense of the community. I therefore submit draft of ordinance prohibiting such sparring exhibitions and recommend its adoption.

"The ordinance is one that was prepared by Mr. Mathews while he was in office," said Mr. Hewitt last night, "and overlooked in the bustle of the closing days of the old Council. The regulation barring referees is one that has proved very effective in eastern cities. I think it would be held valid by the California courts.

"I presented the ordinance on my own initiative as I think it is necessary to protect and preserve the fair name of our city."

Members of the Police Commission raised their voices in startled protest when told that they are charged with urging the City Attorney to act. They admit freely that their action a week ago in asking for a fire inspection of the boxing pavilion at Naud's Junction was intended to admonish the promoters, but not to queer the sport.

Metropolitan Wins.

The Council declined to accept the recommendation of the Fire Board yesterday on the purchase of engines for the fire department. The Fire Board recommended one Nott engine and one Metropolitan, but the Council decided on two engines of the Metropolitan type.

Pool Selling Barred.

The Ascot Park betting ring is now only a nightmare; yesterday the Council passed an ordinance prohibiting bookmaking or pool selling inside the city limits. The former Council passed a special ordinance permitting bookmaking at Ascot during the winter race meet. The meet is ended and the pool selling privilege is ended as well.

Loses Milk Permit.

Charged by the milk inspectors with maintaining an unsanitary dairy, G. S. Gillman lost his permit yesterday for selling milk in Los Angeles. Gillman conducts the old Hunter Dairy near Elysian Park. He appeared before the Health Board and made a doleful plea for mercy, and the board instructed the health officer to renew his permit as soon as the dairy is in sanitary condition. Two women who keep but a single cow each have been cited to appear before the board at its next meeting and tell why they cannot keep the cow yard and barn in a sanitary condition.

Mediums Must Pay.

Mediums, slate writers and diviners generally, must henceforth contribute a portion of their loot to the city treasury. An ordinance passed the Council yesterday requiring them to pay a monthly license of $50 each. Councilman Yonkin wanted the license made $100 a month.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

"IT'S A LIE," SHE WHISPERS.

FIERCE DENIAL OF TESTIMONY IN DOTTER WILL CASE.

Miss Idella Makes First Display of Emotion, While Her Sister Is Testifying—Brother on Stand Explains Various Financial Transactions—Domestic Incidents.

George Dotter was placed on the witness stand in the Dotter will contest yesterday in the Superior Court, and asked to tell just what he had done with the stock and money belonging to his father's estate, which his mother had placed in his hands. Sixty shares of the furniture store stock had been given to him, and forty shares placed in his hands as trustee.

"What reason did you give your mother to induce her to give it to you?" was asked. "Did you tell her you had to have stock in order to hold your position in the store?"

The witness considered a moment, and then answered: "I don't remember."

"Did you borrow any money on the stock you held in trust."

"I think I did. I borrowed first on my own stock, and then added the other."

The witness could not remember whether he had told his sisters of this transaction. He could not remember what the money was borrowed for, specifically, as it had been secured from time to time, in small sums, to meet various expenses.

In regard to his having bought California Furniture Company stock with money held as trustee, he admitted having had a controversy with his sister Lottie, but claimed he had consulted her, though not his other sisters, before buying the stock.

"What part of the $10,000 you invested in the mines belonged to your mother's part of the estate?" asked Attorney Works.

"I don't know," answered the witness. "Whatever I used was protected by property of my own."

The witness stated that he is at present owner of 37 shares of the furniture stock, and has checks to show for every transaction in his private business and as trustee. He was asked to bring all checks and accounts to court.

George Dotter, questioned more searchingly than any other witness in the remarkable action on trial, seemed more comfortable than any one who has preceded him on the stand. He appeared to have nothing to say except in direct response to the questions asked and in this respect he proved a most unusual witness.

A conveyance of personal property from Mrs. Elizabeth F. Dotter to Idella Dotter, dated March 3, 1905, was offered in evidence. The instrument conveys to Idella Dotter, in consideration of the sum of $10, one Stevens automobile, one Steinway piano, two violins, one set of dining-room furniture and other furniture, a quantity of china and porcelain and some paintings.

Lottie Barre was on the stand yesterday afternoon, and managed to relate several incidents in which her sister Idella had figured.

She told of a question arising as to whether Attorney Johnson should be employed in connection with the administration of her father's estate. The consultation took place in the kitchen of the house where Mrs. Dotter was confined, a hopeless invalid, while the question of her property developed into a cause of dissension and bitterness between her children. Taking part in the kitchen discussion that day were Milton Carlson and his wife, Cornelia, Lottie Barre and Idella Dotter. The last named finally was sent to ask the opinion of Mrs. Dotter.

"She did not come back," testified Mrs. Barre, "and after a long wait we all went into the room. Ida sat by mother's bed, talking to her, and both seemed nervous and excited. Ida was angry at us, and said we should not interfere with those matters and excite mother."

This witness testified that Idella had strenuously objected to a place being made for George Dotter at the Highland Park place, after Mrs. Dotter and the two daughters who then remained unmarried had moved there. "George can take care of himself," Idella was quoted as saying. However, after a room had been added to the house for the especial benefit of George Dotter, and he had gone there to live, it was stated that he and his sister Idella formed a habit of planning together.

"At the Highland Park place," Mrs. Barre went on, "before I was married, Ida used to talk to me about Corney and her husband. She said they were trying to run things and get hold of everything."

At this point in the testimony Idella Dotter leaned toward one of her attorneys and whispered fiercely: "It's a lie." This was the first outward flash of emotion she has shown, though evidences of emotion suppressed have been plenty throughout the six days of the trial, in a certain rigidity of pose, an intentness of gaze, and a somber resentment which burns in her large, dark eyes. She has seemed to be waiting, all her feelings consciously under control, for the others to come and go, to make their little speeches on the witness stand, and for her own time to come.

SECOND WIFE'S TURN.

AMMON AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Wife No. 2 of Herman Ammon yesterday filed a complaint in the office of the County Clerk for annulment of marriage. A charge of bigamy, placed against Ammon by wife No. 1, was dismissed Tuesday by Judge Chambers, in the Police Court, on the man's statement that he thought his first wife dead when he married the second.

The complaint filed yesterday for trial in the Superior Court states that the plaintiff, Amelia Lamping Ammon, was married to Herman Ammon in Douglas, Ariz., September 5, 1906, after being told by him and by each of his three children that the first Mrs. Ammon was dead. Mrs. Amelia Ammon came to Los Angeles last October, to her family here, and soon afterward discovered that the other Mrs. Ammon was still alive.

SUES REAL ESTATE MAN.

CLAIMS INJURY BY AUTO.

Mrs. Addie E. Fenn, in a complaint for personal injury damages against Ion L. Clark, which was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday, states that her husband deserted her two years ago, and that since that time she has been the sole support of an aged father. December 24, 1906, according to the complaint, her ability to work was destroyed by the carelessness of Mr. Clark.

On that date, as stated in the complaint, Mrs. Fenn was crossing Main street at Sixth. It was 6 o'clock in the evening and growing dark. Without warning, it is alleged, an automobile struck her down, inflicting serious injuries.

Earl Rogers is attorney for the plaintiff.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELANEOUS.

DAMAGE SUIT FOR CRUSHED JAW. The suit brought by Allen Cragg, colored, against the Los Angeles Trust Company for $2187 damages was on trial yesterday in the Superior Court. The taking of testimony was completed, and argument will be heard this morning. Cragg, with a bandage about his head to hold the injured jaw in place, told of carrying a garbage can into the elevator in the Trust building, in the ordinary course of his duty, December 26, 1906, and of leaning over to set the can down. The elevator boy was absent from the car. Cragg stated that he felt the elevator move downward, and the next he knew he was coming to painful consciousness with his jaw badly fractured and lying in a pool of his own blood.

PEDDLER SENTENCED. Francis Loeb, who confessed to stealing a purse from the home of Mrs. Helen Rosenberg, at No. 1264½ East Twenty-fourth street, on March 16, yesterday was sentenced to two years at San Quentin by Judge Smith. The purse contained 15 cents. It was thrown away by Loeb as Mrs. Rosenberg pursued him down the street. On the porch of the Rosenberg home Loeb had left a pack of tennis shoes which he had been peddling. He claimed that he had gone through the house looking for someone who might buy shoes, had seen the purse lying on a chair in Mrs. Rosenberg's room, and had taken it on the spur of the moment. Judge Smith did not believe his story. Mrs. Rosenberg, in court yesterday, proudly recounted her pursuit of the burglar. She said the purse had been taken from a bureau drawer.

TO TEST LEGALITY OF FEE. A complaint was filed yesterday for trial in the Superior Court to compel Judge Stephens to issue judgments in default cases without the extra fee of $2 which, on Tuesday, he demanded of Attorney Roser.

RAILWAY SUIT. In a complaint filed yesterday in the office of the County Clerk, William McBean asks $20,000 damages from the Los Angeles Railway Company for injuries alleged to have been received through the carelessness of the company's servants in starting a car suddenly while he was alighting at Ascot Park. The accident occurred on December 15, 1906.

AWAITS COMPLAINT. The unusual action of a Coroner's jury in finding E. C. Stein, criminally responsible for the death of John B. Goyard, who was run down by an automobile driven by Stein, has been discredited by the District Attorney. "I have examined the evidence presented to the Coroner's jury," said Capt. Fredericks yesterday, "and I can find nothing to base a criminal action upon. Unless someone applies for a complaint I cannot issue any."

VALUABLE LEASEHOLD. A suit for possession of the lease of a part of the building at the southwest corner of Third and Spring streets was on trial yesterday in the Superior Court. The action is brought by the United Merchants' Realty and Improvement Company of New York against H. F. Gardener, proprietor of a book store, who occupies the premises in dispute. Gardener claims to have secured a continuation of his lease through the firm of R. A. Rowan & Co. Testimony was taken to show that he had not executed the required bond, and the claim is made that he has no valid claim to the lease. C. C. Desmond, haberdasher, Matt Everhardy, proprietor of the Palace Market, seek control of the premises.

DIVORCES GRANTED. Interlocutory decrees of divorce were granted yesterday in the Superior Court to P. M. Bragunier against Florence Bragunier, three minor children being left with the mother until further order of the court; and to Jewell Mullins against John Eberly Mullins, the custody of two minor children being given to the mother. The grounds in both cases were desertion.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Eagle Engraving and Stationery Company, capital stock $10,000, with $5 paid up; John H. Carruthers & Son, realty and development, Lordsburg, capital stock $75,000, with $300 paid up.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

GASSY COMPANY IS GUILTY.

Former Directors Will Be Sentenced in Police Court Tomorrow for Not Having Filed Report of Receipts and Expenditures—Ludwig Is Fined for Cruelty to Horse.

Representatives of the People's Gas and Coke Company appeared in the Justice Court yesterday and acknowledged that the concern was guilty of an offense charged against it. Sentence will be passed tomorrow by Justice Fredericksen.

A complaint was issued Tuesday at the instance of George Weeks of the City Clerk's office, charging the People's Gas and Coke Company with failing to file its annual report of receipts and expenditures. The defendants are C. A. Carter, T. S. C. Lowe, J. E. Simpson, H. M. Barstow, C. L. Thompson and S. Weatherbolt. All were in court yesterday except Carter and Thompson. These gentlemen comprised the board of directors during January, when the annual report should have been filed, but since then a new board has been elected.

Attorney Goodwin told the court that the company had so much business to attend to that it just forgot to comply with the law.

Attorney Barstow then said that while the company pleaded guilty, it was merely to a technical violation of the law.

Shouter Fined.

C. J. Murphy, an ex-policeman, in Justice Fredericksen's court yesterday, defended Pat Dolan, who was charged with shouting his wares Tuesday night at First and Los Angeles streets. Dolan worked for Murphy, who runs some kind of a restaurant wagon, wherein Murphy, or his cook, prepares "boneless fish." On Tuesday night it is said that Dolan was drunk and yelled his wares near the fish wagon to attract customers. Murphy proudly declared that Mayor Harper and others had eaten his "boneless" fish, and created some merriment in court by his really good defense of Dolan. The talk was to good purpose, for Dolan was fined only $1.

Held for Shooting.

A. H. Hill, who shot a hack driver in the neck at First and Main streets, on February 27, was held to answer for assault with a deadly weapon by Justice Fredericksen yesterday, with bail fixed at $1500. On the night in question Hill wanted to go from First and Main streets to a house near First and Figueroa streets, and a cigar store clerk called a hack for him. The hackman, R. W. King, wanted to charge $1.50 for the trip and this Hill refused to pay. When he started to walk away from the hack King grabbed him, and in the scuffle that ensued Hill pulled a pistol and, it is said, shot King in the neck.

Cruelty to Horse.

B. Mathews of the firm of Ludwig & Mathews was fined $20 yesterday in the Police Court for allowing a horse to be driven that was not fit to be worked.

Two Punishments.

Having one's hand cut off by a street car does not absolve a man from a grand larceny charge, as was shown yesterday when Frank McCloud was bound over to the Superior Court. On Tuesday McCloud wanted to pawn his watch for $2.50, and when an acquaintance offered a $10 piece, expecting change, McCloud grabbed the money, it is said, and started to run. A policeman caught him. Later McCloud tried to escape by jumping on a Pasadena car at Aliso and Alameda streets. He fell under the car and his right hand was cut off. He was carried into court yesterday in a chair, accompanied by Police Surgeon Quint.

Boaster in Jail.

If he had not bragged, José Romeo would not now be in jail under $1500 bonds for robbery. Then days ago, it is charged, he picked a drunken man's pocket of $180 and then boasted of it. His arrest followed.

The Guaranteed Purity of Mennen's Borated Talcum Toilet Powder

Facsimile of Box.
Under the new pure drugs law the Mennen Company guarantees every box of Mennen's Toilet Powder supplied to the trade, and each box bears the government serial number 1542, guaranteeing that Mennen's Toilet Powder is made and sold in conformity with the terms of the new law.
Doubtless there will still be offered substitutes and imitations described as being "as good as Mennen's." But no one need be deceived by this flimsy excuse for counterfeiting a valuable article. Anyone who has used Mennen's knows that it is absolutely inimitable. There is nothing like it; nothing just as good.
To protect purchasers to the utmost, Mennen's Powder is now put up in the "box that lox," a box which cannot be refilled with an inferior substitute. Insist on having Mennen's and only Mennen's as the only protection against imitations and substitutes.
Have you tried Mennen's Violet Borated Talcum Toilet Powder? Ladies partial to violet perfume will find Mennen's Violet Talcum fragrant with the odor of fresh-plucked Parma violets. For sale everywhere for 25 cts. By mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Sample free.

GRANDMOTHER LENDS HELP.

Self-Sacrifice Aids the Bethlehem Fund.

Dr. Northrup Not Asked to Tender Resignation.

Anent the campaign of Dana W. Bartlett to raise $50,000 for Bethlehem Institution, during the month of April, Deaconess Bradley tells how self-sacrifice figures in some of the contributions.

A newsboy sought Mrs. Bradley yesterday and said to her:

"Grandmother wants to see you."

She went immediately to the humble cottage of the aged woman, whom she knows well, and found her ill. She is nearly 80 years of age, very poor, and feeble at best. Handing Mrs. Bradley a silver dollar, she said:

"I saved all the pennies to get this and give to Mr. Bartlett, and then fell sick and could not go to the church to give it. Bethlehem has done so much for me that I want to help."

The old Spanish lady is very proud of her newsboy grandson, who furnished the pennies that made up the dollar, for he is her sole support, and is a regular habitue of Bethlehem Institution. Said Mrs. Bradley yesterday:

"The largest subscription yet received to the fund is $500, but that sum does not represent as much self-sacrifice and effort as this dollar from the hoarded pennies in the newsboy's pocket. I simply had to take the dollar, not only on account of the spirit of love and self-sacrifice it represented because both he and his grandmother would have been mortally offended if I had refused."

NOT ASKED TO RESIGN.

DR. NORTHROP CHOOSES TO GO.

There has been a slight misunderstanding concerning the contemplated resignation of Dr. Stephen A. Northrop as pastor of the First Baptist Church.

"A month or six weeks ago," said the deacon, "Dr. Northrop said to the church council, the name by which the official board is known, that it was his irrevocable decision to resign, but that he did not wish to leave them unless both he and they had an opportunity to meet the conditions—he with another pulpit and they with another pastor. He, however, stated that it must be not later than July 1, as that date rounded out the thirty years of his ministry, and he wished the change to take place at that time.

"Later on, the matter was discussed at a meeting of the church council, at which I was present, and a vote was taken on the question whether or not he should accept his resignation, according to his own offer. Seven members voted to accept and four voted against acceptance, but that he was never requested to resign will appear very clear, and the statement in that form was simply the result of a misapprehension as to how the question went into the council.

"Dr. Northrop has the earnest support of practically his whole congregation, though it is true that some of them have come to the conclusion that it does not suit the field, but yet are still warm personal friends. He will carry out his purpose to resign by July 1, and possibly sooner, and most of us will regret to see him go. He will probably go to a church in Chicago."

SIZE OF YOUR SOCK.

LUTHERAN GIRLS WOULD KNOW

A concert and social will be given at the First English Lutheran Church tomorrow evening, by the "A.F.C." Mission Band, the invitations to which have a small sock attached. Each person is expected to put into the sock as many pennies as the size of the sock he wears, and in return for his will receive refreshments and enjoy the concert.

The programme will open with a selection, by the Mandolin and Guitar Club of the Young Women's Christian Association. Other numbers will be a recitation by Miss Margaret Hinson, and another by a tiny tot, Elizabeth Neiman; there will be vocal solos by Misses Olive Neelander and little Annie Low. The programme will close with a hoop-drill by the young ladies of the Mission Band, in Grecian costume.

SMITH COMES BACK.

WILL BEGIN AT RIVERSIDE.

Evangelist Hugh B. Smith returned to his home in this city last night from a successful evangelistic campaign among the Methodists of St. Paul, Minn. Presiding Elder Stout said to the Pioneer Press, concerning his series of meetings:

"It has been the most successful revival ever held in St. Paul. There have been nearly 500 conversions, besides numerous renewals of faith."

An interviewer in the same paper says of Mr. Smith: "The first impression on meeting Mr. Smith is that he would be a mighty good friend. There is warmth and vigor in his handshake that shows there is a man behind it who is sincere. There is a smile in his eye and his face that is almost irresistible. He is bald up the middle of his head, giving his forehead an appearance of unusual height. He is smooth shaven, and the wrinkles from the sides of the eyes and around the mouth join the light of the eyes in one hearty welcome which sets the visitor immediately at his ease. Mr. Smith's smile isn't a fatherly one; he is hardly old enough for that paternal attitude. He doesn't look more than 33 or 35. Isn't that of a spiritual adviser. He wears the conventional white tie, it is true, but he looks as if he would be more willing to join a game of baseball than quote Scripture to you. His general attitude, the bearing, the smile, and the look in the eye, all bear out the promise of the sturdy handshake—he would be a mighty good friend."

Mr. Smith will begin a series of meetings at Riverside on next Sunday, to continue indefinitely.

LAWYERS TO TALK.

MRS. LAWRENCE'S PAPER.

Grove Walter and S. L. Todd, two young attorneys of this city, will be the attractions at the Salvation Army meeting in the Monarch Rink at Fourth and Hill streets tonight. They are both eloquent speakers, and will have their topic, "What Every Business Man Should Know." Mr. Todd is also a well-known vocalist.

GRANDMOTHER LENDS HELP.

Self-Sacrifice Aids the Bethlehem Fund.

Dr. Northrup Not Asked to Tender Resignation.

Amid the campaign of Dana W. Bartlett to raise $50,000 for Bethlehem Institution, during the month of April, Deaconess Bradley tells how self-sacrifice figures in some of the contributions.

A newsboy sought Mrs. Bradley yesterday and said to her:

"Grandmother wants to see you."

She went immediately to the humble cottage of the aged woman, whom she knows well, and found her ill. She is nearly 80 years of age, very poor, and feeble at best. Handing Mrs. Bradley a silver dollar, she said:

"I saved all the pennies to get this to give to Mr. Bartlett, and then fell sick and could not go to the church to give it. Bethlehem has done so much for me that I want to help."

The old Spanish lady is very proud of her newsboy grandson, who furnished the pennies that made up the dollar, for he is her sole support, and is a regular habitue of Bethlehem Institution. Said Mrs. Bradley yesterday:

"The largest subscription yet received to the fund is $500, but that sum does not represent as much self-sacrifice and effort as this dollar from the hoarded pennies in the newsboy's pocket. I simply had to take the dollar, not only on account of the spirit of love and self-sacrifice it represented but because both he and his grandmother would have been mortally offended if I had refused."

NOT ASKED TO RESIGN.

DR. NORTHROP CHOOSES TO GO.

There has been a slight misunderstanding concerning the contemplated resignation of Dr. Stephen A. Northrop as pastor of the First Baptist Church.

"A month or six weeks ago," said the deacon, "Dr. Northrop said to the church council, the name by which the official board is known, that it was his irrevocable decision to resign, but that he did not wish to leave them until both he and they had an opportunity to test the conditions—he with another pulpit and they with another pastor. He, however, stated that it must be not later than July 1, as that date rounded out the thirty years of his ministry, and he wished the change to take place at that time.

"Later on, the matter was discussed at a meeting of the church council, at which I was present, and a vote was taken on the question whether or not we should accept his resignation, according to his own offer. Seven members voted to accept and four voted against acceptance, but that he was never requested to resign will appear very clear, and the statement in that form was simply the result of a misapprehension as to how the question got into the council.

They are both elegant speakers, and will have their topic "What Every Business Man Should Know." Mr. Todd is also a well-known vocalist.

The Los Angeles W.C.T.U. will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Louise Lawrence will read a paper on "Christian Citizenship." The meetings are open to the public.

Mrs. Ruie D. Meeke, dramatic reader, impersonator and ventriloquist, will be chief entertainer at a social and dance of the Los Angeles Fellowship, to be given tomorrow night in Blanchard Hall. The entertainment is free to members, friends and strangers.

Dr. P. F. Bresee has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., to forward the union of the Nazarene and Pentecostal churches, which was set afoot in this city last year. The annual convention of the latter will be in session in Brooklyn next week.

The Sinai Jewish congregation will hold services marking the closing of Passover, in B. B. Hall, No. 521 West Pico street. Rabbi Isidore Myers will preach tonight on "Passover and Woman," and services will be held Friday morning and evening, and Saturday morning. The latter will be a memorial service.

The Charm of the Packard Piano

Lies not only in the rich, limpid, singing quality of its tone and the ease and elasticity of its action, but as well in the wonderful beauty of its case work and finish.

Structurally, the Packard Piano is one of the most notable of all high-grade instruments. Built like a watch, with the minutest detail most carefully worked out, of materials selected with the greatest care, it is, in design, workmanship, and, in fact, in every attribute which stands for quality and unimpeachable worth, one of the pianos of today.

Architecturally, the Packard Piano has few equals, no superiors. Quaintness of design, simplicity and correctness of finish make it an instrument distinctively attractive from the decorative and ornamental standpoint.

Pen Points

In order to make money, Nevada must first make good.

With the laundries shut down, perhaps San Francisco is just as well off without electric lights, anyway.

The spring crop of Republican Mayors throughout the country appears to be the greatest in many years.

According to Detective Burns, Mr. Detweiler, the Toledo telephone capitalist, only thinks he is in hiding.

The President never calls a man "a liar," but there is never any difficulty in knowing that's what he means.

The Socialist vote in Chicago at the late election was a good deal like the man who got on the water wagon. It fell off.

Let us not worry about the President. These things are merely to him what a spring tonic would be to another man.

The persistency with which these roadhouses are closed up is equaled only by the persistency with which they open again.

It is quite likely, too, that Abe Ruef's misery is accentuated by the fact that he is being tried in a Sunday school building.

San Diego certainly means business this time, as far as going ahead is concerned. It has even elected a Mayor called Forward.

After dragging "Doc" Haynes to San Francisco and looking him over, Heney says he doesn't believe the "Doc" knows anything.

We take pleasure in making note of the fact that the Governor of Nevada appears to have awakened to the fact that he holds the office.

Since debate at The Hague peace conference is to be limited, doubtless Mr. Bryan is satisfied that he is not to be a delegate, after all.

President Roosevelt's messages to Congress must suffer in interest when compared to those messages he has sent to people outside of Congress.

San Francisco has a chance to change her April luck by hurrying things along so that the kibosh on Abe Ruef can be made permanent.

Most of us will envy the mocking bird his disposition that makes it possible for him to feel like singing when he wakes up at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Ruef's lawyer, Ach, is described as having straight hair. But whether or not he is otherwise straight is open to doubt, owing to the reputation of his client.

Now that he is elected, Mr. Busse of Chicago will confer a favor on the rest of the country if he will let us know the correct pronunciation of his name.

It must be at least five weeks since Los Angeles has held an election. The next one will, therefore, come as a welcome relief to the accumulated monotony.

We are glad to note that Mr. Busse is a man of a good deal of flesh. He can stand to lose some during his term as Mayor of the most turbulent city in the world.

Chicago's Mayor-elect will have to remember that he must bear the heavy responsibility of having been vouched for by the President of the United States.

The country is surely entitled to a shiver when it realizes that there ever was the remotest possibility of James Hazen Hyde representing it as an Ambassador, even in France.

The Canadian Minister of Railways and Canals who resigned because it has been shown that he "took strange women to hotels," still has literature open to him as a career.

Mayor Dunne lays his defeat to the money power. He is doubtless correct. The money power consists of millionaires, all the way down to people who merely own a house and lot.

The City Attorney thinks the exhibitions at Naud Junction are real prize fights and not boxing contests. As a matter of fact, they are usually neither. They are just fakes.

If it shall happen that there shall be just one vote cast against the Owens River bonds, there are at least two men in this town who could scarcely hope to escape suspicion.

About the most difficult problem now before the public is to understand what a man means who says the tariff should be abolished in order that this country may become more prosperous.

THE BIG ISSUE.

In a statement on the question of railroad regulation from the President, published as an Associated Press dispatch from Washington on Tuesday, the gist of the whole matter is thus set out by the President:

Against this read the utterances of W. J. Bryan, made in a public speech no later than last week. In substance this Populist politician says that he believes firmly that the Federal government should own and operate the great trunk lines, and the States all the branch lines within the several States.

Here we have the line of cleavage in the popular mind on this subject. There is little room to doubt that this will be the main contention in the Presidential election next year. On one side or other of this controversy voters will find themselves obliged to range themselves. The issues are practically joined, the battle is already set in array, and we must all "fall in," get for the fray on whichever side of the line we think best.

Of Roosevelt's sincerity there is no question. His stand is firm and resolute. He knows no such thing as wavering. It has already cost him the loss of friends and political prestige to stand where he does. He takes his position after weighing well every fact at his command. He is influenced no whit, moved no hair's-breadth, by the consideration of getting more or fewer votes.

This cannot be said of Bryan. He is always ready to modify or abandon any statement of principle just as it seems to meet with more or less popular approval. He has changed his attitude on this very subject half a dozen times since his return from abroad, and never seems to remember today what he said last week.

Then the railroads are not the only corporate investments in the industrial systems which must stand or fall with the settlement one way or the other of the regulation, ownership and operation of the roads. Telegraph and telephone operation, steamship traffic, and coal mining, banking, power supply, all rest upon practically the same basis. The Bryan proposition is populism pure and simple. It leads straight and inevitably to State socialism. This is thoroughly understood by all intelligent Populists and Socialists. They will all line up on the Bryan side of this conflict in the Presidential election.

Again, it is not only the railroads which are vitally interested in the solution of this controversy. The people have ten times more interest in the matter than the railroad managers or the railroad owners. It is not a violent conclusion that the railroad men might array themselves on the Populist side of the battle. Many of the men who are engaged in selling railroad stocks might be led to conclude that government ownership would be the best thing for them.

The President stands for an efficient supervision of railroad management, by which the government will see to it that there shall be a square deal for all, for the poor as well as for the rich and for the rich as well as for the poor—favoritism to be eliminated and each shipper to have the same service for the same price. He would have government supervision also of the capitalization of the roads so that promoters shall not spend $20,000,000 on a property and then foist it on the public at $100,000,000.

The Bryan plan means the purchase of the railroads at 300 per cent. more than their value. It then means the management of the railroads by small-bore politicians, using the roads as a political asset, rather than by expert railroad men, managing the property for the benefit of the stockholders. It means the operating of the roads by employés who hold their places as payment for political services, and who will get their pay for the most inefficient service that will pass muster.

The Bryan plan means the duplication of San Francisco rottenness, robbery, and neglect of public interest, as compared with the almost perfect street railroad service enjoyed here in Los Angeles.

The opposition to the Owens River bonds will be much the same as the opposition of a feather to that crystal stream of glory when it starts plunging on its shining way across the landscape from the snow-crowned Sierras to the happy highways of the City of Delight.

After having ascertained that they didn't elect anybody to any of the offices, we think the Republicans of St. Louis were perfectly justified in acknowledging their defeat in the frank and generous manner indicated by the dispatches.

THE TEACHERS.

The question of taking steps to provide an increase in the salaries of the public school teachers of Los Angeles is up again. The fact that Mayor Harper has resolved to do something in that direction is noted with pleasure. The teachers and the friends of the teachers are feeling more hopeful. The Mayor is proving a vigorous man in office, and he can probably do more than any one else to improve the financial conditions of the pedagogues.

Nobody should be underpaid for his labor, and the teacher least of all. His work is wearing. It tests the vim of a man or a woman to teach in a public school, or in any other kind of a school, for that matter. It is a soul-trying, nerve-wracking business from beginning to end. To be a teacher requires the highest attributes of mind and heart, not to speak of a certain degree of physical endurance that is seldom taken into account by those who, without knowing, look upon the teacher's work as an easeful occupation.

Children are at once the most lovable and the most trying of God's creatures. It is well known that they exhaust the patience of even their own mothers and fathers, at times. How much more they must try the teacher who has not the tie of flesh and blood to make easier the task! Yet for hours almost every day the teacher must have the care of the little ones upon his or her conscience.

It is little that most of us know of what the teachers must endure. It is little we understand of the ordeals to which they are subjected. And yet how patient they are, and how much they render to humanity! The public is heavily in the debt of these untiring, gentle, wonder-working men and women who, day in and out, with ceaseless watchfulness and painstaking care, direct the children of the world on safe and sure pathways to knowledge and usefulness.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES.

In time, we will get a clear view of just what we have in our newly-acquired Philippine Archipelago. The islands were forced upon us rather than coveted. There has been at all times more or less misgiving among a large number of our people as to the wisdom of this acquisition and as to the desirability of retaining control over the islands.

It has been asserted that these possessions are undesirable, among other reasons because they have no large value for our purposes. This is undoubtedly an egregious error. An American who has spent a large part of his time in the Philippines since we acquired them and who has arrived in the United States within recent days has much to say concerning the value of the islands. In the estimation of this direct witness, the forests of the Philippines are their most valuable asset. Ever since Americans first became well acquainted with the Philippines, the intelligent and close observers who have returned from them have all borne strong testimony as to the extent and value of these forests. The woods are radically different from those found anywhere on the mainland of the United States. They are a tropical growth, of beautiful hard woods. Timber of this kind is most highly desirable in our industries. The building of railroad coaches and street cars is now calling for enormous supplies of hard woods. This demand will increase with extraordinary rapidity.

The United States has never acquired an inch of territory that a considerable minority of our people has not objected to. Jefferson had to fight his way through persistent opposition in making his bargain with the first Napoleon for the Louisiana Purchase. The know-alls of those remote days were positive that this vast territory would be a great burden upon our shoulders and result in no adequate benefit. We know better today. The admission of Texas was opposed by the wiseacres of that time, and after the war with Mexico the same considerable minority of Americans were in opposition to our coming into possession of what is now New Mexico, Arizona and California. When W. H. Seward proposed the purchase of Alaska, the opposition to that deal was intense.

The revised judgment of the nation in reference to the Philippine Islands will be exactly similar to the final judgment as to these other acquisitions. None of us now has any doubt about Jefferson's wisdom. We are all more than reconciled to our Pacific Coast possessions, even including Alaska. The riches coming from the Klondike mines and the fisheries of that Arctic region amount to as much some years as the original cost of the whole territory.

What we should do in the present instance is to comprehend fully a few facts and stop our dreaming. For better or worse, the Philippine Islands are under the flag. In spite of all cavils, the islands are vastly rich and will prove worth a thousand times more than they can possibly cost us. The islands being under the flag, we do not propose to permit any nation under any pretense to dispossess us without our own free will and consent. The American who knows least about the Philippine Islands and who is most violently opposed to our possession of them would be as quick to fight for their defense as any of us. These things being so, we are pursuing a blind and fatuous policy in leaving the islands unprotected against assault by a hostile power.

As to manning the fortifications, all the battalions of colored troops in the standing army are being sent to the Philippines. They make excellent soldiers, and more of them are to be had. As the Filipinos themselves become better acquainted with us, our intentions and form of government, they will make good soldiers themselves.

TWO STRENUOUS LIVES.

NO LET-UP IN INDUSTRIALS.

There is no chance of slackness in our industries during the current year. Every particle of information coming to hand from all parts of the country indicates as much. The Santa Fé Railway Company here in Los Angeles informs us that that company has recently placed orders for fifty-seven new locomotives for freight service. This is in addition to an order for twenty-five locomotives for passenger service recently placed at the East. The same company is driving a second tunnel through the Raton Mountains, which is to be 3000 feet long and calls for the expenditure of $500,000.

These items of news are referred to simply because they are of local origin and among the very latest announcements from the industrial world. They are of a piece with similar statements emanating from all sources in the country.

There is not in any important industry in the country any accumulation of raw material. On the contrary, every mill and factory is behind its orders. The bookings today furnish all the work these mills and factories can turn out during the next nine months.

There is a good deal of talk on the part of the railroads as to curtailing extension of lines. There may be more or less sincerity in these statements, but remember, they refer to the future, not to the present. When the railroads speak of curtailing their operations they do not mean today or tomorrow, nor the next six months. If this curtailment is to take place at all, it will be in extensions planned for next year, not any nearer period. The extensions of the present and of the whole coming summer are already provided for. The contracts for the most part have been let, the rails have been ordered.

The only influence that holds back industrial progress at all is the lack of money and men. A man who is running a grist mill on a stream is hardly in a way to complain of dull times, whether existing or threatened, when he is using every drop of water in the river and every millstone in his establishment. That is about the condition of things in the industrial world. Every enterprise is pressed to its utmost capacity. Every industrial head is extending his plant, operations and output with every additional dollar he can earn or borrow. With each new piece of machinery comes a demand for another man, woman or child to control the machine.

The conditions prevailing today will prevail during the next nine months, at least. Until orders stop at the factories and there begins to be a little accumulation of finished material of some kind somewhere in the country, the wheels will not stop going around.

AMATEUR WATER FINDERS.

Frank Olmsted, Joseph H. Call and Councilman Dromgold, the self-constituted auxiliary Water Board, presented the Big Rock Creek scheme to the Mayor and other city officials at a private conference in the Mayor's office on Tuesday night, and that will be about all of the wonderful discovery of the amateur water finders. They had no data of hydrographic observations of Big Rock Creek, no survey, no definite project to present. They thought they could build a dam 200 feet high in the cañon and store enough water to supply about 2000 inches for about a million dollars.

Mr. Olmsted is the engineer who volunteered a "report" on the Owens River project once upon a time. He opened proceedings in the conference by reading a voluminous manuscript criticism of the Los Angeles aqueduct and its engineers. Chief Engineer Mulholland confounded the critic with that gentleman's own report. It was cruel to resurrect that preposterous document, which had been buried and forgotten, but it settled Mr. Olmsted's effort to break into the aqueduct project, and incidentally put the fantastic Big Rock scheme down and out.

The Water Board, whose function is to provide the city with water and manage the waterworks, sees no necessity for "supplemental" projects pending the completion of the Owens River conduit, but if the Mayor and Council desire that schemes of that nature be investigated by competent persons, the board doubtless will cause a thorough hydrographic survey of Big Rock Creek to be made and report the result.

A comprehensive plan for bringing to the city a bountiful supply of water has been perfected by the body to whom the task was regularly and properly confided; that plan has been indorsed by the highest engineering authority in the United States in a report admitted to be conclusive; it has been approved by engineers, by the Board of Public Works, by the previous city government as a whole, by all the civic and commercial bodies, and by the citizens of Los Angeles. The Owens River project was adopted and ordered carried out by an overwhelming majority of voters at a bond election.

If the Water Board, the Board of Public Works and the engineers employed to plan and build an aqueduct are incompetent or unworthy of public confidence—if their work is to be reviewed and revamped by any Tom, Dick or Harry of a surveyor who may be induced to obtrude himself into the city's business—they are all misfits and should be discharged from the public service forthwith. If the judgment and professional skill of John R. Freeman, Frederick P. Stearns and James D. Schuyler are inferior to Mr. Olmsted's, why were they employed to examine and report on the Owens River project? Why was not the whole matter submitted to Mr. Olmsted for final decision?

Unless the Council is prepared to proclaim lack of confidence in the business capacity of the Water and Public Works Commissioners and the professional skill and judgment of William Mulholland, it is wasting time with the half-baked schemers and small-bore obstructionists who are seeking to entangle the city's water enterprise with foolish projects.

OBSERVATIONS ON THE SPOT.

The attempt of the artist who wheels the barrows of mortar onto the freight elevator to encroach upon the realms of the savant who hoes the slacked lime has given rise to another labor difficulty in San Francisco.

Not realizing the jealous boundaries of art, the foreman of construction on the new Chronicle Building set up a a couple of lowbrows to work on the mortar. They hoed up the lime, filled the barrows and then shoved them onto the freight elevators to be shunted up to the bricklayers.

They did not dream that they had done any wrong until the majestic tread of the walking delegate was heard and they guiltily looked from one to the other.

"W'at yez doin' wit' that mortar?" bellowed the walking delegate as the man with the hoe started to shove the barrow onto the "lift." "Takin' heem oopstairs,' answered the trembling wretch.

"Take no more," said the walking delegate, "The same man can't both hoe mortar and take it up in the elevators."

The voice of fate had spoken. The two artists are now like prima donnas in grand opera, performing alternately.

The elevator man stands around and watches while the man with the hoe stirs up the lime. The man with the hoe then stands spellbound while the aerial artist conveys the cow hair, lime and sand into the higher reaches of the building.

One of the new San Francisco buildings is plastered inside with cement. The owner—well, at least the man who is allowed by the unions to pay all the bills—came around the other day and was amazed and terrified to find the frowning figure of the walking delegate standing in one of the rooms glaring at the shamefaced slaves who were doing the work.

"Put on two coats of that there cement," observed His Majesty, severely. He addressed the workmen, completely ignoring the owner.

The plasterers gave the grand kow tow. The owner of the building ventured to pluck up his flagging courage at last and stammered weakly: "I—I don't want but one coat of cement put on."

The walking delegate turned on him a look that would sour milk and said thunderously: "You will put on two coats of cement, or the men come off the job."

"But one is enough," faltered the the owner.

"Youse fellows quit the job unless he puts on two coats," observed the walking delegate crushingly, as he stalked out.

Ahem—There will be two coats.

Although any one coming here from Los Angeles sees things like this as funny, San Francisco men fail to see the joke. Both are actual incidents taking place here within the past two days.

San Francisco, April 1.

THE MAKING OF A MAN.

Come, mother, get the baby out
And take him to the gym,
Where I may have a little bout
At fisticuffs with him.
I'll stand him on his pinky toes
And start him with a whack
Upon his stubby little nose,
And turn his blue eyes black—
For I've resolved that he shall be
As nervy as a Celt,
And so shall try the recipe
Of Mr. Roosevelt.

We'll give our baby boy
To Tommy and his robber band
To play with as a toy.
A game or two of snap the whip,
With baby as the snap,
Should start him better on life's trip
Than sitting on your lap.
And I will rear no mollycod
With a spine as limp as felt,
I vow I shall not spare the rod
And spoil a Roosevelt!

When Tommy and his pirate crew
Have trained him for a bit,
I have a scheme, 'twixt me and you,
I think will make a hit.
I'll make the children play San Juan,
With Spaniards for to kill,
And when they start their quest upon
Let baby be the hill.
When they've run up him once or twice
And mimic warfare smelt,
I think he'll prove a hero nice
Enough for Roosevelt.

Meanwhile, when he doth cry at night,
Don't pet him as of yore,
But with your stern, maternal right
Project him to the floor;
And should he wish a fairy tale,
Which foolishness doth teach,
Just seat him on some cold fence rail
And read him Teddy's speech.
If through all this the baby grows,
And saves his mortal pelt,
He'll be as great as—well, who knows?
As Mister Roosevelt.

SOME OLD MEN.

The oldest man in Philadelphia is Joseph L. Klein, who has just celebrated his one hundred and seventh birthday. He has five sons, twenty-four grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He is a native of Bohemia and a veteran of the Hungarian wars. He has been in this country since 1873.

Orasmus Page of Joliet, Ill., is 99 years old, and for fourteen years he has supplied his patrons with the early morning papers. His wife is 77 years old. They have been married sixty years and have five children, fourteen grand children and eight great grandchildren.

Thomas Ray of Blairsville, Pa., aged 90 years, has just enjoyed the privilege of reading his own obituary notice. While ill recently he lapsed into a comatose state, and supposing that dissolution was at hand his obituary was given to the newspapers. He revived however, and is so angry over the matter that he declares he will outlive the writer of the obituary.

MEN AND THINGS OVER THE SEA

The Kaiser's Status Fad.

The Kaiser has given 114 statues to the Tiergarten, and has reached the end of his line of ancestors, but being to keep up his custom of presenting to this city from twelve to fifteen monuments every year, Emperor William has decided that the next one is to be erected in the Berlin Zoo. It will be that of the Crown Prince and Princess in order, statues of his other children are also to be erected.

His recent gift to England of a statue of William III of Orange, who was for a time King of England in the seventeenth century, has been variously discussed and has called attention to the fact that William III of Orange was a confirmed enemy of England and remained such all through his life.

Municipal Undertaking.

Five years ago the Mayor of Vienna, Dr. Lueger, expressed himself in favor of the municipalization of all the undertakings of the ground that the best the municipality could do for the citizen who had paid rates all his life was to see that he was well buried.

Arrangements have been made by the municipality to take over the business and stock in trade of the large undertakers in Vienna, and the city authorities claim that the cost of municipal funerals will be less than the undertakers charged, while they claim that a profit will be realised which will go to the credit of the rates.

Troops Like Hot Tea.

Emperor William, at a recent dinner at the American Embassy, to which American military and naval attachés present, that the German army greatly appreciated the introduction into the German military equipment of huge tea Samovars, and that they preferred drinking hot tea to beer.

Objects to Aeronauts.

The government of Holland has become so wrought up by the recent landing in the Netherlands of aeronauts from Germany that it has passed a bill providing that future aërial landing in the country will have to pay a fine of £50 or go to prison for six months. It has been found that when the balloons have landed the occupants of the car have been officers of the Germany army, and their object in making these balloon trips into foreign territory very naturally is thought to be connected with spying out the country.

Voice Heard Two Miles.

Count Arco, in his wireless telephone experiments, has succeeded in transmitting distinct exchanges of words in a tolerably natural voice at a distance of two miles by using poles thirty feet high. Count Arco does not regard his discoveries as commercially practicable at present, though he hopes eventually to construct an apparatus which will take the place of wires in cities and perhaps in suburban districts.

A Dog Lover.

D. M. Delmas, the famous San Francisco lawyer, at a dinner in New York, in the course of a legal topic he disliked:

"You see, I have had so much to do with dogs. It is like the case of the old Frenchman who called at a house that was overrun with dogs.

"As soon as the old man entered the drawing-room the dogs enveloped him. They leaped on his lap, they licked his nose and lips, they muddied his white waistcoat.

"His manner showed that he was none too well pleased, and his host said reproachfully:

"'Ah, count, it is easy to see that you don't like dogs.'

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

"The Uessems"—this is the odd name of a pair of young German lads who do the most remarkable hand and head balancing act ever seen at the Orpheum. Whereas most gymnasts of this class make an awkward spread of legs and arms to maintain their equilibrium when they find themselves head downward, these two are as unconcerned as though standing on their feet. Their act is an acme of graceful muscularity, and must have required the whole of their young lives to attain.

Bert Howard, with Leona Bland, offers a musical act which has a certain promise of merit—a promise sadly unfulfilled. Mr. Howard indicates his musical powers briefly, and then turns to dreariness in ineffectual comedy. If he would adhere to his melodies the auditors would be truly thankful.

Findlay and Burke (Raymond and Lottie) are confessed purveyors of foolishness, and as they deliver the requisite goods of laughter, one can find no fault with the triviality of their wares.

Sharp Brothers, Hebrew duo in Ethiopian disguise, dance with true African abandon and sing with much less than Jewish ability.

Artist Bert Levy is the best of the remaining hold-overs. The Olivettis and Johnny Jones fill the rest of the bill.

Seventy-five members of the Gamut Club dined together in fraternal goodfellowship at the clubhouse last evening. President Harley Hamilton ruled the table, with Roy Chase as host. Contributors to the musical programme were M. Planel, John Douglas Walker, Henry Balfour, Joseph Dupuy, Charles A. Bowes and Frank H. Colby.

Mrs. Edith Rounds Smith, organist, gave a really unusual recital yesterday afternoon at Christ Church. At all times showing perfect control over her manuals and the many tone combinations possible on the instrument, Mrs. Smith surprised even the professional musicians present by the variety and color with which she characterised the diverse numbers of her extensive programme.

Mrs. Carolyn von Benson was the soloist, giving two numbers with much temperamental and artistic success.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Three Years Old.

"May the Cosmos Club grow in loving helpfulness for many and many a year, and on every year may we be able to carve the word, 'success,'" said Mrs. George W. Jordan, the president with gracious dignity as she greeted the club on the occasion of its third birthday anniversary.

Symphony Hall, the meeting place of the club, was garlanded in lacy smilax, the white pedestal in front of the stage being surmounted with the plumy foliage of the Cosmos and starred over with the delicate pink, white and purple flowers.

In prominent relief on the president's table was a splendid birthday cake with the two dates, 1904 and 1907, and three white tapers alight for the three years that have seen such marvelous development in numbers and scope in this club.

One large red candle also alight was something of a puzzle until the president explained that this candle was "to grow on." The final estate of this particular taper was to form a birthday gift for the husband of the president whose birthday fell upon the same date, but who was not invited to be present at this feminine function.

A potent charm of the afternoon that lingered long after its last liquid note had died away was the music supplied by Miss Louise N. Hill, a group of songs and ballads of England, Ireland and Scotland. Her bewitching presence in the costumes of the different countries was only second to her artistic presentation of the different dialect songs. As an old Scotch lady said to her, "Lassie, ye hae doon weel."

Election in the Cosmos Club will soon be held and great interest is felt in the slate that will be presented. Mrs. Jordan has served for only one year and the club is a unit in feeling that she should consent to fill the office again, for she has been a president of rare ability and her popularity is at high tide. Mrs. Jordan declared yesterday that she could not serve another term.

If she decides not to accept the nomination, her natural successor will be Mrs. R. P. Howell, a charter member and prominent worker in many club activities, ever since the beginning. There is a general sentiment that Mrs. Howell will be the next one unless Mrs. Jordan reconsiders her refusal to stand.

Ruskin Art.

Mmes. Brant and Chapman were in charge of the lesson at the Ruskin Art Club yesterday, when a specially charming morning was devoted to the art of Venice, Padua and Milan. That delightful interpreter of art, ancient and modern, Mrs. Eleanor Bingham, was the speaker. She not only gave much that is written in books of these old art centers, but added the personal touch of her own experience in recent travel.

Beginning with Padua, the oldest town in Italy, which she said had much to do with the culture of the country, she told of the pictures which, in the beginning were the books of the simple, and dwelt upon the wonderful frescoes of Giotto from which the people of Padua learned the story of the Virgin. Many of the old legends of art were recounted by Mrs. Bingham for "it matters not," she said, "if we believe these legends, if we only follow them in the spirit of love."

In speaking of Milan, Mrs. Bingham selected Leonardo da Vinci as the great interpreter of soul, possessing the intuitive divination of spirit. She described especially the original sketch from which he painted his matchless head of the Christ in "The Last Supper."

"Venice, Titian, color," were spoken in a breath, for though Venice lacked the intellectual quality of the Florentine painters, Mrs. Bingham described the Venetians as splendid colorists, appealing to all with the joyousness and buoyancy of their productions. In closing, the speaker related the exquisite legend of St. Christopher, pictured in the Doge's palace as carrying the Christ child across the water. She told of a quaint custom in Italy where even the Queen carries a copy of this picture when she starts for a journey on land or water as it is counted as a talisman against accident.

Next Wednesday, the Ruskin Art Club will have a special talk from Miss Dunlap on "Rome." The club is rejoicing in the possession of a valuable volume just added to the library, a set of autobiographical sketches of Vereschagin. The book is out of print now and very valuable.

Child-Study Circle.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

"The Uessems"—this is the odd name of a pair of young German lads who do the most remarkable hand and head balancing act ever seen at the Orpheum. Whereas most gymnasts of this class make an awkward spread of legs and arms to maintain their equilibrium when they find themselves head downward, these two are as unconcerned as though standing on their feet. Their act is an acme of graceful muscularity, and must have required the whole of their young lives to attain.

Bert Howard, with Leona Bland, offers a musical act which has a certain promise of merit—a promise sadly unfulfilled. Mr. Howard indicates his musical powers briefly, and then turns to dreariness in ineffectual comedy. If he would adhere to his melodies the auditors would be truly thankful.

Findlay and Burke (Raymond and Leslie) are confessed purveyors of foolishness, and as they deliver the requisite goods of laughter, one can find no fault with the triviality of their wares. Sharp Brothers, Hebrew duo in Ethiopian disguise, dance with true African abandon and sing with much less than Jewish ability.

May Tully continues to hold her listeners with her novel act.

Artist Bert Levy is the best of the remaining hold-overs. The Olivettis and Johnny Jones fill the rest of the bill.

Seventy-five members of the Gamut Club dined together in fraternal goodfellowship at the clubhouse last evening. President Harley Hamilton ruled the table, with Roy Chase as host. Contributors to the musical programme were M. Planel, John Douglas Walker, Henry Balfour, Joseph Dupuy, Charles A. Bowes and Frank H. Colby.

Mrs. Edith Rounds Smith, organist, gave a really unusual recital yesterday afternoon at Christ Church. At all times showing perfect control over her manuals and the many tone combinations possible on the instrument, Mrs. Smith surprised even the professional musicians present by the variety and color with which she characterized the diverse numbers of her extensive programme.

Mrs. Carolyn von Benson was the soloist, giving two numbers with much temperamental and artistic success.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Three Years Old.

"May the Cosmos Club grow in loving helpfulness for many and many a year, and on every year may we be able to carve the word, 'success,'" said Mrs. George W. Jurdan, the president with gracious dignity as she greeted the club on the occasion of its third birthday anniversary.

The Jefferson-street Child Study Circle held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, Mrs. George Wright conducted a round table, the mothers taking part in a discussion bearing upon the rearing of children. The circle voted $15 to help defray the expenses of entertaining the National Congress of Mothers here in May.

The teachers of the annex surprised the circle by inviting the members over to their building, which had been decorated with plants and beautiful flowers. Ice cream, candy and wafers were served, the hostesses being Miss Lang, the principal, and the teachers of the annex, Misses Miles, Dryden, Kelly and Post.

Butter Trust

Of all Trusts which have rendered themselves obnoxious, the Butter Trust is probably the worst.

This market is flooded with butter, more than can be taken care of, and yet by reason of the fact that prices are based by the Butter Board of Trade on what is claimed as local butter, said prices are arbitrarily held at prohibitive heights. As a matter of fact, there is very little butter produced in this immediate section. It practically all comes from the San Joaquin Valley, where milk is plentiful; and it is manifestly unfair to regulate prices on any such basis. By reason of contracts, we all have to buy on prices so established; so that today the price to us is 67½c a roll, when it should be much less.

We will do what we can, as we have done other years, to force an equitable price—so make our price on our Premium Butter 65c a roll, retail or jobbing.

New Medical Law Draws the Lines Closer.

State Examiners Appointed May First.

Los Angeles to Have Five of Eleven Members.

Los Angeles will undoubtedly be well represented on the new Board of Medical Examiners which will soon be appointed by the Governor under the provisions of the recently-enacted medical law of the State. The new law does not radically differ from the old one, but will enable the Board of Examiners to more effectively safeguard the public against quack doctors and pseudo healers. It is understood that the new board will make the examinations for licenses more rigid than in the past and that a close watch will be kept on conditions governing the practice of medicine in the State.

There are about seven hundred physicians in Los Angeles county, of whom about five hundred are of the "regular" school. The others are about equally divided, numerically, between the homeopaths, osteopaths and eclectic schools. These several schools will be represented, no doubt, on the new Board of Medical Examiners which will soon be appointed by the Governor under the new medical law of California, which will go into effect May 1. There will be eleven members on the board, and the Governor will appoint these from the lists of nominees presented by the several schools throughout the State. As Los Angeles county has a larger number of M. D.'s of all schools than any county in the State except San Francisco, it is expected, of course, to have the next largest representation on the Board of Examiners. There are in California, in round numbers, 4500 "regular" physicians, 900 homeopaths, 500 eclectics and 450 osteopaths.

On the Board of Examiners the "regulars" will have five members, the homeopaths two, the eclectics two and the osteopaths two. "We will have five-elevenths of the board, and the other schools, with a total of 2000 members combined, will have six-elevenths of the board," said Dr. George H. Kress yesterday, "but we are satisfied."

THIS CITY TO BE REPRESENTED.

As soon as the several schools make their nominations and forward their lists of names, the Governor will make the appointments. The regulars will submit ten names, from which list the five names will be chosen. The homeopaths, eclectics and osteopaths will each select four names, and from each of these two names will be selected, thus making the board of eleven members. Southern California will, no doubt, have two out of the five "regulars" on the board, and at least one of each of the other schools. These may be selected from this city. The members are elected for two years, and the board must organize "on or before the first Tuesday of May, 1907." A special meeting will soon afterwards be called, it is understood, in order to consider matters pertaining to the changes from the old law.

LICENSE TO PRACTICE.

In order to practice medicine or surgery, one must secure a license, and in order to get that must pass an examination by this board. He must know about the human system, its ailments, and enough of human anatomy to be able to saw off a leg properly or trepan a broken skull. Each must be well versed in his own school, and, as doctors sometimes disagree, it is provided that seven out of the eleven members shall constitute a majority.

Discriminating against any particular school is disclaimed, and each is given an equal chance at the public pulse. Even the so-called "faith curists" are recognized as legitimate practitioners, as the law provides that "nothing herein shall be held to apply to or to regulate any kind of treatment by prayer." Physicians, of course, do not recognize this kind of "practice." But there may be an antidote to this exception. The law provides that before one can practice he must pass an examination before the board. Also, that the applicant must have gone through medical training for a certain time at the colleges of these medical beliefs. If the faith curist fails to pass an examination, then he can only practice on the chance that no one will cause his arrest for violation of the law, which makes it a misdemeanor to practice without a license. It is thought by some that such a construction can be placed upon the law, as the Board of Examiners are the sole judges as to who is qualified, or, rather, as to the competence of the applicant under examination. This strict construction would make it hard for the "Holy Rollers," the "Holy Jumpers" and the side-steppers, who cry aloud against all medicines.

CHINESE CURE-ALLS EXCLUDED.

This law will also exclude Chinese "cure-alls," according to the belief of a "regular." "While the Chinese physician or herb giver does not belong to any particular school, so far as we know it is difficult to state where he does stand under the law," said the regular. "There is nothing in the law providing for information against such practitioners, and so long as such a person is not disturbed it is all right, perhaps. But the law says that in order to practice one must pass an examination before the board," said the physician with emphasis.

There are a number of Chinese doctors in the city, and fully a dozen of these are outside Chinatown. In their practice all schools are embraced. It is estimated that there are 3000 ailments to which the human system is subject, and the Chinese doctor has a remedy to fit each one, the most common being lizards, skins of snakes, powdered deer horn, and frogs boiled with herbs. Before the Chinese Esculapius could be examined it would first be required, perhaps, for the examining board to study up on the Chinese list of ingredients in order to learn whether his school is adaptable to the human system. The result may be that the Chinese will be limited in their "cure or kill" experiments to Chinatown.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS A POISON.

They Develop Nitric Acid from the Air Which Poisons the Stomach.

Electric lights and electric wires of all sorts poison the air, hurt your lungs and even eat out the lining of your stomach, according to the latest scientific investigations in Germany, Paris and London.

The Revue Scientifique (Paris, December 1.) in an abstract of this article, says that the workmen in the central power stations at Niagara suffer from peculiar forms of indisposition, such as serious troubles of the digestive organs, loss of appetite and heaviness of the stomach after eating, and that the attending physician, Dr. Millener, believes that these should be attributed to electric radiations emitted by the apparatus and conductors. The writer goes on:

"Apropos of this, a German medical journal explains that the troubles in question are due to poisoning of the staff by ozone. In fact, ozone, which is developed in quite large quantities by the numerous pieces of apparatus traversed by high-tension currents, forms with the atmospheric nitrogen, in the presence of water, nitric acid, which penetrates into the stomach with the saliva. Whoever has made experiments with high-tension currents remembers the acid taste that is perceived in the mouth whenever there is a considerable formation of ozone. Furthermore, ozone breathed in large quantities is very injurious to the organs of respiration; it excites the mucous secretions and provokes coughing; it destroys the tissues and causes pain in the throat and the bronchial tubes. The most effective remedy for this is to ventilate freely the places in which high-tension apparatus and conductors are located and to separate these places completely from the machinery room containing the workmen entrusted with its operation."

Montebello

Beautiful Half-Acre and Acre Lots $500 Up

Attractive Suburban Homes at.... Montebello and Its Townsite, Newmark

15 Minutes from Los Angeles

A Typical Los Angeles Business Man's Home at Montebello

Montebello is without question the most desirable suburban homesite.

Don't buy crowded city lots 30 minutes' to an hour's distance from downtown, when spacious lots at Montebello—15 minutes out—are available at a fifth the cost of even the average city lot.

Five trains each way to Montebello via the Salt Lake—no slow, crowded street car service that MUST be depended upon.

Montebello is one of the nearest and most picturesque suburbs of Los Angeles. Commands finer views of mountains and valley than Hollywood. NOT isolated—a thriving community offering unusual advantages to the business man. Pleasant suburban life with all conveniences; good schools.

Half-acre and acre lots, and a few 5-acre tracts in the original Montebello subdivision; big town lots at NEWMARK, the townsite. Prices include water connection, street graveling and grading, certificate of title, etc.

Sick and Helpless--Listen

Does every door to health seem closed and locked? Look around—maybe, you'll find an open window. Such ingress is called "irregular" by the dignified folk standing guard at the door and jangling the keys of medicine. But with a ladder you can reach health by the window route. The ladder is called Self-Healing, and it rests firmly on the solid earth—on Nature.

The severity of the tests lay in the fact that nearly all cases were pronounced "incurable" by eminent physicians before brought for the German Drugless Treatment. The following varied forms of disease are specially notable in the records: Dyspepsia, constipation, neurasthenia, epilepsy, inflammatory rheumatism, deafness, blindness, cancer of stomach, diabetes, dropsy, nicotine poisoning, chronic headache, fistula, carbuncles, obesity, throat, lung and skin troubles, general debility, premature old age, sexual derangements and specific disorders. A bird needs no college course, nor a flower theological training. If man realized his messages as clearly as bird and flower, most of our human pedagogues would be scattered to the winds, with the rest of the dust.

HERR SCHMIDT'S STRENGTH IN THE CYCLE WORLD.

Sells-Floto Show Claims to Have Many Exclusive Specialties—Acrobatic Work, Horseback Riding, Wonderful Evolutions in the Air, and Other Sights.

Herr Schmidt, the "modern Samson," with the Sells-Floto show, claims to be the strongest man in the world. He is almost perfection of physical strength. In one of his acts he holds high in the air the "cycle-whirl," while the rider goes at full speed.

The "Girl in Red" mysterious foreign arenic feature; Christopher Seitz, Europe's famous elephant trainer and the Sells-Floto herd of performing elephants, form other features of the show which comes to Los Angeles Monday, April 8, for three days at Praeger Park.

Some of the other specialties are: The Corriens, the famous family of equestrians, who claim to be the champion bareback riders of the world as a family; the Jeanesse Dorre troupe from the Royal Circus of Munich, appear in a beautiful fencing, dancing and musical transformation act, under the direction of Ottokar Bartik; Cecil Lowande appears in somersault, bareback riding, and other difficult and intricate exploits on the bare back of a swift running horse; Clemings and McAllister do wonderful exploits and evolutions on a skillfully balanced breakaway ladder; O'Dole makes thrilling aerial leaps and dives from the apex of a long and perpendicular ladder. He accomplishes backward, single, double and triple somersaults before reaching the ground. The Alpine family of English acrobates appear in a new novelty, "an aerial double wire act," cakewalks, high jumps, three high walks, flip-flaps—a new sensation on high wires. The Royal Japs feature in gymnastic dancing and acrobatic work. Groups and companies of acrobats perform daring acts.

The Ty-Ball Sisters, another European feature, perform astounding feats in midair, finishing their act with whirlwind cloud swings on suspending wires. Mlle. ARMOR PLATE VS. SHELLS.

THE DIFFICULTY OF MAKING IMPENETRABLE ARMOR.

Plates Must Resist Repeated Blows from Shells Without Even Developing a Crack—The Sharp Rivalry of the Gun Makers Nearly Won a Victory.

[Appleton's Magazine:] For half a century the rivalry between armor and shells has gone on, since the old British Warrior was belted with four and a half inches of plate secured to eighteen inches of teak. To this the gun maker responded with Palliser pointed chilled iron shot, which easily pierced this novel protection. In 1879 came the "compound" plate, with wrought-iron back and a separate hard-steel face welded together. This last broke up the Palliser projectiles on impact, while the wrought-iron backing lent roughness and support to the mass. The solid all-steel plate came next, but it was beaten in the race by a certain pointed shot made of nigh carbon forged steel, before whose impact even the all-steel plate gave way. Clearly there was a limit to the thickness of armor which a ship could carry.

When twenty-two inches was reached a halt was called. The gun makers had won, for even this was pierced by a shot from the 110-ton monster, firing a shell of 1813 pounds propelled by 960 pounds of powder. But though this gun vanquished, its first terrific roar proclaimed its own doom, and in spite of its enormous cost the monster was found to be practically dead, or at least dangerous to its friends, after eighty rounds had been fired.

The gun man had a chance once more, however, for in 1885 Lord Armstrong—of the famous British works in Newcastle, employing nearly 40,000 hands—decided to follow nature's method of growing onions, layer over layer, and clothe his gun tubes with skins of steel, which, shrinking as they cooled, imparted just that amount of tenacity whose absence had made the old monsters so dangerous.

Thus we arrive at the most terrific naval gun of today, the 12-inch rifle, [Appleton's Magazine:] For half a century the rivalry between armor and shells has gone on, since the old British Warrior was belted with four and a half inches of plate secured to eighteen inches of teak. To this the gun maker responded with Palliser pointed chilled iron shot, which easily pierced this novel protection. In 1879 came the "compound" plate, with wrought-iron back and a separate hard-steel face welded together. This last broke up the Palliser projectiles on impact, while the wrought-iron backing lent roughness and support to the mass. The solid all-steel plate came next, but it was beaten in the race by a certain pointed shot made of nigh carbon forged steel, before whose impact even the all-steel plate gave way. Clearly there was a limit to the thickness of armor which a ship could carry.

When twenty-two inches was reached a halt was called. The gun makers had won, for even this was pierced by a shot from the 110-ton monster, firing a shell of 1813 pounds propelled by 960 pounds of powder. But though this gun vanquished, its first terrific roar proclaimed its own doom, and in spite of its enormous cost the monster was found to be practically dead, or at least dangerous to its friends, after eighty rounds had been fired.

The gun man had a chance once more, however, for in 1885 Lord Armstrong—of the famous British works in Newcastle, employing nearly 40,000 hands—decided to follow nature's method of growing onions, layer over layer, and clothe his gun tubes with skins of steel, which, shrinking as they cooled, imparted just that amount of tenacity whose absence had made the old monsters so dangerous.

Thus we arrive at the most terrific naval gun of today, the 12-inch rifle, that it has become a science in itself. Incredible care is taken at every stage lest the delicate surface set up spontaneous disintegration through cold or sudden chill. Merely to produce the stuff means setting up a special plant valued at $2,000,000.

The work of melting the hundred-ton steel ingot at a temperature of 2500 degrees is a story in itself—a long and curious story until the plate emerges "glass-hard" and uncuttable as faceted diamond. Next comes the "ballistic test" laid down by the world's governments, whose duty is to see their people get the best possible value for the untold millions poured out in this scramble.

Each thickness of armor plate must resist a certain number of rounds of tensely hardened noses. There must be no perforation, and no portion of the projectile must fall behind the plates; nor must there be any serious cracking. The very best modern hard-faced armor for warships of today is made up to thirteen inches in thickness wound round with 113 miles of steel wire. This throws a 719-pound shell at the inconceivable speed of 1751 miles an hour. Against this terrific weapon the armor people brought the Cammell-Harvey plate of heated steel suddenly chilled with sprays of cold water.

The next stage of game shifts to Krupp's titanic works at Essen, in Prussia. Here we have the "Kingdom of the Cannon" presided over by a girl of 20, who is absolute mistress of 40,000 men, and a revenue of tens of millions a year. Bertha Krupp's vulcans produced a plate which made its Harvey forerunner little better than cheese cloth.

The material used is a multiple alloy of iron and other metals in fixed proportions. The making of these plates is a matter of such amazing delicacy

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

TUESDAY afternoon at an informal tea given by Miss Carrie Bogart, one of the attractive and popular younger society belles, announcement was made of the hostess' engagement to Rowe Sanderson.

The announcement comes as a surprise to the many friends of the young people. The wedding will be June 26.

Miss Bogart is a pretty girl with fluffy dark hair, and blue eyes, and a complexion of rose leaf texture. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Bogart of No. 1329 Westlake avenue, and has lived here nearly all her life. She has a wide circle of friends. She is a member of the Delta Iota Chi sorority, and is accomplished, being the possessor of a particularly sweet voice.

MISS CARRIE BOGART, popular society girl, whose engagement to Rowe Sanderson is announced today.

Mr. Sanderson comes of one of the pioneer families, being a grandson of the late L. J. Rose, whose vineyards at Sunny Slope were famous in the old days. Mr. Sanderson himself is a native son, a Berkeley man, and a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity at that college. He is in business.

Stantons' Dinner.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Douglas and their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Kingman Ellison, who leave on Monday for New York en route to Europe, Mr. and Mrs. C. Q. Stanton of No. 760 Whittier street entertained with a delightful dinner on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and their daughter will leave on Monday for New York and will sail on April 24 on the steamer La Provence.

The Stanton dinner table was decorated with Cherokee roses and their waxen foliage and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Douglas, Jr., Mrs. Rebecca Gay, Mrs. M. J. Perrin of San Diego and Master Edwin Stanton.

Mrs. Kennedy's Luncheon.

Mrs. William F. Kennedy of No. 1712 West Adams street was hostess yesterday at a very charmingly appointed Japanese luncheon.

Decorations were carried out in Japanese fashion. Over the table festoons of gay dittie flags and lanterns formed a bright canopy, while in the center of the table was a miniature tea garden, which was most unique. Japanese dollies on the shining table were pretty accessories and the place cards consisted of small silk favors, with hand-painted cards attached. The entire home was filled with a profusion of sweet blossoms, and music was enjoyed later. Guests included Mrs. H. B. Irwin of Wheeling, W. Va.; Mrs. Westlake of Newcastle, Pa.; Mrs. E. H. Vivian of Chicago; Miss Jessie Markham of New York; Mrs. J. M. Howard, Mrs. Boyle Workman, Mrs. W. H. Holmes, Mrs. A. M. Hall, Miss Valentine Hernadez, Miss Rebecca Howard and Miss Grace Evans.

Mrs. Evans's Reception.

Mrs. M. E. Evans of No. 4547 Marmion Way has issued invitations for an at home to be given on Saturday afternoon, April 13, from 4 until 5 o'clock, and at this time Mrs. Evans will show a group of her recent paintings.

—o—

Mrs. Lindley's Reception.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was a tea given yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Walter Lindley and her two daughters, Mrs. Philip Kitchin and Mrs. Samuel F. Bothwell, acting as hostesses, guests being members of the younger crowd. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. Lindley at No. 2007 South Figueroa street and guests were received between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

The handsome home was aglow with radiant blossoms, and in the library, lilies and golden jonquils were gracefully arranged, while the dining-room was all in yellow, jonquils, ferns and yellow shaded lights contributing to the beauty of the scene. In the hall, scarlet blossoms and potted palms and ferns were most effective. Sweet music was discoursed throughout the reception hours.

Assisting the hostess in receiving were Mesdames Oscar Mueller, Stephen Childs, John E. Coffin, Homer Laughlin, Jr., Robert W. Haynes, William P. James, Reginald J. C. Wood, John R. Haynes, Luther T. Bradford, Irwin Herron, J. D. Fredericks, Lyman Farwell, William A. Strong, R. H. Lacey Sinsabaugh, Helen Newlin, Julia Monette, Ida Lindley, Mary Haynes and Lillian Carleton.

Miss Ewell Is Bride.

Yesterday at noon a pretty wedding which was solemnized in Christ Episcopal Church was that of Miss Nellie A. Ewell, daughter of Mrs. John Ewell of Baltimore, and Philip M. Reed of New York City, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Baker P. Lee. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white satin, and her long tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Caroline Ewell, a sister of the bride, wore pink crepe de chine, with a large picture hat, and carried a shower of bridesmaid roses. The bride was given away by Andrew Felipe Power of Brookline, Mass. Joseph Reed, brother of the groom, was best man, and Messrs. Marshall Reed and George Tuttle were ushers. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Ewell, at No. 449 Grand View street, for relatives. The groom is president of the Los Angeles Bridge and Construction Company.

For Miss Bayly's Birthday.

Mrs. Benjamin L. Harding of No. 2707 Portland street was hostess yesterday at a charming luncheon given in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mrs. William Bayly, Jr. Orange blossoms and yellow roses were used effectively in the table decorations, and lace doilies and yellow-shaded candelabra heightened the effect. Place cards were adorned with the family crest and covers were laid for Mmes. John Van Geison Posey, Hugh McFarland, Harold Braly, Chester Montgomery, Roy Koster, Dan McFarland, Ross Smith, Roy Pinkham, Thomas Lee, Harry Robinson and Clarence Crawford.

Is Brilliant Function.

Hundreds of handsomely gowned women attended the brilliant reception and musicale given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Reuben Shettler and her daughter, Mrs. Leon T. Shettler, at the Ebell Clubhouse, and the rooms where the reception was held filled with soft-hued blossoms were pleasing backgrounds.

Under the direction of Miss Forman the clubhouse was transformed into a fairy garden of spring loveliness. In the auditorium, where the musical programme was presented, palms, potted plants and ferns formed a mass of delicate greenery and Easter lilies in great baskets on the platform and otherwhere were distinctive features. In the receiving room and other rooms great Japanese baskets of white roses and ferns were gracefully arranged, and palms and ferns contrasted pleasingly. The mantels and fireplaces in the different rooms were banked with glowing yellow daffodils and schusanthus. The tables, from which tea and refreshments were served were decorated with jonquils and yellow-shaded candelabra.

The musical programme was a charming one, and presented most artistically. Miss McGlashen, who is a talented pianist, was accompanist, and the following programme was rendered: Piano rondo from sonata in C (Weber,) William Edson Strobridge; 'cello, nocturne (Chopin,) Mme. Elsa von Grofe Menasco; songs, (a) "Long Ago," from four songs op. 56 (MacDowell;) (b) "Time Enough," op. 22, No. 1 (Nevin,) Frank Chester Collier; whistling, "Sing, Sweet Bird" (Ganz,) Miss Gladys Scofield; song, "Ave Maria" (Gounod,) Master Vernon Bettin; 'cello obligato by Mme. Menasco.

McClung-Cochran Nuptials.

Last evening at 8 o'clock Miss Isabelle McClung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClung, was married to George I. Cochran of this city, the wedding taking place in the San Fernando Methodist Church, which was beautifully decorated. Rev. Alexander Hardie officiated, assisted by Rev. E. A. Healey. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McClung attended as best man and matron of honor. Master Rutherford Moore carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Misses Ethel Hardie, Irene Powell, Edna Letts and Gladys Letts were bridesmaids. They wore dainty gowns of white chiffon over Nile green and carried showers of white carnations. Wesley Shaffer and Arthur Letts, Jr., were ushers. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin, with rose point lace bodice and her veil of duchesse lace was held with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns.

Miss McClung's traveling suit was of green broadcloth with hat to match. The church decorations were elaborate, and in white roses, lilies and greenery, and the same at the home, where a bridal supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran have gone East and expect to go abroad on their honeymoon. On their return they will be at home at No. 2249 Harvard boulevard.

Miss Cody to Wed.

The wedding of Miss Kittie Cody and Clarence Mercer will take place this evening, at the bride's home. Miss Cody will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Frank Murray of Barstow, as matron of honor, and Preston Mercer will act as best man. After a wedding trip the young couple will make their home in Indio.

—o—

For Mrs. Grothaus.

Miss Myrtle Brown of No. 370 West Forty-second street entertained members of Tong Pin Nu Yen, in honor of Mrs. L. C. Grothaus of Arizona, also a member.

Mrs. Grothaus was formerly Miss Frances Tuttle, a pretty and popular Los Angeles girl, and has returned for a visit, after an absence of over a year. Many pleasant times are being planned for Mrs. Grothaus during her visit in the city. Members present were Mrs. L. C. Grothaus, Misses Alma White, Pearl Jordan, Ora Brown, Eva Turner, Edna McKay, Alice Moores and Myrtle Brown.

Property Near Main and Washington Streets Sells for Eight Hundred Dollars a Front Foot.

Dolton & Austin report the sale for Julius Conrad to Alfred J. Bayer and C. Antoinette Lichtenberger of the property at Nos. 1826 to 1832 South Main street, lot 60x155 feet to an alley, improved with two-story frame building containing stores below and rooms above. This property is located 120 feet north of Washington street. The consideration was $48,000, or $800 per front foot.

Ontario Orange Grove Sold.

J. Frank Bowen has sold a ten-acre, eight-year-old orange grove on Fourth street, Ontario, to William Harker, recently from Dakota, through J. B. Moores, for $10,000 cash. About one-half the crop had been sold, the remainder went with the grove.

—o—

On Hope Instead of Olive.

In Wednesday's Times it was erroneously reported that a sale had occurred on Olive street of a fifty-foot lot, about midway between Seventh and Eighth streets. The report should have been that of the sale of the lot 50x165 feet, just south of the Simpson Auditorium, which has been sold for $35,000 by Jessie M. Jones to William Wright through the agency of the Wright and Calender Company and Oscar B. Smith. This lot is in the same block with the new $350,000 Y. M.C.A. building now in course of construction.

Improvements of considerable magnitude are planned for the block between Seventh and Eighth streets on Hope street. Mr. Warren of the Warren and Bailey Manufacturing Company, purchased the lot on the south of the Y.M.C.A. building about four months ago, paying $35,000 for 40x165 feet, and is planning the erection of a five-story modern building for stores and apartments. The land owned by George W. Walker on the east side of Hope street, now occupied by a three-story flat building, will be improved within the year, it is said, and several other modern structures are said to be contemplated for the neighborhood.

REPEAT IT QUICKLY.

One of the "stunts" by the expert acrobats of the Shriner Sircus at rehearsal last night was the rapid repetition of "shriekingshrinersshiningsircus." But it was too tough, they couldn't get away from the "Shiners" and so cut it out.

DEATH OF MRS LOTHIAN.

Mrs. Louisa D. Lothian, who died Tuesday at her home at No. 530 South Hill street, had lived in Los Angeles since 1876. She leaves four children, I. A. Lothian, Bella D. Lothian, Mrs. Arthur Mock of Alameda and Mrs. J. N. Davies of Eureka. Mrs. Lothian was 70 years old.

MARVELOUS ROTARY ENGINE

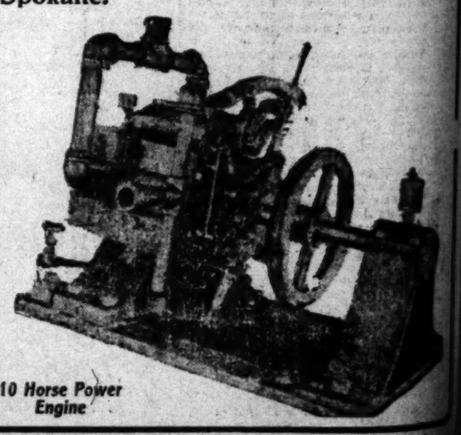
Today, Tomorrow and Saturday

The Wonderful Rotary Engine Will Give a Free Exhibition Under Steam at King Edward Hotel East Fifth, Corner Los Angeles Street

Hundreds of people have requested a general public exhibition of this engine working under steam. Many have already seen it demonstrate its marvelous power and utility, but before they are returned to the factory at Spokane, Mr. Epton, who has had full charge of the mechanical demonstrations during the sale of stock the past two months, will give this last exhibition in Los Angeles, or, until the factory is able to supply the demands of power users with engines.

This is a most wonderful sight—spinning with a merry hum quite like a dynamo, reversing almost immediately—performing feats no other engine made can duplicate. A sight well worth your time to witness. Three days only, remember.

After Saturday These Engines Will Be Returned to the Factory at Spokane.



10 Horse Power Engine

A Brief Word to Investors

When the announcement was made two weeks ago that there would be no more stock offered for sale, we fully meant what we said. A block of shares bought at that time has since been thrown back on our hands through the inability of the purchaser to raise the money to pay for them, and during the three days' exhibition, today, tomorrow and Saturday, we will offer these shares at the price the other party was to pay for them—$1.50 per share. This is a big snap for some one. Here is an industrial security of world-wide reputation. The German rights sold on a royalty basis will earn a tremendous annual revenue. The English rights are being considered and may be sold soon. The equipment and operation of the home factory for the trade of the United States all indicate an enormous dividend earning power for these shares. Better get in today, before it is too late. At least come and see the exhibition of the engine that will revolutionize steam power.

CLOSES MANY ROAD HOUSES.

NEW TERRITORIAL LAW HAS THAT EFFECT.

Tax of Three Hundred Dollars Per Year on All Drinking Saloons in Addition to City License—Thirteen Hundred Dollars Shut Only Two Nose-Paint Emporiums in Phoenix.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) April 2.—With the advent of April, Arizona made a couple of steps forward, the farther removing herself from the customs of the wild and woolly days of yore. The most important change was the abolition of gambling. About Phoenix was only a single gambling place, just outside the city limits, for gambling had been forbidden in the city several months ago. This place closed with scant ceremony at the midnight hour, with few patrons present. All over the Territory the games closed without protest and without expression of regret. Even the gamblers appreciated the fact that their industry was not one to be reconciled to modern ideas of civilization and morality.

On April 1 took effect as well a law that places a flat license tax of $300 per annum upon all drinking saloons. Although this added to the Phoenix municipal license tax, made a total of $1300 per annum, only two small saloons closed up in this city because of the added burden. The law was directed particularly at the roadhouses, and will close scores of them, especially in the mountain counties. In a way this will work a hardship upon the miners and cattlemen, for the roadhouses handled groceries and general supplies as well as liquor.

"Steer tying," ever recognized as a form of sport in which Arizonans were preeminent, has been put under legal ban, mainly through the influence of stockmen whose cattle have been injured in the gentle tournaments. The last steer-tying took place in Phoenix Sunday afternoon. It was not particularly well attended, though it was understood as marking the end of an epoch. The sport has been a stirring one, popular alike to the initiated and with eastern visitors, yet there ever was a touch of cruelty in it, and a suggestion of the bullfight.

Another "morality" act of the last Legislature absolutely forbids the presence of women in rooms or establishments where liquor is sold. Atty.-Gen. Clark has expressed the opinion that women who own saloons are entitled to enter them. Upon this basis, it is suggested that saloon-keepers soon will find it profitable to take female partners in their businesses.

SALT RIVER PROJECT.

The Salt River Valley water-storage project is to be enlarged in scope by the addition of 10,000 acres upon the reservation of the Pima and Maricopa Indians, along the Gila River, south of Mesa and Tempe. For years the Pimas have been deprived of irrigating water from the Gila River because of appropriations made above them by the farmers around Safford and Florence. It is now proposed to secure a water supply by pumping from an ample underground flow. Power for such pumping was to have been developed by a dam, tunnel and electrical works on Salt River, below Roosevelt. But the plan was changed lately and now it is asked that the Indians be allowed to become a part of the organization of farmers that is to profit by the construction of the Roosevelt dam across Salt River, paying, through the Indian Bureau, in proportion to the amount of land reclaimed. But instead of water from Salt River, power will be accepted for pumping, and of power there appears to be a plenty in prospect, something about 18,000 horse power in all.

The Indian Bureau is to give up to the Reclamation Service its favorable location for power works in the Salt River Cañon as a part of the transaction. The plan appears to have the approval of the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association.

INDIAN SCHOOL BENEFIT.

In the Indian Appropriation Bill lately passed by Congress, the Phoenix Indian Industrial School benefits to the extent of $136,900, of which $116,000 is appropriated specifically for the support and education of 700 Indian children. "For the support and civilization of the Indians of Pima Agency, Arizona," was appropriated the sum of $40,000. The bill carries appropriations for the benefit of reservation Indians in New Mexico and Arizona totaling $225,000. This sum is in addition to the irrigation appropriation to the Pimas.

Concerning this, the bill states: "The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, use such part of the $300,000 heretofore appropriated for an irrigation system for the Pima Indians in the payment of such Indians' proportionate part of the construction of the Salt River project, and such funds may be transferred to the reclamation fund, to be expended by that service in accordance with its rules and regulations, the Indians to receive a credit upon the reclamation charges assessed against their lands under the Salt River project for the amount so transferred."

ARIZONA NOTES.

Gov. Kibbey has honored a requisition from California for the return to that State of Sierwierski, the defaulting treasurer of the San Francisco Brewers' Union, lately captured in Bisbee.

About the first case of illicit distilling brought before the courts of Arizona has materialized at Fort Thomas, where the defendant, Peter Swanson, ran a dance hall. Though no bar was annexed, the dance hall was noted for its drunken orgies, a fact that did not escape the observation of the Fort Thomas saloon-keepers, who agreed they had not furnished the stimulant consumed. Investigation developed the presence of a small still, hidden in the sandy bank of the near-by Gila River, where Swanson had been producing a crude sort of rum by the distillation of sorghum molasses and the skimmings of the pots wherein the Mormon farmers of the vicinity made molasses. The still was a tin oil can, and the worm a crude arrangement of iron pipe.

The Bulgin meetings have closed in Phoenix, with a record of 200 conversions. The meetings, held in the Central Methodist Church, nightly filled that edifice to its limit of capacity. The last night's service was especially distinguished by Dr. Bulgin in an attack made upon the Rio Verde irrigation and power project, near Phoenix, which he declared as a fraud committed under the guise of religion. This is an enterprise that calls especially for the support of Christian people, who, according to the company's literature, are to be settled in "Paradise Valley." In communities where the Bible shall be the supreme law. It has been announced also that a part of the profits of the enterprise are to be devoted to "the extension of Christ's kingdom."

One Arizona legislator, at least, was honored on his return to his constituents. Editor Weedin of the Florence Blade, Councilman from Pinal county, was welcomed home with bonfires and with a giant-powder cannon salute, expressive of appreciation of his winning the fight for the location of the Territorial Penitentiary at Florence.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

NOT ALL HAPPY OVER ELECTION.

SOME PASADENANS THREATEN TO CONTEST IT.

General Feeling Is, However, That Incident Is Closed so Far as Mayoralty Is Concerned—Flower Show Opens Today—Man Injured by Unknown Automobilist.

PASADENA, April 4.—The talk of contesting the municipal election, in which some people have been indulging, seems hardly likely to amount to anything. The general feeling is that one candidate has suffered fully as much as the other from illegally-marked ballots. Some of the losers were among the first to congratulate Mr. Earley upon his election, and in most quarters there is a feeling that the matter is closed.

It seems that the biggest "kickers" are some of the men who wagered small sums of money upon Waterhouse and lost. The heavy bettors have had but little to say.

In order to ascertain just where they stood, some of the election officers have taken the trouble to look into the matter carefully. Many of the Waterhouse ballots which were thrown out were marked with a cross in the blank space at the head of the ticket in spite of the fact that each and every nomination was an independent one and that there was no party circle. The malcontents would have it appear that these ballots should have been counted in spite of the fact that all voters had been warned beforehand not to try to vote for all of the Waterhouse candidates by making one mark.

In North Pasadena there is some talk of contesting Winner's election, he having defeated Root by the narrow margin of eight votes. It is thought that many citizens would like to see the result of the vote changed, but cooler heads are counseling the objectors to abide by the result of the election.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW.

Everything is in readiness for the annual flower show of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association, which will open today at No. 89 North Fair Oaks avenue. The exhibition will continue until the end of the week and bids fair to be one of the most interesting events of the season. Several prominent local society women have allowed their names to be used as patronesses and the affair gives promise of being highly successful.

The object of the flower show is to promote interest and knowledge in horticulture and floriculture, and substantial prizes have been provided for the winners in the seventy-one classes. Everything from the wild flowers of the field to the most delicate orchid will be represented and the promoters of the show expect to have the most comprehensive exhibition ever held in the Southland.

The exhibition of last year was more or less of an experiment. In spite of the confined quarters, the affair was an unqualified success, and the members of the association determined to make the exhibition an annual one.

ASSAULT CASE HEARING.

The hearing of Jim Hawkins, who is confined in the County Jail in connection with the assault case in which Nellie Beach and Pearl Kohler were the alleged victims, will be held next Monday morning. Justice Klamroth yesterday morning set the date. The co-defendants, Tom Hawkins and Chas. Hughes, will have their hearings on the Tuesday following.

The bail of the accused men has been set at $1500, and as yet none of them has been able to raise the money. Particularly strong efforts have been made in behalf of Jim Hawkins, but no one has come forward to act as his surety. That the prosecution will be severe is certain, as the Humane Society is determined to secure a conviction, if such a thing be possible.

Other arrests, which it was rumored were pending, have not yet been made. It was stated that the girls had incriminated several other men in their confession. Humane Officer McAney is still at work and may make more arrests any day.

TRADE BOARD SPREAD.

The date of the annual banquet of the Board of Trade has not yet been made public, although it is stated that the directors have practically hit upon a time. The final decision will be governed almost entirely by the ability of the board to secure the speakers wanted for the date under decision. As soon as this matter has been settled the date will be made public.

It is the desire of the Board of Trade to make the coming banquet the biggest affair ever held by the organization. Last year the banquet was postponed owing to the San Francisco disaster, which came just as the arrangements were being made. There is nothing to prevent a monster celebration this year, however, and the directors of the board are determined that the occasion shall be a memorable one.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Felix Setz of North Mentor avenue was run down by an automobile at the corner of Colorado street and South Fair Oaks avenue yesterday afternoon, and so severely injured that he had to be taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment. At the hospital it was found that he was suffering from the shock, bruises and lacerations, but he soon recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home.

The driver of the machine kept on running, so it was impossible to learn his name. The number of the car was secured, and if the victim suffers any permanent injuries, an effort will be made to locate him.

WITH SOUTHERN FLAVOR.

At Hotel Maryland last night Miss Louise A. Williams gave an entertainment, "An Evening in the Old South," for the guests. The function was purely an invitation affair, no admission fee being charged. Miss Williams is a southerner herself, so Col. W. J. Hogan accepted the task of introducing her.

The programme consisted of readings by Miss Williams, many of them being southern dialect stories, song and instrumental selections. Humor and pathos were delicately blended and the affair was voted one of the most delightful given at the hotel this season.

CRUSH RECEPTION.

The crush reception of the post-Lenten season was that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Newby, Mrs. Herbert C. Holt and Mrs. Ordelia Hines at the home of Mrs. Newby in Ford Place. Between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock some three hundred elegantly-gowned women thronged the great drawing-room, overflowed into the sun parlor and the library and crowded the dining-room, where elaborate refreshments were served. The several apartments were beautifully decorated with roses in great masses and Easter lilies. The dining-room was a dream of beauty in maidenhair ferns, asparagus plumosus and quantities of jonquils, which were like a touch of spring sunshine against the background of delft blue, which is the color scheme of the room.

The unbonneted women assisting in introducing the guests were Mmes. W. D. Turner, Charles Gardner, D. M. Linnard, Frank V. Rider, Luther, Nuby, Rose L. Whitmore, J. S. Glasscock and Miss Anne Whitmore. Miss Lucretia Ryder presided over the punch bowl, which was in the sun parlor. This pretty room was decorated with mustard bloom and was most attractive. Mrs. Austin and Mrs. R. I. Stuart presided at the tea table and Misses Cora Auten and Irene Grosse, Blanch Wetherell and McHenry assisted here.

The three hostesses received at the south end of the drawing-room and were handsomely gowned. Mrs. Newby wore a shell pink crepe princess, trimmed with Venetian point; Mrs. Holt's gown was white satin chiffon, trimmed with Duchess lace, and Mrs. Hines was charming in violet satin chiffon, with garniture of embroidered filet.

PASADENA NOTES.

Miss Jessie Earley of No. 166 South Marengo avenue was the hostess yesterday at a charmingly-appointed luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Thomas F. Cooke of Des Moines, Iowa, who is spending the winter in Southern California. The luncheon table was daintily decorated in yellow, centaureas and ferns being used as a centerpiece. The shades were drawn and the table lighted with yellow silk-shaded candles. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Arturo Bandini has issued invitations for a reception to be given at her home, "El Hogar," on San Pasqual street on Friday afternoon, April 12. The affair is to be given in honor of Mrs. Frank Abbott, Miss Abbott and Miss Stevenson.

Mrs. M. A. Snyder of No. 372 North Raymond avenue entertained on Tuesday afternoon the members of the executive boards of the California Universalist convention and the Universalist's Woman's Association of Southern California. The afternoon was spent discussing plans for the coming State convention at Santa Paula.

The Misses Cudahy of No. 265 Bellefontaine avenue entertained last evening with a large musicale. The reception-room was decorated with masses of jonquils and in the dining-room quantities of pink roses were used. The programme for the evening was furnished by Harry Clifford Lott of Los Angeles and Mr. Opid, the 'cellist.

Phelps for wall paper and paints. Fine stationery. Morris-Thurston Co. Pictures framed at Wadsworth's. Navajo rugs cheap, 46 No. Los Robles. Paintings by famous artists. Wigwam, 61 No. Euclid. Annual clearance sale at the Russian Art Store, 241 East Colorado.

COUNTRY CLUB AT VENICE.

VENICE, April 3.—The reorganized country club has finally selected a name and taken charge of the Abbot Kinney Company's clubhouse. The organization will hereafter be known as the Country Club. T. H. Dudley is president; J. W. Lawrence, secretary-treasurer; C. E. Meskimen, vice-president; and C. E. Groesbeck, chairman of the house committee. It is proposed to conduct this as an exclusive club, although a decided interest will be taken in all athletic games, including tennis and cricket.

The business men's organization has adopted the name, "Merchants of Venice," and will meet regularly for the discussion of matters of importance to the beach. The purpose is to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce and City Trustees in local development.

In the future, Tuesday evening will be society night at the Venice dancing pavilion on the pier. Social functions at which leading people of the beach will act as patrons and patronesses are to be arranged. Admission will be by invitation and the affairs to be given during the season will add to the gaiety here.

Hotel del Coronado always perfect.

TO HAVE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

OCEAN PARK, April 3.—Ocean Park has already begun to talk about having the greatest Fourth of July celebration ever held on the beach. The business people with one accord seem to favor the proposition and it is probable that a mass meeting will be called at an early day for the purpose of naming general committees and getting the work well in hand before the orators and other attractions shall have made engagements for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Leroy were hosts last night for a beach theater party at the Mason Operahouse in Los Angeles. Following the performance the guests were tendered a banquet.

Large crowds still at Coronado.

MONROVIA FUNCTION.

MONROVIA, April 3.—One of the leading social functions of the season was the reception tendered to Mrs. Clarence C. Bowerman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartle yesterday afternoon. Those assisting Mrs. Bartle were Mrs Shrode and her mother, Mrs. Bowerman. The ladies were all elegantly gowned. They received in the parlor, which was artistically decorated. Numerous invitations were extended and from 3 until 6 o'clock guests were arriving and departing in numbers. Over two hundred of the ladies of the city called. Mrs. Bowerman, the guest of honor, was the belle of Clarion, Iowa, prior to her marriage with Mr. Bowerman a short time ago.

SAWTELLE.

SAWTELLE, April 3.—The City Trustees have refused to give consideration to an ordinance proposing the prohibition of the operation of pool and billiard tables within the city. They have, however, decided that poolrooms can be maintained only under the most rigid police supervision. Such places are not to be conducted as blinds for slightless pigs.

At the school election to be held Friday the only candidate for member of the School Board is R. C. McClellan. The retiring member of the board is O. W. Jewett.

Coronado agency 334 S. Spring.

ALHAMBRA BOND ELECTION.

ALHAMBRA, April 3.—Saturday, April 27, is the date set by the Board of City Trustees for the bond election. There are six separate propositions to be voted upon: Storm drains, library site, fire protection, bridges, and site for city buildings, amounting in all to $68,000.

The Woman's Guild of Alhambra will hold its bazaar next Saturday at Masonic Hall, the proceeds to be devoted to the church fund.

CLAMOR FOR BETTER SERVICE.

LONG BEACH CITIZENS AFTER PACIFIC ELECTRIC.

Say They Do Not Get Fair Treatment from Company on Line Between Their City and Los Angeles. Punishment Proposed in Case the Conditions Are Not Improved.

LONG BEACH, April 3.—Long suffering and tired of repeated promises made by Pacific Electric officials for the betterment of the street-car service between Long Beach and Los Angeles, citizens here are preparing to make the company sit up and take notice, at least.

A committee was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce a week ago for a heart-to-heart talk with the powers that be, and the City Trustees took similar action last night with a promise that unless the desired concessions were made both in regard to the betterment not only of interurban but of local service, and a reduction in fares, that the Pacific Electric will be refused the right to move its freight over the streets of the city, a privilege accorded, but for which it has no franchise.

There is a street in Alamitos upon which the road is operating without right save by suffrage. A third usurpation is the extending of its Seaside Park line across the bluff at Daisy street, which belongs to the city as a park. In case of refusal to grant what is demanded, the Trustees may take action to regulate all these infractions of law. It is stated that there are six Pasadena cars leaving the Huntington Building in Los Angeles to one for Long Beach, and passengers for the beach frequently have to stand in line for three-quarters of an hour and then most of them are compelled to become "strap-hangers."

SEASHORE NOTES.

An ordinance relaxing slightly the stringency of the town's liquor law is before the City Trustees for adoption. It provides that one quart of alcohol may be sold every twenty-four hours for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes without a prescription. Trustee Lunt opposes the measure on the ground that it would make it too easy for a man to get drunk cheaply with a quart of alcohol, diluted with water. The ordinance, however, passed the first reading and was laid over one week.

G. W. Ray, whose action in demanding $25 a day to refrain from rebuilding his residence, because of the critical illness of a neighbor, has been severely criticised, this morning returned $100 of the money to Mayor Downs and declares he never intended to keep the mopey. He had been paid $125, but he claimed $25 had been paid to the carpenters. Mrs. Moore, the sick woman, continues very ill and her physician says removal would be fatal. Meanwhile Ray is in a dilemma, as he wants to go East, but desires to make repairs so he can rent the house.

A Bible conference under the auspices of the American Bible League of Southern California will be held Thursday and Friday at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Will A. Betts presiding. Addresses will be made by Rev. Stephen A. Northrop of Los Angeles; Rev. Winthrop D. Allison, field secretary; W. E. Blackstone, vice-president of the league, and Rev. J. A. Stevenson of Santa Ana.

Hereafter Long Beach pawnbrokers must each furnish the City Marshal every twenty-four hours with a complete list of all articles pawned or offered as pledges. It is hoped by this method to check considerable petty thieving which has been prevalent for some time.

The dog poisoner is again at work in Long Beach, his last victim being a valuable animal belonging to City Clerk Fred P. J. Baldwin.

W. E. Hinshaw and W. M. Halliday were last night granted a franchise by the City Trustees to erect a bathhouse on the south side of Seaside boulevard just east of the Auditorium. The building will be 100 feet wide and 250 feet long, extending out into the surf, and will give the Seaside Water Company its first competitor since the demolition of the old pier.

At midnight the police, headed by City Marshal Young, raided a house in the old Tabernacle grounds and arrested Jacob Smith, J. W. Lee and Frank Norton and a complete outfit of cards, chips and other gambling paraphernalia. The trio were released on bond.

Mrs. Will Speers, engaged in moving her household goods, fell from the seat of the transfer wagon and was seriously injured on the head and arms by contact with the wheels of the truck.

John Roberts, a pioneer of the city and a former City Trustee, is critically ill at his home on Fourth and Linden.

The City Trustees have decided that the water companies, which have evaded the payment of business license for several years, must pay up present and past delinquencies. The companies claim they had an agreement of some sort with former Trustees, but the present board disclaims any knowledge of this and has instructed the City Marshal to force collections.

A new curfew law is to be put in operation, providing for the arrest of youngsters under 14 years found on the streets at night and fining the parents or guardians from $3 to $10 for such violation.

George W. Hughes has tendered the gift of ten acres on the south slope of Signal Hill as a site for the State Normal School, and says other property owners on the hill will raise a bonus of $10,000 to add to his offer. The site offered is valued at $15,000. This offer will be considered Thursday morning by the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which has also an offer of ten acres further north from Jotham Bixby.

Notice was received today that the quo warranto proceedings to test the validity of the West Long Beach election had been assigned to Judge Houser, Department Three, Superior Court, and the first hearing set for April 9.

Coronado for the best climate.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, April 3.—The work of grading and paving Brentwood Park's main boulevard was begun this morning. This highway is 100 feet in width, with a road space of sixty feet. The street is to be oil tamped. The present contract calls for the paving of over 6000 running feet.

The local lodge of Good Templars last night celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of the society, W. I. Hall presiding. Rev. Frank Stevens, F. H. Taft, W. W. Ellis and W. I. Hull spoke enthusiastically of conditions and prospects. The evening's programme also included musical and literary selections.

The Public Library had a circulation during March of 3375 volumes, of which more than one-half were works of fiction.

WANT WARNING BELL.

South Pasadena City Trustees Receive Petition of Requiring One at Railroad Crossing.

SOUTH PASADENA, April 3.—Two resolutions were passed at the meeting of the board of City Trustees Monday night, one to grade Ramona avenue and the other to extend Westmoreland street from Oxley to Center R. D. List, O. Orcutt and W. A. Gillett were appointed commissioners to assess the benefits and damages. The City Attorney was also instructed to prepare a resolution for the grading and curbing of Hope street.

The Lincoln Park League presented a petition asking that the Santa Fé Railway be required to put a bell at the company's crossing at Lincoln Park to give warning of the approach of trains. Two people were nearly run over in the last month owing to the impossibility of either hearing or seeing trains.

The City Attorney was also instructed to call the attention of the Santa Fé and Salt Lake Railroad companies to what the board considers the extremely dangerous condition of the Oak Lawn private bridge.

I. J. Silvers intends to make his home in South Pasadena and is building a bungalow to that end on Mound avenue.

H. Johnson is spending his vacation with his mother on Center street.

The grammar school has resumed session after a week's vacation. The high school, owing to the fact that its fall term was late in starting, had no vacation this spring.

A musicale and social is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dodge on Monterey Road on the evening of April 5.

Miss Perkins of Monterey Road will entertain the Sewing Club Friday.

The Epworth League social, which was to have taken place next Friday, has been postponed for a week.

Perfect weather at Coronado.

Avalon Aerie Has a Jolly Spread to Celebrate Over Their Admission.

AVALON, April 3.—The Eagles were all aflutter here last night. For two months they had been without a hall in which to meet, and there has been an accumulation of nineteen persons who sought admission to membership. Although the hall was still unfinished it was in condition to be used and the nineteen were initiated. Then followed a banquet. While the members feasted, their wives assembled at the cottage of Mrs. C. B. Parker and had a spread of their own. The new home of the Avalon Eerie is to be completed on the 13th inst., the first anniversary of the founding of the aerie, and members of the order from various parts of Southern California are expected to come and join in the celebration of the event.

AVALON BITS.

C. J. Jones of Grand Cañon, Ariz., is a guest at the Metropole. Mr. Jones is better known through the west as "Buffalo" Jones, from his determined and successful efforts to save the buffalo from extinction on the American continent. He is now engaged in getting up series of moving pictures of wild animal life, which will include a picture of the seals on this beach as they emerge from the waters and climb the steps at the bath-house to take food from the hands of the fishermen.

Messrs. S. and Leon Mandel, comprising the merchandise firm of Mandel Brothers of Chicago, are guests at the Metropole, devoting most of their time to fishing.

POMONA.

POMONA, April 3.—The Pomona Lime Company proposes to soon install in Los Angeles a hydrating plant of considerable capacity for the preparation of lime of the finest grades for interior work. The business of the company, which has quarries in the Puente hills, is steadily increasing. Under the general management of R. N. Loucks, about, about fifteen men are regularly employed on two kilns, and the output of lime is in the neighborhood of 3500 barrels monthly. All of the product is at present sold for brick mortar, as it possesses cement qualities especially adapted for brick work.

The death of Earl Curry, only son of S. N. Curry and wife, occurred at the home of his parents on North Gibbs street last night, from diphtheria. He was a bright lad, about 12 years old, and was popular among his schoolmates in the local public and Methodist Sunday-school. It was at first supposed he was suffering from tonsilitis. His death was sudden.

SWINDLER WINS AT RIVERSIDE.

SECURES HUNDREDS ON STOCK THAT'S WORTHLESS.

Sheriff Offers Reward for Arrest of C. H. Smith, Who Falsely Claims to Be Agent for Los Angeles Trust Company—Stamping Out Cattle Fever.

RIVERSIDE, April 3.—Sheriff Wilson and his deputies are on the trail of C. H. Smith, who made a trip through the county a few days ago, claiming to be a representative of the Southwestern Mortgage, Loan and Trust Company of Los Angeles. An Elsinore man purchased $700 worth of stock from the schemer before it was discovered that he was not an authorized agent of the company and that the stock was worthless.

Smith is an easy talker and told a plausible story as to his connection with the company. He claimed to be an Elk, and said that he was formerly engaged in newspaper work at Ely, Nev. Officers throughout the country have been notified to be on the watch for him. A reward of $50 has been offered by Sheriff Wilson for his capture.

STAMPING OUT FEVER.

Vigilant work on the part of Dr. W. C. Rayen, county veterinarian, is stamping out the Texas fever infection among the cattle on the pasture lands along the Santa Ana River. Dr. Rayen made a report to the County Supervisors today that no new outbreak has been discovered in the past month, and that rapid progress is being made in eradicating the disease. A dipping plant has been constructed on the Pelissier ranch, north of Fairmount Park, for treating the infected cattle at that place. At Rincon the stockmen are using oil applied with a brush, and at the ranch of W. Ables the cattle are sprayed with oil at frequent intervals.

PLAY GOOD SAMARITAN.

The County Sheriff's force played the good Samaritan yesterday afternoon to Moreno Carrero, whom they found aimlessly sitting in a West Riverside barley field, where he had spent the day. The man was suffering from strange hallucinations. Sheriff Wilson and Under Sheriff Evans brought him in to the jail. He was taken care of through the night, and this morning the officers bought a railroad ticket for him to Corona, where he has a brother employed in the tile works. At first it was believed that the man was insane, but his speedy recovery indicated that the delirium was caused by drink.

MARRIAGE SAVES HIM.

To avoid prosecution on the charge of child stealing, Ramon Morales yesterday took as his bride the fifteen-year-old girl, Mary Grejalba, who had allowed herself to be stolen. Before the marriage the girl's mother gave her consent to the nuptials. Justice Hall performed the ceremony, while Dist.-Atty. Evans and Sheriff Wilson officiated in the capacity of witnesses. The suit pending against Morales has been dismissed.

BEER SALE COSTLY.

Dan Dedack, proprietor of the Eighth Street Café, was fined $100 yesterday afternoon for selling beer in violation of the city prohibition ordinance. As a further punishment it was ordered that the beer which had been confiscated at his restaurant be turned into the gutter by the constable who had discovered it.

BREVITIES.

If weather conditions permit, the Riverside Driving Club will give a free matinee race meet Thursday afternoon at the Riverside Driving Park. The card planned for last Friday and postponed on account of the rain will be run off.

The bid of W. F. Johnson of Los Angeles was accepted by the County Supervisors today for the $1500 bond issue of the San Timoteo school district. His bid was par, accrued interest and a premium of $87.65.

Mrs. F. L. Osenberg and little son arrived from Los Angeles yesterday to visit Mrs. Osenberg's aunt, Mrs. J. K. Schanck.

Among Bundy Hot Springs Hotel arrivals are: Miss Vaughn, F. J. Cather, Los Angeles; Mrs. E. Reiner, Chicago; Mrs. A. Jordan, St. Louis, Mo.; P. J. Bryne, Muskogee, Okl.; W. H. Goodwin, West Lebanon, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, Hooperston, Ill.; Will Lucero, Rivera; Anatasia Arnold, Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Haven, Monrovia; W. L. Steinmiller, Azusa.

Miss Mabel Yates, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to Mecca, where she is teaching school.

Mrs. Kate Glenny of Eureka Springs, Ark., arrived today from Los Angeles to visit Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Gimin.

FULLERTON.

FULLERTON, April 3.—Thomas Strain, Jr., a young fruit packer and shipper of Fullerton and Miss Cora Evans, a young lady of San Diego, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. Only immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Miss Evans is one of the teachers in the Placentia school and has made many friends in this section. After a brief honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Strain will reside at the home of the groom in Placentia.

Heavy shipments of asparagus are still being made from this city to Chicago daily, nearly 300 boxes per week being shipped.

E. Kaufman of Los Angeles has purchased the interest of B. C. Brown in the Commercial Hotel and will reopen it the first of next week.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, April 3.—At a meeting of the director of the Bank of Orange, held yesterday, a 2 per cent. quarterly dividend was declared.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Straus and daughter, of Colorado, are visiting at the home of Henry Grote.

Mrs. M. L. Willits and daughter, are visiting Mrs. Willit's mother, Mrs. Jas. Reed of Pasadena.

Stream Where It Runs Across the San Bernardino Valley Is Fifteen Hundred Feet Wide and Five Feet Deep—Is Carrying Away Poles of the Edison Company's Electric Line.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 3.—A sudden rise in the Santa Ana River has caused considerable anxiety among ranchers along its banks. The river took a sudden spurt yesterday, and between Highland and south of Redlands has jumped its banks, cutting a new channel at a point just below the old Palm-avenue crossing.

The water has spread to a width of 1500 feet, and is rushing across the San Bernardino Valley to a depth of five feet, carrying along with it a number of poles of the Edison Electric Company's line, besides sweeping away fences and trees, and threatens further damage.

The warm weather melting the snows on the mountains, together with a terrific downpour yesterday morning, are thought to be responsible for the present rampage the river is on. There is not fear of immense loss, though county roads and some ranches seem bound to suffer.

On the desert the Mojave still continues a serious problem for the railroads, though by energetic work they have succeeded in strengthening their bridges, and it is not believed that further trouble will be experienced at Daggett or Barstow, which were seriously threatened last week.

GIRL WEDS BURGLAR.

James Butsen, who was arrested at Los Angeles several weeks ago, charged with burglarizing several places at Highland, was married yesterday to Miss Laura Andrews, a young girl who has been living with Butsen's mother. The youth had pleaded guilty to the charge, and was released on probation, one of the stipulations being that he should not attempt to elope with Miss Andrews, the boy's mother informing the court that the young folks were infatuated. In order to be married permission from Judge Oster had to be obtained. The boy's mother says that her only hope is that by marriage the youth will settle down, and the girl was willing to be used in the experiment.

SCARCITY OF OIL.

Oil for fuel purposes is scarce here. One of the gas companies has been on its last barrel. Other industries are threatened, and even the railroad reports a famine. The exact cause of this remarkable situation is not known. It is said that so far as reports have been made to the railroad companies the production of the Bakersfield, Los Angeles and Fullerton fields have been up to the usual yield. Local companies which rely on oil as fuel are on the anxious seat, and frantic efforts are being made to secure the immediate delivery of orders sent to oil companies months ago.

NEW BANK EXAMINER.

REDLANDS, April 3.—A private telegram Tuesday from John A. H. Kerr, now in Washington, D. C., is to the effect that he has secured the appointment of National Bank Examiner for the District of Southern California.

This is the place made vacant by the resignation of John W. Wilson, who has accepted the vice-presidency of the American National Bank of San Francisco. Mr. Kerr made application for the position immediately upon learning of Mr. Wilson's resignation and was later summoned to Washington. His records and other credentials being satisfactory, he was given the position.

A few years ago Mr. Kerr took a position as book-keeper in the First National Bank of this city. He now holds the position of teller. He will resign this position at once to assume his new duties.

W. H. Smith, the well-known railroad man of Pasadena, was here yesterday and made a trip up Yucaipe Valley with a view to purchasing stock in the Redlands and Yucaipe electric road.

The Occidental College glee club of Los Angeles gave a concert this evening in the Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Baraca class of that Sunday-school. The concert was well attended and in every way a success.

For a month past the gates at the Bear Valley dam have been wide open, permitting all the water to flow from the reservoir that is possible until its overflows in the spillway. This permits a flow of about 3000 inches continually and it has not lowered the level of the water to any great extent. This morning the water stood at just fifty feet. It is still very cold at the dam, the thermometer being at 27 degs. at 7 o'clock this morning.

INSPIRATION IN THEMES AT CORONA BANQUET.

Board of Trade Spread in the Circle City Is Attended by Representatives of Numerous Other Cities of Southern California—Body Chooses Directors for the Coming Year.

CORONA, April 3.—The Corona Board of Trade banquet in Odd Fellows' Hall last evening was attended by about 160 people, including guests from Riverside, Redlands, San Bernardino, Santa Ana and Long Beach. Music was furnished by a quartette comprising A. B. Tuthill, Charles Scoville, S. E. Thompson and W. C. Barth.

President W. J. Pentelow acted as toastmaster, and the following toasts were responded to: "Our Mutual Relations," Francis Cuttle, Riverside; "Tree Planting," J. H. Rees, tree warden, of Riverside; "The Work of a Board of Trade in Building up a Community," H. P. D. Kingsbury, Redlands; "Reforestration," Col. W. L. Vestal, San Bernardino; "The Cares of City Administration," G. R. Freeman, Corona; "Reminiscences of Corona, Past and Present," H. Clay Kellogg, Santa Ana (Mr. Kellogg surveyed the townsite for Corona;) "Odds and Ends," Rev. John Braun, Corona.

W. C. Barth, as a member of the advisory board of the Southern California Development Association, introduced J. A. Miller of Long Beach, who spoke on "Boosting California."

At the close of the banquet the following directors were elected for the local Board of Trade for the ensuing year: W. C. Barth, W. J. Pentelow, H. A. Prizer, C. A. Kinney, W. H. Jameson, J. P. Triolo, G. R. Freeman, D. M. Browning and George Ferguson. These directors will organize next Tuesday.

DEATH OF GEORGE WILSON.

COLTON, April 3.—George Wilson passed away this morning at his home here. He was born in England in 1840 and had lived in this city for forty-three years. He leaves a widow and five children. The five children are: Mrs. W. L. Wohser and Mrs. Daisy Bartee of this city, John Wilson of Long Beach, and George and Richard Wilson of Los Angeles.

WRECK VICTIMS.

The bodies of two of the Italians who were killed in the Southern Pacific wreck here last Thursday were shipped north last evening. The remains of Angelo Pritello were sent to relatives at Martinez, and those of Elio Scaramellio to San Francisco.

COUNTY'S MONEY EMBARRASSES IT.

BANKS REFUSING TO KEEP IT UNDER NEW CONDITIONS.

Can't Give Security Required by Law Passed by Last Legislature and Treasurer Is in Quandary—Supervisors Decide to Build Suitable Place to Store Gold.

VENTURA, April 3.—The Treasurer of this county is in a quandary as to what to do with the funds of the county. The banks have refused to take the money under the new exactions and conditions brought about by the last law passed, and the vaults of the Treasurer are not sufficiently large and strong to hold the funds. So, what to do with the large amount of money the county always has on hand is the puzzle.

According to a law passed by the last Legislature, the banks must not only pay a stipulated interest for the use of county funds deposited with them, but must put up for security either United States bonds or the bonds of some city, county or school district of this State in an amount not less than 10 per cent. in excess of the deposit. The funds of the county are given out to all the banks of the county.

Yesterday all the bankers appeared before the Supervisors to state that they were willing enough to comply with the interest regulations exacted by the new law, but that in the matter of the security they could not act, as such security was not always obtainable. They said they desired to return the money of the county deposited with them. Under the circumstances the authorities were pretty hard hit. There was no place to put the money and the county could not take it.

After a discussion between the members of the Board of Supervisors and the District Attorney, it was decided to let matters stand as hitherto until steps could be taken to make a suitable place to store the gold.

VENTURA PARAGRAPHS.

Ex-Congressman Marion Cannon of this county, who has been seriously ill at his home near here for a long time, is reported as improving so slowly that his family is uneasy over his condition.

Mrs. Maude Bright and Miss Leak Jarrett, who have been guests here this winter of the family of J. L. Argabrite, have returned to their home in West Virginia.

DRUNKS ATTACK OFFICERS.

Three drunken men ended a long chase by a desperate fight against Patrolmen Ross and Wyckoff on Macy street last night. H. Dasso and L. and F. Hawtry are the names of the prisoners. They had finished wrecking the interior of a disorderly house at the junction of Macy and Alameda streets when the officers came. By this time the trio had fled.

Ross brought Dasso to a stop by firing two shots into the air. The Hawtry brothers, meantime, had set upon Wyckoff, whom they were beating badly. Ross helped subdue them. On the way to the patrol box the pair again turned on Wyckoff and made an ugly fight. The patrolman was cut and bruised on the head and face. Disturbing the peace was the charge placed against the prisoners.

MANY COUNTS STRICKEN OUT.

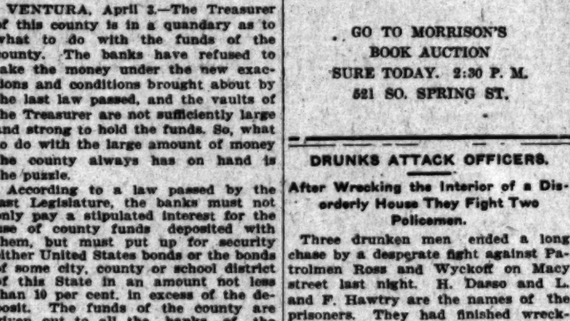
CHICAGO, April 3.—As a result of nineteen motions for dismissal of the indictments against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, charged with accepting illegal rates on shipments of oil, Judge Landis today, in the United States District Court, ordered that 350 of these counts should be stricken out. The government attorneys expressed but little concern at the dismissal of the 350 counts, saying there are still 150 counts of which the indictments can stand.

VOLCANO IS SLEEPING.

KINGSTON (St. Vincent, B. W. I.) April 3.—Tempest Anderson, who has just made a study of the condition of the St. Vincent volcano, says the crater of the volcano is inactive except for a small discharge of steam in two places. The lake is restored, and vegetation is growing up to an altitude of 1400 feet.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney



MISS MARGARET TIERNEY MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

Why should this be the case?

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

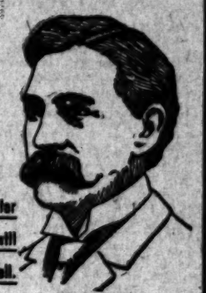
MEN ONLY

I Cure the Cases That Others Cannot Cure



A bold statement, but just as true as it is bold. Not all cases that others fail to cure are curable by my methods, but fully ninety per cent. of them are. The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult me. I know exactly what can be done in every instance. I ought to know this, for I have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty-five years. If your case is curable I will treat you. If it isn't I will not. If I treat you, and if you so desire,

I Will Wait for May Fee Until You Are Well.

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

WEAKNESS

Weakness in men is comparatively a simple ailment and is but a symptom of local disorder, a congestion of an important nerve center. No stimulating treatment, whether internal or locally applied, can do more than excite temporary activity. By my system of local treatment I restore absolutely normal conditions throughout the organs involved, which promptly results in complete and permanent restoration of strength and vigor. This treatment is original with me, and is the only radical and certain cure yet devised.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a relaxation, knotting and twisting of the most vital blood vessels of the organic system. It stagnates the local circulation and interferes with the processes of waste and repair. Neglect brings derangement of functions and injury to the general health. Most physicians resort to surgical operations and hospital treatment. I cure Varicocele in one week without operation, pain or detention from business. My cures are absolutely permanent and no ill effects whatever can follow my treatment.

I also cure all special diseases of men such as Hydrocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Diseases, etc.

EXAMINATION FREE

I offer not only Free Consultation and Advice, but to every case that comes to me I will make a careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about this trouble. If you cannot call, write for diagnosis chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

NOT ALL HAPPY OVER ELECTION.

General Feeling Is, However, That Incident Is Closed so Far as Mayoralty Is Concerned—Flower Show Opens Today—Man Injured by Unknown Automobilist.

PASADENA, April 4.—The talk of contesting the municipal election, in which some people have been indulging, seems hardly likely to amount to anything. The general feeling is that one candidate has suffered fully as much as the other from illegally-marked ballots. Some of the losers were among the first to congratulate Mr. Earley upon his election, and in most quarters there is a feeling that the matter is closed.

It seems that the biggest "kickers" are some of the men who wagered small sums of money upon Waterhouse and lost. The heavy bettors have had but little to say.

In order to ascertain just where they stood, some of the election officers have taken the trouble to look into the matter carefully. Many of the Waterhouse ballots which were thrown out were marked with a cross in the blank space at the head of the ticket in spite of the fact that each and every nomination was an independent one and that there was no party circle. The malcontents would have it appear that these ballots should have been counted in spite of the fact that all voters had been warned beforehand not to try to vote for all of the Waterhouse candidates by making one mark.

In North Pasadena there is some talk of contesting Winner's election, he having defeated Root by the narrow margin of eight votes. It is thought that many citizens would like to see the result of the vote changed, but cooler heads are counseling the objectors to abide by the result of the election.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW.

Everything is in readiness for the annual flower show of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association, which will open today at No. 39 North Fair Oaks avenue. The exhibition will continue until the end of the week and bids fair to be one of the most interesting events of the season. Several prominent local society women have allowed their names to be used as patronesses and the affair gives promise of being highly successful.

The object of the flower show is to promote interest and knowledge in horticulture and floriculture, and substantial prizes have been provided for the winners in the seventy-one classes. Everything from the wild flowers of the field to the most delicate orchid will be represented and the promoters of the show expect to have the most comprehensive exhibition ever held in the Southland.

The exhibition of last year was more or less of an experiment. In spite of the confined quarters, the affair was an unqualified success, and the members of the association determined to make the exhibition an annual one.

ASSAULT CASE HEARING.

The hearing of Jim Hawkins, who is confined in the County Jail in connection with the assault case in which Nellie Beach and Pearl Kohler were the alleged victims, will be held next Monday morning. Justice Klamroth yesterday morning set the date. The co-defendants, Tom Hawkins and Chas. Hughes, will have their hearings on the Tuesday following.

The bail of the accused men has been set at $1500, and as yet none of them has been able to raise the money. Particularly strong efforts have been made in behalf of Jim Hawkins, but no one has come forward to act as his surety. That the prosecution will be severe is certain, as the Humane Society is determined to secure a conviction, if such a thing be possible.

Other arrests, which it was rumored were pending, have not yet been made. It was stated that the girls had incriminated several other man in their confession. Humane Officer McAney is still at work and may make more arrests any day.

TRADE BOARD SPREAD.

The date of the annual banquet of the Board of Trade has not yet been made public, although it is stated that the directors have practically hit upon a time. The final decision will be governed almost entirely by the ability of the board to secure the speakers wanted for the date under decision. As soon as this matter has been settled the date will be made public.

It is the desire of the Board of Trade to make the coming banquet the biggest affair ever held by the organization. Last year the banquet was postponed owing to the San Francisco disaster, which came just as the arrangements were being made. There is nothing to prevent a monster celebration this year, however, and the directors of the board are determined that the occasion shall be a memorable one.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Felix Setz of North Mentor avenue was run down by an automobile at the corner of Colorado street and South Fair Oaks avenue yesterday afternoon, and so severely injured that he had to be taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment. At the hospital it was found that he was suffering from the shock, bruises and lacerations, but he soon recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home.

The driver of the machine kept on running, so it was impossible to learn his name. The number of the car was secured, and if the victim suffers any permanent injuries, an effort will be made to locate him.

WITH SOUTHERN FLAVOR.

At Hotel Maryland last night Miss Louise A. Williams gave an entertainment, "An Evening in the Old South," for the guests. The function was purely an invitation affair, no admission fee being charged. Miss Williams is a southerner herself, so Col. W. J. Hogan accepted the task of introducing her.

The programme consisted of readings by Miss Williams, many of them being southern dialect stories, song and instrumental selections. Humor and pathos were delicately blended and the affair was voted one of the most delightful given at the hotel this season.

CRUSH RECEPTION.

The crush reception of the post-Lenten season was that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Newby, Mrs. Herbert C. Holt and Mrs. Ordelia Hines at the home of Mrs. Newby in Ford Place. Between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock some three hundred elegantly-gowned women thronged the great drawing-room, overflowed into the sun parlor and the library and crowded the dining-room, where elaborate refreshments were served. The several apartments were beautifully decorated with roses in great masses and Easter lilies. The dining-room was a dream of beauty in maidenhair ferns, asparagus plumosus and quantities of jonquils, which were like a touch of spring sunshine against the background of delft blue, which is the color scheme of the room.

The unbonneted women assisting in introducing the guests were Mmes. W. D. Turner, Charles Gardner, D. M. Linnard, Frank V. Rider, Luther, Nuby, Rose L. Whitmore, J. S. Glasscock and Miss Anne Whitmore. Miss Lucretia Ryder presided over the punch bowl, which was in the sun parlor. This pretty room was decorated with mustard bloom and was most attractive. Mrs. Austin and Mrs. H. I. Stuart presided at the tea table and Misses Cora Auten and Irene Grosse, Blanch Wetherell and McHenry assisted here.

The three hostesses received at the south end of the drawing-room and were handsomely gowned. Mrs. Newby wore a shell pink crepe princess, trimmed with Venetian point; Mrs. Holt's gown was white satin chiffon, trimmed with Duchess lace, and Mrs. Hines was charming in violet satin chiffon, with garniture of embroidered filet.

PASADENA NOTES.

Miss Jessie Earley of No. 166 South Marengo avenue was the hostess yesterday at a charmingly-appointed luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Thomas F. Cooke of Des Moines, Iowa, who is spending the winter in Southern California. The luncheon table was daintily decorated in yellow, centaureas and ferns being used as a centerpiece. The shades were drawn and the table lighted with yellow silk-shaded candles. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Arturo Bandini has issued invitations for a reception to be given at her home, "El Mogar," on San Pasqual street on Friday afternoon, April 12. The affair is to be given in honor of Mrs. Frank Abbott, Miss Abbott and Miss Stevenson.

Mrs. M. A. Snyder of No. 872 North Raymond avenue entertained on Tuesday afternoon the members of the executive boards of the California Universalist convention and the Universalist's Woman's Association of Southern California. The afternoon was spent discussing plans for the coming State convention at Santa Paula.

The Misses Cudahy of No. 265 Bellefontaine avenue entertained last evening with a large musicale. The reception-room was decorated with masses of jonquils and in the dining-room quantities of pink roses were used. The programme for the evening was furnished by Harry Clifford Lott of Los Angeles and Mr. Opid, the 'cellist.

COUNTRY CLUB AT VENICE.

VENICE, April 3.—The reorganized country club has finally selected a name and taken charge of the Abbot Kinney Company's clubhouse. The organization will hereafter be known as the Country Club. T. H. Dudley is president; J. W. Lawrence, secretary-treasurer; C. E. Meskimen, vice-president; and C. E. Groesbeck, chairman of the house committee. It is proposed to conduct this as an exclusive club, although a decided interest will be taken in all athletic games, including tennis and cricket.

The business men's organization has adopted the name, "Merchants of Venice," and will meet regularly for the discussion of matters of importance to the beach. The purpose is to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce and City Trustees in local development.

In the future, Tuesday evening will be society night at the Venice dancing pavilion on the pier. Social functions at which leading people of the beach will act as patrons and patronesses are to be arranged. Admission will be by invitation and the affairs to be given during the season will add to the gaiety here.

TO HAVE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

OCEAN PARK, April 3.—Ocean Park has already begun to talk about having the greatest Fourth of July celebration ever held on the beach. The business people with one accord seem to favor the proposition and it is probable that a mass meeting will be called at an early day for the purpose of naming general committees and getting the work well in hand before the orators and other attractions shall have made engagements for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Leroy were hosts last night for a beach theater party at the Mason Operahouse in Los Angeles. Following the performance the guests were tendered a banquet.

MONROVIA FUNCTION.

MONROVIA, April 3.—One of the leading social functions of the season was the reception tendered to Mrs. Clarence C. Bowerman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartle yesterday afternoon. Those assisting Mrs. Bartle were Mrs Shrode and her mother, Mrs. Bowerman. The ladies were all elegantly gowned. They received in the parlor, which was artistically decorated. Numerous invitations were extended and from 3 until 6 o'clock guests were arriving and departing in numbers. Over two hundred of the ladies of the city called. Mrs. Bowerman, the guest of honor, was the belle of Clarion, Iowa, prior to her marriage with Mr. Bowerman a short time ago.

SAWTELLE.

SAWTELLE, April 3.—The City Trustees have refused to give consideration to an ordinance proposing the prohibition of the operation of pool and billiard tables within the city. They have, however, decided that poolrooms can be maintained only under the most rigid police supervision. Such places are not to be conducted as blinds for sightless pigs.

At the school election to be held Friday the only candidate for member of the School Board is R. C. McClellan. The retiring member of the board is O. W. Jewett.

Coronado agency 334 S. Spring.

ALHAMBRA BOND ELECTION.

ALHAMBRA, April 3.—Saturday, April 27, is the date set by the Board of City Trustees for the bond election. There are six separate propositions to be voted upon: Storm drains, library site, fire protection, bridges, and site for city buildings, amounting in all to $68,000.

The Woman's Guild of Alhambra will hold its bazaar next Saturday at Masonic Hall, the proceeds to be devoted to the church fund.

CLAMOR FOR BETTER SERVICE.

LONG BEACH CITIZENS AFTER PACIFIC ELECTRIC.

Say They Do Not Get Fair Treatment from Company on Line Between Their City and Los Angeles. Punishment Proposed in Case the Conditions Are Not Improved.

LONG BEACH, April 3.—Long suffering and tired of repeated promises made by Pacific Electric officials for the betterment of the street-car service between Long Beach and Los Angeles, citizens here are preparing to make the company sit up and take notice, at least.

A committee was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce a week ago for a heart-to-heart talk with the powers that be, and the City Trustees took similar action last night with a promise that unless the desired concessions were made both in regard to the betterment not only of interurban but of local service, and a reduction in fares, that the Pacific Electric will be refused the right to move its freight over the streets of the city, a privilege accorded, but for which it has no franchise.

There is a street in Alamitos upon which the road is operating without right save by suffrage. A third usurpation is the extending of its Seaside Park line across the bluff at Daisy street, which belongs to the city as a park. In case of refusal to grant what is demanded, the Trustees may take action to regulate all these infractions of law. It is stated that there are six Pasadena cars leaving the Huntington Building in Los Angeles to one for Long Beach, and passengers for the beach frequently have to stand in line for three-quarters of an hour and then most of them are compelled to become "strap-hangers."

SEASHORE NOTES.

An ordinance relaxing slightly the stringency of the town's liquor law is before the City Trustees for adoption. It provides that one quart of alcohol may be sold every twenty-four hours for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes without a prescription. Trustee Lunt opposes the measure on the ground that it would make it too easy for a man to get drunk cheaply with a quart of alcohol, diluted with water. The ordinance, however, passed the first reading and was laid over one week.

G. W. Ray, whose action in demanding $25 a day to refrain from rebuilding his residence, because of the critical illness of a neighbor, has been severely criticised, this morning returned $100 of the money to Mayor Downs and declares he never intended to keep the mopey. He had been paid $125, but he claimed $25 had been paid to the carpenters. Mrs. Moore, the sick woman, continues very ill and her physician says removal would be fatal. Meanwhile Ray is in a dilemma, as he wants to go East, but desires to make repairs so he can rent the house.

A Bible conference under the auspices of the American Bible League of Southern California will be held Thursday and Friday at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Will A. Betts presiding. Addresses will be made by Rev. Stephen A. Northrop of Los Angeles; Rev. Winthrop Allison, field secretary; W. E. Blackstone, vice-president of the league, and Rev. J. A. Stevenson of Santa Ana.

Hereafter Long Beach pawnbrokers must each furnish the City Marshal every twenty-four hours with a complete list of all articles pawned or offered as pledges. It is hoped by this method to check considerable petty thieving which has been prevalent for some time.

The dog poisoner is again at work in Long Beach, his last victim being a valuable animal belonging to City Clerk Fred P. Baldwin.

W. E. Hinshaw and W. M. Halliday were last night granted a franchise by the City Trustees to erect a bathhouse on the south side of Seaside boulevard just east of the Auditorium. The building will be 100 feet wide and 250 feet long, extending out into the surf, and will give the Seaside Water Company its first competitor since the demolition of the old pier.

At midnight the police, headed by City Marshal Young, raided a house in the old Tabernacle grounds and arrested Jacob Smith, J. W. Lee and Frank Norton and a complete outfit of cards, chips and other gambling paraphernalia. The trio were released on bond.

Mrs. Will Speers, engaged in moving her household goods, fell from the seat of the transfer wagon and was seriously injured on the head and arms by contact with the wheels of the truck.

John Roberts, a pioneer of the city and a former City Trustee, is critically ill at his home on Fourth and Linden.

The City Trustees have decided that the water companies, which have evaded the payment of business license for several years, must pay up present and past delinquencies. The companies claim they had an agreement of some sort with former Trustees, but the present board disclaims any knowledge of this and has instructed the City Marshal to force collections.

A new curfew law is to be put in operation, providing for the arrest of youngsters under 14 years found on the streets at night and fining the parents or guardians from $3 to $10 for such violation.

George W. Hughes has tendered the gift of ten acres on the south slope of Signal Hill as a site for the State Normal School, and says other property owners on the hill will raise a bonus of $10,000 to add to his offer. The site offered is valued at $15,000. This offer will be considered Thursday morning by the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which has also an offer of ten acres further north from Jotham Bixby.

Notice was received today that the quo warranto proceedings to test the validity of the West Long Beach election had been assigned to Judge Houser, Department Three, Superior Court, and the first hearing set for April 9.

Coronado for the best climate.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, April 3.—The work of grading and paving Brentwood Park's main boulevard was begun this morning. This highway is 100 feet in width, with a road space of sixty feet. The street is to be oil tamped. The present contract calls for the paving of over 6000 running feet.

The local lodge of Good Templars last night celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of the society, W. I. Hall presiding. Rev. Frank Stevens, F. H. Taft, W. W. Ellis and W. I. Hull spoke enthusiastically of conditions and prospects. The evening's programme also included musical and literary selections.

The Public Library had a circulation during March of 3375 volumes, of which more than one-half were works of fiction.

WANT WARNING BELL.

South Pasadena City Trustees Receive Petition of Requiring One at Railroad Crossing.

SOUTH PASADENA, April 3.—Two resolutions were passed at the meeting of the board of City Trustees Monday night, one to grade Ramona avenue and the other to extend Westmoreland street from Oxley to Center R. D. List, O. Orcutt and W. A. Gillett were appointed commissioners to assess the benefits and damages. The City Attorney was also instructed to prepare a resolution for the grading and curbing of Hope street.

The Lincoln Park League presented a petition asking that the Santa Fé Railway be required to put a bell at the company's crossing at Lincoln Park to give warning of the approach of trains. Two people were nearly run over in the last month owing to the impossibility of either hearing or seeing trains.

The City Attorney was also instructed to call the attention of the Santa Fé and Salt Lake Railroad companies to what the board considers the extremely dangerous condition of the Oak Lawn private bridge.

I. J. Silvers intends to make his home in South Pasadena and is building a bungalow to that end on Mound avenue.

The grammar school has resumed session after a week's vacation. The high school, owing to the fact that its fall term was late in starting, had no vacation this spring.

A musicale and social is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dodge on Monterey Road on the evening of April 5.

Miss Perkins of Monterey Road will entertain the Sewing Club Friday.

The Epworth League social, which was to have taken place next Friday, has been postponed for a week.

Perfect weather at Coronado.

Avalon Aerie Has a Jolly Spread to Celebrate Over Their Admission.

AVALON, April 3.—The Eagles were all afutter here last night. For two months they had been without a hall in which to meet, and there has been an accumulation of nineteen persons who sought admission to membership. Although the hall was still unfinished it was in condition to be used and the nineteen were initiated. Then followed a banquet. While the members feasted, their wives assembled at the cottage of Mrs. C. B. Parker and had a spread of their own. The new home of the Avalon Eerie is to be completed on the 13th inst., the first anniversary of the founding of the aerie, and members of the order from various parts of Southern California are expected to come and join in the celebration of the event.

AVALON BITS.

C. J. Jones of Grand Cañon, Ariz., is a guest at the Metropole. Mr. Jones is better known through the west as "Buffalo" Jones, from his determined and successful efforts to save the buffalo from extinction on the American continent. He is now engaged in getting up series of moving pictures of wild animal life, which will include a picture of the seals on this beach as they emerge from the waters and climb the steps at the bath-house to take food from the hands of the fishermen.

Messrs. S. and Leon Mandel, comprising the merchandine firm of Mandel Brothers of Chicago, are guests at the Metropole, devoting most of their time to fishing.

POMONA.

POMONA, April 3.—The Pomona Lime Company proposes to soon install in Los Angeles a hydrating plant of considerable capacity for the preparation of lime of the finest grades for interior work. The business of the company, which has quarries in the Puente hills, is steadily increasing. Under the general management of R. N. Loucks, about, about fifteen men are regularly employed on two kilns, and the output of lime is in the neighborhood of 3500 barrels monthly. All of the product is at present sold for brick mortar, as it possesses cement qualities especially adapted for brick work.

The death of Earl Curry, only son of S. N. Curry and wife, occurred at the home of his parents on North Gibbs street last night, from diphtheria. He was a bright lad, about 12 years old, and was popular among his schoolmates in the local public and Methodist Sunday-school. It was at first supposed he was suffering from tonsilitis. His death was sudden.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRES

SWINDLER WINS AT RIVERSIDE.

SECURES HUNDREDS ON STOCK THAT'S WORTHLESS.

Sheriff Offers Reward for Arrest of C. H. Smith, Who Falsely Claims to Be Agent for Los Angeles Trust Company—Stamping Out Cattle Fever.

RIVERSIDE, April 3.—Sheriff Wilson and his deputies are on the trail of C. H. Smith, who made a trip through the county a few days ago, claiming to be a representative of the Southwestern Mortgage, Loan and Trust Company of Los Angeles. An Elsinore man purchased $700 worth of stock from the schemer before it was discovered that he was not an authorized agent of the company and that the stock was worthless.

Smith is an easy talker and told a plausible story as to his connection with the company. He claimed to be an Elk, and said that he was formerly engaged in newspaper work at Ely, Nev. Officers throughout the country have been notified to be on the watch for him. A reward of $50 has been offered by Sheriff Wilson for his capture.

STAMPING OUT FEVER.

Vigilant work on the part of Dr. W. C. Rayen, county veterinarian, is stamping out the Texas fever infection among the cattle on the pasture lands along the Santa Ana River. Dr. Rayen made a report to the County Supervisors today that no new outbreak has been discovered in the past month, and that rapid progress is being made in eradicating the disease. A dipping plant has been constructed on the Pellissier ranch, north of Fairmount Park, for treating the infected cattle at that place. At Rincon the stockmen are using oil applied with a brush, and at the ranch of W. Ables the cattle are sprayed with oil at frequent intervals.

PLAY GOOD SAMARITAN.

The County Sheriff's force played the good Samaritan yesterday afternoon to Moreno Carrero, whom they found aimlessly sitting in a West Riverside barley field, where he had spent the day. The man was suffering from strange hallucinations. Sheriff Wilson and Under Sheriff Evans brought him in to the jail. He was taken care of through the night, and this morning the officers bought a railroad ticket for him to Corona, where he has a brother employed in the tile works. At first it was believed that the man was insane, but his speedy recovery indicated that the delirium was caused by drink.

MARRIAGE SAVES HIM.

To avoid prosecution on the charge of child stealing, Ramon Morales yesterday took as his bride the fifteen-year-old girl, Mary Grejalba, who had allowed herself to be stolen. Before the marriage the girl's mother gave her consent to the nuptials. Justice Hall performed the ceremony, while Dist.-Atty. Evans and Sheriff Wilson officiated in the capacity of witnesses. The suit pending against Morales has been dismissed.

BEER SALE COSTLY.

Dan Dedack, proprietor of the Eighth Street Café, was fined $100 yesterday afternoon for selling beer in violation of the city prohibition ordinance. As a further punishment it was ordered that the beer which had been confiscated at his restaurant be turned into the gutter by the constable who had discovered it.

BREVITIES.

If weather conditions permit, the Riverside Driving Club will give a free matinée race meet Thursday afternoon at the Riverside Driving Park. The card planned for last Friday and postponed on account of the rain will be run off.

The bid of W. F. Johnson of Los Angeles was accepted by the County Supervisors today for the $1800 bond issue of the San Timeteo school district. His bid was par, accrued interest and a premium of $37.65.

ELSINORE.

ELSINORE, April 3.—Mrs. Henry Cowgill and two little sons, of Pasadena, are guests of Mrs. Cowgill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gilman.

Mrs. Allen C. Keith and baby arrived yesterday from Los Angeles to spend a week with Mrs. J. A. Crane.

Mrs. F. L. Osenberg and little son arrived from Los Angeles yesterday to visit Mrs. Osenberg's aunt, Mrs. J. K. Schanck.

Among Bundy Hot Springs Hotel arrivals are: Miss Vaughn, F. J. Cather, Los Angeles; Mrs. E. Reiner, Chicago; Mrs. A. Jordan, St. Louis, Mo.; F. J. Bryne, Muskogee, Okl.; W. H. Goodwin, West Lebanon, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, Hoopeston, Ill.; Will Lucero, Rivera; Anatasia Arnold, Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Haven, Monrovia; W. L. Steinmiller, Azusa.

Miss Mabel Yates, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to Mecca, where she is teaching school.

Mrs. Kate Glenny of Eureka Springs, Ark., arrived today from Los Angeles to visit Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Glenn.

FULLERTON.

FULLERTON, April 3.—Thomas Strain, Jr., a young fruit packer and shipper of Fullerton and Miss Cora Evans, a young lady of San Diego, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. Only immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Miss Evans is one of the teachers in the Placentia school and has made many friends in this section. After a brief honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Strain will reside at the home of the groom in Placentia.

Heavy shipments of asparagus are still being made from this city to Chicago daily, nearly 300 boxes per week being shipped.

E. Kauffman of Los Angeles has purchased the interest of B. C. Brown in the Commercial Hotel and will reopen it the first of next week.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, April 3.—At a meeting of the director of the Bank of Orange, held yesterday, a 2 per cent. quarterly dividend was declared.

The revival services will continue at the Christian Church this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Straus and daughter, of Colorado, are visiting at the home of Henry Grote.

Stream Where It Runs Across the San Bernardino Valley Is Fifteen Hundred Feet Wide and Five Feet Deep—Is Carrying Away Poles of the Edison Company's Electric Line.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 3.—A sudden rise in the Santa Ana River has caused considerable anxiety among ranchers along its banks. The river took a sudden spurt yesterday, and between Highland and south of Redlands has jumped its banks, cutting a new channel at a point just below the old Palm-avenue crossing.

The water has spread to a width of 1500 feet, and is rushing across the San Bernardino Valley to a depth of five feet, carrying along with it a number of poles of the Edison Electric Company's line, besides sweeping away fences and trees, and threatens further damage.

The warm weather melting the snows on the mountains, together with a terrific downpour yesterday morning, are thought to be responsible for the present rampage the river is on. There is not fear of immense loss, though county roads and some ranches seem bound to suffer.

On the desert the Mojave still continues a serious problem for the railroads, though by energetic work they have succeeded in strengthening their bridges, and it is not believed that further trouble will be experienced at Daggett or Barstow, which were seriously threatened last week.

GIRL WEDS BURGLAR.

James Butsen, who was arrested at Los Angeles several weeks ago, charged with burglarizing several places at Highland, was married yesterday to Miss Laura Andrews, a young girl who has been living with Butsen's mother. The youth had pleaded guilty to the charge, and was released on probation, one of the stipulations being that he should not attempt to elope with Miss Andrews, the boy's mother informing the court that the young folks were infatuated. In order to be married permission from Judge Oster had to be obtained. The boy's mother says that her only hope is that by marriage the youth will settle down, and the girl was willing to be used in the experiment.

SCARCITY OF OIL.

Oil for fuel purposes is scarce here. One of the gas companies has been on its last barrel. Other industries are threatened, and even the railroad reports a famine. The exact cause of this remarkable situation is not known. It is said that so far as reports have been made to the railroad companies the production of the Bakersfield, Los Angeles and Fullerton fields have been up to the usual yield. Local companies which rely on oil as fuel are on the anxious seat, and frantic efforts are being made to secure the immediate delivery of orders sent to oil companies months ago.

NEW BANK EXAMINER.

REDLANDS, April 3.—A private telegram Tuesday from John A. H. Kerr, now in Washington, D. C., is to the effect that he has secured the appointment of National Bank Examiner for the District of Southern California.

This is the place made vacant by the resignation of John W. Wilson, who has accepted the vice-presidency of the American National Bank of San Francisco. Mr. Kerr made application for the position immediately upon learning of Mr. Wilson's resignation and was later summoned to Washington. His records and other credentials being satisfactory, he was given the position.

A few years ago Mr. Kerr took a position as book-keeper in the First National Bank of this city. He now holds the position of teller. He will resign this position at once to assume his new duties.

W. H. Smith, the well-known railroad man of Pasadena, was here yesterday and made a trip up Yucaipe Valley with a view to purchasing stock in the Redlands and Yucaipe electric road.

The Occidental College glee club of Los Angeles gave a concert this evening in the Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Baraca class of that Sunday-school. The concert was well attended and in every way a success.

For a month past the gates at the Bear Valley dam have been wide open, permitting all the water to flow from the reservoir that is possible until its overflows in the spillway. This permits a flow of about 3000 inches continually and it has not lowered the level of the water to any great extent. This morning the water stood at just fifty feet. It is still very cold at the dam, the thermometer being at 27 degs. at 7 o'clock this morning.

INSPIRATION IN THEMES AT CORONA BANQUET.

Board of Trade Spread in the Circle City Is Attended by Representatives of Numerous Other Cities of Southern California—Body Chooses Directors for the Coming Year.

CORONA, April 3.—The Corona Board of Trade banquet in Odd Fellows' Hall last evening was attended by about 160 people, including guests from Riverside, Redlands, San Bernardino, Santa Ana and Long Beach. Music was furnished by a quartette comprising A. B. Tuthill, Charles Scoville, S. E. Thompson and W. C. Barth.

President W. J. Pentelow acted as toastmaster, and the following toasts were responded to: "Our Mutual Relations," Francis Cuttle, Riverside; "Tree Planting," J. H. Rees, tree warden, of Riverside; "The Work of a Board of Trade in Building up a Community," H. P. D. Kingsbury, Redlands; "Reforestration," Col. W. L. Vestal, San Bernardino; "The Cares of City Administration," G. R. Freeman, Corona; "Reminiscences of Corona, Past and Present," H. Clay Kellogg, Santa Ana (Mr. Kellogg surveyed the townsite for Corona;) "Odds and Ends," Rev. John Braun, Corona.

W. C. Barth, as a member of the advisory board of the Southern California Development Association, introduced J. A. Miller of Long Beach, who spoke on "Boosting California."

At the close of the banquet the following directors were elected for the local Board of Trade for the ensuing year: W. C. Barth, W. J. Pentelow, H. A. Prizer, C. A. Kinney, W. H. Jameson, J. P. Triolo, G. R. Freeman, D. M. Browning and George Ferguson. These directors will organize next Tuesday.

DEATH OF GEORGE WILSON.

COLTON, April 3.—George Wilson passed away this morning at his home here. He was born in England in 1840 and had lived in this city for forty-three years. He leaves a widow and five children. The five children are: Mrs. W. L. Wohser and Mrs. Daisy Bartee of this city, John Wilson of Long Beach, and George and Richard Wilson of Los Angeles.

WRECK VICTIMS.

The bodies of two of the Italians who were killed in the Southern Pacific wreck here last Thursday were shipped north last evening. The remains of Angelo Pritello were sent to relatives at Martinez, and those of Elio Scaramello to San Francisco.

COUNTY'S MONEY EMBARRASSES IT.

Can't Give Security Required by Law Passed by Last Legislature and Treasurer Is in Quandary—Supervisors Decide to Build Suitable Place to Store Gold.

VENTURA, April 3.—The Treasurer of this county is in a quandary as to what to do with the funds of the county. The banks have refused to take the money under the new exactions and conditions brought about by the last law passed, and the vaults of the Treasurer are not sufficiently large and strong to hold the funds. So, what to do with the large amount of money the county always has on hand is the puzzle.

According to a law passed by the last Legislature, the banks must not only pay a stipulated interest for the use of county funds deposited with them, but must put up for security either United States bonds or the bonds of some city, county or school district of this State in an amount not less than 10 per cent. in excess of the deposit. The funds of the county are given out to all the banks of the county.

Yesterday all the bankers appeared before the Supervisors to state that they were willing enough to comply with the interest regulations exacted by the new law, but that in the matter of the security they could not act, as such security was not always obtainable. They said they desired to return the money of the county deposited with them. Under the circumstances the authorities were pretty hard hit. There was no place to put the money and the county could not take it.

After a discussion between the members of the Board of Supervisors and the District Attorney, it was decided to let matters stand as hitherto until steps could be taken to make a suitable place to store the gold.

VENTURA PARAGRAPHS.

Ex-Congressman Marion Cannon of this county, who has been seriously ill at his home near here for a long time, is reported as improving so slowly that his family is uneasy over his condition.

Mrs. Maude Bright and Miss Leak Jarrett, who have been guests here this winter of the family of J. L. Argabrite, have returned to their home in West Virginia.

The Seaside Tennis Club of this city is getting ready for its spring and summer play. The club will have a largely increased membership this year.

It is officially announced at Bucharest, tranquility has been reëstablished throughout the entire country of Roumania.

DRUNKS ATTACK OFFICERS.

Three drunken men ended a long chase by a desperate fight against Patrolmen Ross and Wyckoff on Macy street last night. H. Dasso and L. and F. Hawtry are the names of the prisoners. They had finished wrecking the interior of a disorderly house at the junction of Macy and Alameda streets when the officers came. By this time the trio had fled.

Ross brought Dasso to a stop by firing two shots into the air. The Hawtry brothers, meantime, had set upon Wyckoff, whom they were beating badly. Ross helped subdue them. On the way to the patrol box the pair again turned on Wyckoff and made an ugly fight. The patrolman was cut and bruised on the head and face. Disturbing the peace was the charge placed against the prisoners.

MANY COUNTS STRICKEN OUT.

CHICAGO, April 3.—As a result of nineteen motions for dismissal of the indictments against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, charged with accepting illegal rates on shipments of oil, Judge Landis today, in the United States District Court, ordered that 350 of these counts should be stricken out. The government attorneys expressed but little concern at the dismissal of the 350 counts, saying there are still 150 counts of which the indictments can stand.

VOLCANO IS SLEEPING.

KINGSTON (St. Vincent, B. W. I.) April 3.—Tempest Anderson, who has just made a study of the condition of the St. Vincent volcano, says the crater of the volcano is inactive except for a small discharge of steam in two places. The lake is restored, and vegetation is growing up to an altitude of 1400 feet.

MEN ONLY

I Cure the Cases That Others Cannot Cure

A bold statement, but just as true as it is bold. Not all cases that others fail to cure are curable by my methods, but fully ninety per cent. of them are. The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult me. I know exactly what can be done in every instance. I ought to know this, for I have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty-five years. If your case is curable I will treat you. If it isn't I will not. If I treat you, and if you so desire,

I Will Wait for May Fee Until You Are Well.

DR. TAYLOR

WEAKNESS

Weakness in men is comparatively a simple ailment and is but a symptom of local disorder, a congestion of an important nerve center. No stimulating treatment, whether internal or locally applied, can do more than excite temporary activity. By my system of local treatment I restore absolutely normal conditions throughout the organs involved, which promptly results in complete and permanent restoration of strength and vigor. This treatment is original with me, and is the only radical and certain cure yet devised.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a relaxation, knotting and twisting of the most vital blood vessels of the organic system, stagnates the local circulation and interferes with the processes of waste and repair. Neglect brings derangement of functions and injury to the general health. Most physicians resort to surgical operations and hospital treatment. I cure Varicocele in one week without operation, pain or detention from business. My cures are absolutely permanent and no ill effects whatever can follow my treatment.

I also cure all special diseases of men such as Hydrocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Diseases, etc.

EXAMINATION FREE

I offer not only Free Consultation and Advice, but to every case that comes to me I will make a careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about this trouble. If you cannot call, write for diagnosis chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

Consultations Are Free

I Offer You the Benefit of My Extensive Experience and Study

I have made it a rule to carefully study every detail, every feature of every ailment or weakness which comes within my line of special work. The result of this constant study and experience is placed at your disposal, through my methods of personal service. I have cured hundreds of men who have suffered from long-standing ailments which have proved obstinate to the ordinary methods of treatment. I will make the way to complete health very easy for you. No charge for consultation.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 328 W. 25th Street, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, April 3.—[Reported by A. H. Wotaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.11; at 5 p.m., 30.17. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 47 deg. and 69 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 86 per cent.; 5 p.m., 66 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 2 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 12 miles. Maximum temperature, 62 deg.; minimum, 47 deg. Rainfall past twenty-four hours, trace; rainfall for season, 13.00 inches. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions — The western storm area has passed east of the Rocky Mountains and now envelopes the Middle West, with the center of depression over Kansas. This movement allowed a high area to move inland from the ocean, and under its influence clearing weather has prevailed in California during the last twenty-four hours. Light precipitation occurred quite generally yesterday on the Pacific Coast and in Nevada, Utah, Northern Arizona and Western Colorado. Elsewhere, no precipitation of consequence occurred. The weather on the Atlantic coast is fair and cold this morning, and frost is reported in Tennessee, South Carolina and Florida. The high area moving inland from the Pacific Ocean is expected to cause fair weather, with slowly rising temperature, in Los Angeles and vicinity during the next thirty-six hours.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Thursday, with slowly rising temperature; north to west winds.

San Diego	9.92	9.43

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—A depression of some depth has appeared over Vancouver Island. It has caused high southeast winds from the Columbia River northward. The storm will probably move slowly southward, and may cause warmer weather with southerly winds and possibly showers Thursday from San Francisco northward. Forecast:

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Thursday; light north wind.

Arizona: Fair Thursday and Friday; warmer.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Trade was of medium volume yesterday morning, but with the exception of butter all the staple commodities closed strong. In butter the situation was almost unchanged, the market continuing to show signs of weakness, and declines are still forecasted for this week. Floors are showing signs of accumulated stocks, but lower prices will quickly move all surplus supplies. Butter has declined in San Francisco.

The official price of eggs was left at 20 cents yesterday, although the receipts were 737 cases. The demand was about normal, with some case-count sales reported at 19c on the street. Two more carloads of fresh eastern were reported in for storing all surplus stocks of local eggs are put in storage.

Onions hold their own and rule strong. None came in yesterday and the demand is for current needs. Fancy stocks are extremely scarce. New onions will not be in for another month.

Potatoes were steady and prices were without material change.

All kinds of green vegetables were in large supply and prices were easy. Asparagus dropped to 12c a pound. Lettuce and cabbage were in good demand.

Sales on change: Two sacks of fancy garlic; 2 lots of 10 cases each of local ranch eggs; 2 lots 10 sacks each of fancy Nevada onions.

Fish was equal to the demand.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 737 cases; butter, 23,240 lbs.; cheese, 1000 lbs.; potatoes, 2164 sacks; onions, 235 sacks; beans, none; sweet potatoes, none.

Prices Current.

EGGS—Candled, fresh California ranch, 20.

BUTTER—Creamery extras, 67½; creamery firsts, 65; dairy, 25.

Citrus Fruit Shipments.

There were 181 cars of oranges and 7 cars of lemons shipped from Southern California yesterday. Total to date, this season, 12,534 cars of which 1295 cars were lemons. Total to same date last season, 14,381 cars of which 1501 were lemons.

GREATER ACTIVITY IN LISTED STOCKS.

TRADING was more general among the local securities on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday than it has been for three or four days. Transactions were made in five securities and the strength of the prices indicates a considerable amount of trade on the street.

Associated was the feature again Wednesday morning, selling at 45.25 cash and at 47.50, buyer thirty days. The cash price was up 1 3-8, as compared with Tuesday's high level; in all 70 shares new issue and 1014 shares old issue were handled. The close was at 44.75@45.50, the bid being up 1¾ and the asked showing a rise of 2 points.

The sale of a block of 300,000 shares of Associated Oil stock at 50 cents to Indie parties in San Francisco on Tuesday made its effect felt here yesterday. While there was doubt expressed in certain quarters Tuesday regarding this sale, it was positively made, and Associated was on the jump in Los Angeles at once, and the feature of Stock Exchange trading.

Columbia Oil sold at 80¾, 1000 shares changing hands. The close was at 80¼@83, the bid showing a decline of ¼. Globe Oil was weak, 2000 going under the hammer at 10½. The close quoted the stock at 10¾@12¼. Central Oil was the other trader among the oil stocks, 1000 shares were sold at 1.13½, with the stock closing at 1.13 3-8 @1.14 7-8.

Union Oil remains stagnant at 208 @210.50, both quotations being down, the bid losing 1 and the holding price having been weakened 1½, as compared with Tuesday. Rice Ranch Oil was bid for at 2.85 and offered at 3.00, but no trading was recorded. Olinda Land was quiet at 19½@20¾. Mexican Petroleum was wanted at 1.30¾ and offered at 1.33¼.

Merchant's Trust was the only trader among the bank stocks, 20 shares being sold at par. The tone of the banking list was encouraging. National Bank of California was bid for at 193, and offered at 250. Bidding for State Bank and Trust was active and pushed the quotation up to 97 again, the stock closing without an offer. Home Savings was again bid to 139, closing without an offer. First National closed with an offering at 423, and a bid at 420. American National was held at 119 and bid for at 117.25. Bonds were quiet.

Little change is apparent in the quotations posted on the miscellaneous securities. The Edisons were on the floor, and came in for some play. A bid of 71 was made for any part of 100 or 200 shares of the common, with an offering at 75@74.25, in 25-share lots. The preferred was held at 90, and was not bid for. Home common closed with a slight play, at 23 bid, none offered. The preferred was wanted at 63 and offered down to 65.50. Title Insurance and Trust shows a sharp rise from 155 to 159.75 on the bid, closing without an offer.

The mining market was somewhat sluggish. Clark Copper, which had every evidence of a return to reasonable values Tuesday, sold down again Wednesday, the last recorded sale being at 24 7-8. The supply was rather limited. Bidding for Furnace Creek was sluggish also, the security closing with a fractional loss showing at 1.48@1.77. Trading in California Hills amounted to 3000 shares at 4 cents. Consolidated Mines was handled to the extent of 10,000 shares at 1 7-8. Nevada Searchlight sold at 3¼@3½ in five 1000-share lots. Johnnie Consolidated changed hands at 10¼, buyer ninety days, no cash sales being made. One thousand shares of Gold Coin were traded in at 25½. The remainder of the list showed no activity.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Trade was of medium volume yesterday morning, but with the exception of butter all the staple commodities closed strong. In butter the situation was almost unchanged, the market continuing to show signs of weakness, and declines are still forecasted for this week. Floors are showing signs of accumulated stocks, but lower prices will quickly move all surplus supplies. Butter has declined in San Francisco.

The official price of eggs was left at 20 cents yesterday, although the receipts were 737 cases. The demand was about normal, with some case-count sales reported at 19c on the street. Two more carloads of fresh eastern were reported in for storing all surplus stocks of local eggs are put in storage.

Onions hold their own and rule strong. None came in yesterday and the demand is for current needs. Fancy stocks are extremely scarce. New onions will not be in for another month.

Potatoes were steady and prices were without material change.

All kinds of green vegetables were in large supply and prices were easy. Asparagus dropped to 12c a pound. Lettuce and cabbage were in good demand.

Sales on change: Two sacks of fancy garlic; 2 lots of 10 cases each of local ranch eggs; 2 lots 10 sacks each of fancy Nevada onions.

Fish was equal to the demand.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 737 cases; butter, 23,240 lbs.; cheese, 1000 lbs.; potatoes, 2164 sacks; onions, 235 sacks; beans, none; sweet potatoes, none.

Prices Current.

EGGS—Candled, fresh California ranch, 20.

BUTTER—Creamery extras, 67½; creamery firsts, 65; dairy, 25.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKET.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 3.—The wheat market opened strong today because of higher prices at Liverpool and reports that the "green fly" was gradually spreading into Missouri. It was also reported from Ohio and Indiana that the growing crops are commencing to show the effects of the winter killing. The later dispatches were partially corroborated by the Ohio State report, which placed the condition of winter wheat on April 1 at 87, against 94 in December. Toward the end of the first hour, however, sentiment changed and prices eased off because of an official forecast of wet weather in the Southwest. The market continued weak for the remainder of the day, the weakness of corn and oats having a depressing effect on wheat. The close was easy, at a net loss of ¼ to ⅝. May wheat opened ¼ to ¾ to ⅛@⅜ lower at 78⅝@78¾, sold at 77¾, and then declined to 77⅜. Final quotations were at 78⅛@78¼. The feature of trading in the corn market was the liquidation of the May option, due chiefly to a decline of ⅛ to 1 cent in the price of cash grain. With the exception of May, business was in small volume. The market closed weak at a decline of ⅝, which was based upon the expectation that receipts will soon increase, caused by the present wet weather. The market opened unchanged to ⅛ higher, at 49⅜ to 49½, sold off to 48¾, and closed weak at 48⅝. Provisions opened steady, with the exception of May pork, which was ⅛ higher, and closed weakened on general selling. At the close May pork was off 10, lard was down 7½, and ribs were 10 lower.

New York Cotton Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

NEW YORK, April 3.—The cotton market opened very dull with cables featureless and a small spot demand in Liverpool. The bears took advantage of the lack of both to raid prices, but support was forthcoming on declines and a moderate covering movement developed. In the last trading, the undertone grew considerably steadier and prices worked up about ten points from the low. New crop advices are mixed. The drought has been relieved in Texas and crop preparations are well advanced, but there is fear of widespread injurious damage during the season in Texas. The movement shows a marked falling off and reports from interior towns state that stocks are small. Southern spot markets generally quiet and unchanged to 1-16 lower. Port receipts estimated, 14,000; last year, 13,976.

Charleston—Receipts, 512; stocks, 134; middlings, 10¾.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Our cotton market was due to come unchanged to two lower. Liverpool spots quiet and unchanged at 5.90 for American middlings on sales of 4000, including 3900 American. Imports 60,000 including 34,000 American. There is little feature to the news in cotton this morning. It looks as if the crop was getting an early start, though some judges believe the farmers will be led to plant too early and that unfavorable weather conditions may bring about considerable replanting. Ports looks like 15,000 against 27,210 last week and 13,970 last year and 27,-277 two years ago. Weather indications generally fair, warmer today and tomorrow, all over the belt.

Consols, 86 1-16; Tom Boy, 1 17-6.

New York Metal Market.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The London tin market was very weak with spot closing at £187 and futures at £181 or about £2 15s lower. The local market was weak in consequence with spot quoted at 39.50@40.60. Copper was apparently demoralized in the London market under what appeared to be liquidation by speculative holders and second hands. It closed at £91 15s or £5 5s lower and futures declined £5 10s to £89 10s. Locally the market was unsettled and nominally lower with lake quoted at 24.50@25.00; electrolytic at 24.00@24.50; casting, 23.00@23.50. It is said that the large producers are not meeting the decline. Lead closed at £19 12s 6d in London and was a little easier in the local market at 6.00@6.20. Spelter was unchanged at £26 in London, but declined to 6.75@6.85 locally. Iron locally was unchanged.

California Dried Fruits.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Evaporated apples are quiet on spot and prices are more less nominal. Fancy are quoted at 8¼; choice, 7; prime, 6½@6¾, and poor to fair, 5½@5⅝. Prunes quiet, but steady on account of unfavorable new crop reports. Quotations range from 2 to 13 for California fruit and from 3½ to 10 for Oregon. Apricots are in light supply on spot and confidently held in spite of a light demand. Choice are quoted at 12; extra choice, 13½@13, and fancy, 19@20. Peaches are quiet with quiet quoted at 11@11½; extra choice, 12@12½; fancy, 12½@13, and extra fancy, 13@13½. Raisins are in light demand. Loose muscatel are quoted at 5½@5; seeded raisins, 7¼@11, and London layers, 1.50@1.60.

New York General Market.

NEW YORK, April 3.—New crop options in wheat were fairly well sustained by bull crop news today, but May developed weakness under liquidation by traders who bought July. Near the close everything weakened a little on rumors of rain in the southwest, and final prices showed ⅛@⅜c net loss. May, 85¼@85 15-16; closed, 85½; July, 83⅞@83⅝, closed 84; September, 86 3-16@86 11-16, closed, 86¼. Hops, steady; wool, steady; petroleum, steady; hides, dull. Sugar—Raw, firm; fair refining, 3⅝; centrifugal, 96 test, 3⅝; molasses sugar, 2¾. Refined, steady.

SHRINE SIRCUS CHASES BLUES.

Final Touches Are Given to Three-Day Entertainment That Opens Tonight at Fiesta Park—Clown's and Other Performers Display the Talent of Professionals.

Warning is given that the Shrine Society Sircus, opening tonight in the big tent at Fiesta Park, will be subject to surprises, accidents, substitutions and other troubles. If any fun is added to the programme that was given at the dress rehearsal last night, the big audience already booked would better leave its tight-fitting clothes at home. There ought to be a wagonload of vest buttons and broken corset strings under the seats tomorrow morning.

At the dress rehearsal last night the scores of clowns, acrobats, bareback, trick and fancy riders, singers, dancers and dozens of other performers of novelties went through their final paces. It was the real circus, sawdust, costumes, and all, seen by only a few critical eyes. It was applauded loudly. There was keen appreciation of the work that has been done by the promoter and manager, Chester W. Thompson, and those who have worked hard with him for the last ninety days to make the big show a success.

From the grant entry, to the music of the "Jolly Shriners' March," to the concert that came after the main performance, the affair moved with a swing that stamped in advance the success of the circus, which will be given three nights running, with Saturday matinée.

"Herb" Cornish easily carried off the honors as the brightest star among the galaxy of funny men; Walter McCarty made a hit with his feats of bareback trick riding, while the Señorita Arabella Copprini, in pink tights, to improve her shape, made a marvelous hit as the world's premier equestrienne, doing barebark stunts that caused every breath in the tent to be bated.

It was only when the señorita shed her wig and disclosed a closely-cropped poll that any question was raised among the doubtful as to whether the rider was a man or a woman.

Sandwiched in among the funny numbers on the programme are a number of acts of great merit, that of the Fremont Zouaves among them. Few circus performances have been seen here that have presented so meritorious a show.

To go through the sixteen displays on the programme, each with novel acts that swell the total to more than half a hundred, would be giving away many of the surprises that are in store for the "first-nighters."

Already it is said the demand for tickets for all four performances is so great that only those who hurry now will be able to see the show. It is bound to be the amusement hit of the season.

The royal edict has gone forth as follows to Shriners who will attend the circus:

"Shriners should appear in full evening dress and wear the red fez, the insignia of the order. If you wish to be sporty, a toy ballon may be affixed to the buttonhole. It is the desire to make this event a 400 affair, and any Shriner ignoring the order will be relegated to the "Corn Holler district."

HOT AFTER AH CHAN.

SANTA BARBARA, April 2.—A wily "Chinee" by the name of Ah Chan is much sought for by bank officials of Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, and is supposed to be in hiding here. Chan is described as a bland chink, with a child-like smile and a pass-book from a Ventura bank. He has been operating among banks on an extensive scale for more than a week, but the victimized bankers have said nothing of their losses, nor have the police intimated that anything was wrong, believing that the cunning Chan would continue his successful game elsewhere.

As no new cases have been reported, a search was decided on at this place for Chan, and a Los Angeles detective in civilian clothes is prowling around Chinatown in the hope of nabbing the bold, bad, bland Mongolian operator.

Chan devised a scheme of quick money getting that outwitted a number of banks in this city and Los Angeles. His mode of operation was simple, and for that reason, possibly, the more perplexing to his victims. He drew out his balance of $2000 from the Ventura bank, retaining his pass-book, came to this city and wandered aimlessly into the First National Bank here on the first day of his arrival, wiggling his pigtail and [illegible] a perambulating monument of cence. He showed his pass-book cashier, who, on examination it, apparently, in good cashed a check for $40 for the man. Various other checks of lar amount were cashed banks here, but the bank officials naturally reticent about it having been outwitted by almond-eyed son of sin. From Chan is said to have gone to geles and operated there on scale, securing $100 and stroke.
